further Evidence Given To-day in the Action Brought By Major McFarlane.

The libel action brought by Major MacFarlane against F. W. Garnett is still proceeding in the Supreme court before Chief Justice Hunter. The plaintiff alleges that he was libelled by the defendant in some letters written by the latter to the press following upon the plaintiff's acquittal on charge of shooting bulls near Duncans without excuse.

Yesterday afternoon the prosecut osed its case and Mr. Bodwell, for the e, made his opening address to the jury. The defence, he said, would how that the letters written by Mr. tiff in particular, but that they referred only in a general way to the mat ter of the shooting of bulls, a matter that was of interest to the whole comlunity. Major MacFarlane had, said Mr. Bodwell, taken the onus of the shooting upon himself by applying the emarks of the defendant in his con munications to the papers to himself.
The defence would show that two bulls were shot and that the animals were
