CHURCH PREFERENCE.—The Rev. William H. Buck, late chaplain of the Queen's Prison to the vicarage of Sutton-cum-Seaford, Sussex, diocese of Chichester; patron, the Lord Chancellor.—(London Times, March 7.)

The above gentleman is a brother to W. M. Buck, Esq., C. E., of this town.

ENERGY OF CHARACTER.—When Cornelius Vanderbilt was a young man, his mother gave him $50 of her savings to buy a small sail boat, and he engaged in the business of transporting market-gardening from Staten Island to New York City. When the wind was not favorable, he would work his way over the shoals by pushing the boat along by poles, putting his own shoulder to the pole, and was very sure to get his freight into market in season. This energy gave him always a command of full freights, and he accumulated money. After awhile he began to build and run steamboats, and he is now reputed to be worth more than nineteen millions of dollars.

—A small quantity of spring butter, from Pennsylvania, was purchased for a hotel in Boston on Friday for one dollar per pound. —Eight young ladies have emigrated from Lowell Mass., to Washington Territory, where they are to be employed as school teachers.

Her many excellent qualities endeared her to a wide circle of acquaintances, and having been out of the bloom of youth her death is very much regretted. Her end was firm hope and peace in Jesus.

Beautiful flower thy bloom is shed,
Hannah Athelia, thou art dead.
Yet art not dead, but merely gone,
Where pain and sorrow are unknown.
Your mortal part we still have here,
Your soul accounted far more dear
By God, is now we trust above
In heaven, where all is peace and love.

We mourn our loss, and yet we praise
The Being who was pleased to raise
You to the place where all are kept
In bliss. We weep—for Jesus wept.
