VICTORIA, B.C., December 18th, 1924.

Sir:-

Attached please find copy of a letter I have received from the Chief of the Coldwater Indians, Kamloops Agency, which has reference to moneys in connection with the sale of the timber on their reserves to the Nicola Pine Mills, a subject about which I have very little information as I had nothing to do with it, though I did hear some time ago from Mr. Dallin, when he was agent, that the Company were behind with their payments. If there are any funds which are to be distributed it might be well to send a cheque to Agent Helmsing for this purpose.
