Jewelry for Evening Wear

When you're finished dressing for a social function do you sometimes feel that something is lacking? Perhaps the one thing needed to produce the desired effect is a necklace or sunburst—or perhaps a bracelet. A bit of jewelry is, as a rule, what is wanted. Come in and compare prices for no other reason.

Store closes evenings at 7:30 except Saturday.

Happenings of The Week

Engagements are crowding in upon each other in such a fashion that one finds difficulty in attending all. The past week has been a truly delightful one. Entertaining has been on such an original and varied scale. St. Valentine's Day gave scope for many bright ideas, to say that they were well carried out would be a verified fact. There were numerous skating and tobogganing parties and these will go on as long as the snow lasts. The match between the Thistle and St. Andrew's lady curlers proved a victory for the former. The play was excellent and was close throughout. The Tullies are now 1911 champions. The outing on Tuesday given by the Westfield Association was a huge success and it is to be hoped there will be another before the season closes. A great many left on the noon train. Summer camps, houses, etc., were opened and endless were the pleasures indulged in. Among the many summer residents and their friends who enjoyed the trip were: Mrs. Arthur Bowman and children, Mrs. J. Lee Day, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock, Miss Gladys Bullock, Miss Janet Bullock, Mrs. R. Cruikshank and children, Mr. E. E. Church, Mr. Will Church, Misses Church, Miss Vera, McLaughlin, Miss Winifred Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Spencer, Mrs. Steve McAvity, Miss Nora Robinson, Mrs. Ernest Bowman, Mr. Charles McDonald, Miss Ethel McAvity, Miss Lillie Raymond, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Janice Stone, Miss Hattie Allen, Miss Bertha Macaulay, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shives Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Blizard, Mrs. H. A. Forell, Miss Jean McDonald, Miss Warke, Mr. Smith, Miss Maud Smith, Mr. Horace Porter, Mr. Arthur Rankine, Mr. Douglas Clinch and Mr. Percy McAvity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen entertained at a ladies and gentlemen's bridge on Thursday evening. A number of ladies and gentlemen chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schofield went to Pokok on Wednesday evening for dinner and also enjoyed a snowshoe tramp. Those in the party were: Miss Lou McMillan, Miss Winnifred Barker, Miss Elsie McLean, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison and Mr. Bowyer Smith, Mr. James Harrison, Mr. Gordon Kerr, Mr. Harold Stetson and Mr. Kenneth Luchies.

The La Tour Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire will hold a sale next Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Sherwood Skelton. Afternoon tea will also be served.

A Japanese tea and concert will be given next Tuesday afternoon in St. Stephen's Sunday school. Miss Grace Fisher left for Sackville last Friday where she will visit her brother for some time.

Mr. Wm. Vassie entertained at a stage party on Tuesday evening at his residence Paddock street. Miss Hilda Peters, King street east, entertained at a girl's drawing room tea on Thursday afternoon. Miss Peters were a gown of mauve chiffon and wore a beautiful bouquet of violets. Mrs. Hamilton received with her and wore a black satin gown with jet trimmings. Mrs. Jordan presided at the tea table, which was very pretty with yellow candles and shades, the oral decorations being daffodils. Mrs. Pollard, the jeweller, presided. Those who waited were Mrs. Barker, Miss Helen McAvenny, Miss Kathleen Gillis, Miss Nora Knight, Miss Hazel Hall and Miss Collie Fairweather. Among the guests were Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Usher Miller, Miss Hazel deForest, Miss Marjorie Knight, Miss Winnifred Raymond, Miss Ethel McAvity, Miss S. Brown, Miss Beatrice Frink, Miss Vera McLaughlin, Miss Jean White, Miss Daisy Sears, Miss Rita Berton and Miss Edith Carter.

Miss Emily Toed entertained at a sewing party on Wednesday afternoon. The Valentine idea was carried out both in decorations and contests. Miss Kathleen Gillis, Union street, entertained at a sewing party on Monday afternoon. The affair was in honor of Miss Edith Carter of Fredericton. Among the guests were Miss Collie Fairweather, Miss Rita Berton, Miss Grace Fairweather, Miss Hazel deForest, Miss Beatrice Frink, Miss Grace Fleming, Miss Vera McLaughlin, Miss Gladys Hegan, Miss Hilda Peters and Miss Winnifred Raymond. Madame Schumann Heink, the famous contralto, was the featured attraction for a brief time Tuesday afternoon and left at four o'clock for Ottawa to sing at the Russell Theatre in the evening.

Miss Nancy Kingston returned last week from Fredericton. St. Paul's Valley church was the scene of a happy event on Tuesday morning of this week when Miss Alice Hamilton, youngest daughter of the late Dr. George Hamilton was united in marriage with Mr. Rupert Zwicker of Cape Breton. The relatives and friends of the bride were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. E. B. Hooper. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Rev. James Hilde, wore a very becoming costume of white serge with white hat and white feather ruff, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Mrs. Arthur Howe, of New York, the matron of honor, was dressed in a beautiful costume of

RAGING HEADACHE STOPPED AT ONCE

When He Took "Fruit-a-lives"

Shanly, Ont., Sept. 23rd, 1910.

"You certainly have the Greatest discovered Headache Cure in the world. Before 'Fruit-a-lives' came before me I suffered tortures from Headaches caused by Stomach Disorders.

"One of my travellers called on me when I had one of my raging headaches and had my head almost raw from external applications.

"I hated to see any person coming into the store (much less a commercial traveller) and suffer so terribly that I had a headache but I insisted on my trying 'Fruit-a-lives'."

"I did so, with what I would call amazing results. They completely cured me and since then (nearly six years ago) it is only necessary for me to take one occasionally to preserve me in my present good health.

"I was 65 years old yesterday and I have been a general store keeper at the above address for twenty-five years."

W. M. PITT

As Mr. Pitt says "Fruit-a-lives" is the greatest headache cure in the world.

Dealers everywhere have "Fruit-a-lives" at 60c. a box, 6 for $2.50 or trial size, 25c. per box, in bottles of 100, by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, 173 out for a ladies' bridge next week.

The largest tea of the week was given on Tuesday afternoon, by Mrs. Percy Walker Thompson at her handsome residence Germain street. Mrs. Thompson received her guests in a lovely gown of pale blue silk with handsome lace yoke and sleeves, trimmed with white chiffon and velvet. The drawing rooms were handsomely trimmed with pink carnations and smilax. The guests were taken to the room by Mrs. Louis Barker in black velvet gown, large black hat with plumes. The dining room was strikingly pretty, every thing was symbolic of the day. The dining table had a magnificent centrepiece of red geraniums, forming a huge heart, over this hovered tiny cupid, strings of red hearts suspended from the electrifier. The refreshments all carried on in keeping with the day, tiny confections all of which were in the form of hearts on which were tiny gift arrows. Mrs. Simeon Jones in black mink over silk trimmed with emerald green, large black hat with green plumes, Mrs. Leonard Tilley in white velvet and large black hat with white ostrich plumes presided at the tea table. Those who assisted were: Mrs. Kellie Jones, in pale blue silk, blue hat with pink roses; Mrs. F. C.
