

SUSSEX

Sussex, April 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. McLean spent the Easter holidays in St. John.

Miss Winifred Robertson, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. H. Reid, returned to her home in St. John on Tuesday.

Mrs. D. McAllister is visiting relatives in Montreal.

Mr. Garfield White and children, who have been spending the Easter holidays in New York, arrived home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Everett Keith was a visitor to St. John on Tuesday.

Mrs. Caswell and Master Frank B. Spear, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Spear, returned to Havelock on Wednesday.

Mrs. Peter Pittsford of Millis, Mass., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. A. Keith, Church Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Keith and two sons, Gerald and Ronald, spent the week-end with Mr. Keith's mother, Mrs. Sam Keith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Worrell were visitors to St. John for over Easter Sunday.

Mr. S. H. White returned on Friday last from the Southern States, where he spent the winter months. His many friends are glad to know that he is much improved in health.

Rev. Mr. Greenwood was the guest of Rev. L. J. and Mrs. Ingley over Sunday. He preached at both services in the Baptist Church on Sunday last.

Mr. Connelly entertained at afternoon tea on Saturday last in honor of her daughter, Miss Jean Connelly of St. John.

P. King and Mrs. Forsythe, Mrs. O. P. King and Mrs. Gertrude Sherwood, served little Miss Jean Forsythe at the door. The guests were Mrs. L. R. Murray, Mrs. A. Forsythe, Mrs. Black, Mrs. A. Bain, Mrs. W. Francis, Miss Grace Kirk, Miss Julia Morison, Miss Kathleen Kirk, Miss Nettie Morison, Miss Gretchen Mills, Miss Laura Morison and Miss Gertrude Sherwood.

Mr. J. Albert Perkins spent Wednesday in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jewett of Keewick, York Co., returned to their home on Tuesday after spending a few days in town, guests of their daughter, Mrs. Blaine Perry, Paradise Row.

Rev. A. Y. Morison went to Halifax on Wednesday to attend a meeting of the Board of the Presbyterian College of which he is a member. On his return he is to spend Sunday in Moncton, supplying the pulpit of St. John's Presbyterian Church, and conducting the anniversary service of Prince Alfred Lodge I. O. O. F.

Rev. A. D. Archibald of Pictou, N. S., will occupy the pulpit of Chalmers Presbyterian Church this Sunday.

Miss Constance Creed was the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown at Hampton, the last of the week.

Mrs. L. R. Murray and daughter left Wednesday afternoon for Portland, Me., to join L. Col. (Dr.) Murray. They expect to call for England about the last of the month.

Miss Eudora Brown of St. John, spent the holidays in Sussex, with her mother, Mrs. F. A. Brown, Church Ave.

The Misses Florrie and Elsie Wallace were in St. John for the Easter holiday.

Mr. Roy Wallace of River Glade, spent the holidays the guest of his mother, Mrs. Walter Wallace.

The social held by the G. W. V. A. Tuesday evening, at their rooms, Empire Block, was an enjoyable affair. Captain Goodfellow occupied the chair and the following programme was carried out:

Piano solo—Miss Gertrude Sherwood.

Vocal solo—S. J. Margreaves.

Reading—Miss Smith.

Piano duet—Mrs. Goodfellow and Mrs. Stubbs.

Vocal solo—Rev. L. R. Richards.

Spanish dance—Miss Marjorie Wetmore.

Vocal solo—Miss Marjorie Chapman.

Reading—P. J. Clarke.

Quintette—Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. Myles, Messrs. Myles, Hargreaves and Thompson.

At the conclusion of the programme dancing and cards were indulged in. A dainty luncheon was served during the evening.

Mrs. Walter Fairweather and Mrs. George Saffren are visiting in Boston, Mass.

Monday evening Miss Olive McKenna entertained a number of friends at a very enjoyable party.

Mrs. Harry Wallace was hostess at a delightful afternoon tea on Monday, at her residence, Pleasant Ave., in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. McAllister of Moncton, spent the week-end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bolton.

Miss Kathleen Willis of Amherst, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace for the Easter holidays.

The Misses Marjorie Willis and Mildred Wallace spent the Easter holidays in Amherst, guests of Mrs. A. L. Moss.

Flight Lieut. W. H. Irvine of Fredericton, was in town a few days last week, guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brown, Main street.

Miss Bessie Robinson of Salsbury, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Hazel Hill, for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross of St. John, spent Easter with the former's sister, Mrs. Annie Armstrong, Queen street.

J. M. McIntyre of Sackville, spent the week-end in town.

Miss Edith McLeod left last week to enter the Lynn Hospital, Lynn, Mass., to train for a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Milne White were visitors to St. John last week.

Mr. Frank Barrett of Boston, Mass., spent Easter in town with friends.

Rev. S. J. and Mrs. Perry of Dawson Settlement, are guests of their son, S. B. Perry, Paradise Row.

Miss Alice McLeod was in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Harry Thorne of Fredericton, was the guest of friends here for Easter.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

spent the week-end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bolton.

Miss Kathleen Willis of Amherst, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace for the Easter holidays.

The Misses Marjorie Willis and Mildred Wallace spent the Easter holidays in Amherst, guests of Mrs. A. L. Moss.

Flight Lieut. W. H. Irvine of Fredericton, was in town a few days last week, guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brown, Main street.

Miss Bessie Robinson of Salsbury, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Hazel Hill, for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross of St. John, spent Easter with the former's sister, Mrs. Annie Armstrong, Queen street.

J. M. McIntyre of Sackville, spent the week-end in town.

Miss Edith McLeod left last week to enter the Lynn Hospital, Lynn, Mass., to train for a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Milne White were visitors to St. John last week.

Mr. Frank Barrett of Boston, Mass., spent Easter in town with friends.

Rev. S. J. and Mrs. Perry of Dawson Settlement, are guests of their son, S. B. Perry, Paradise Row.

Miss Alice McLeod was in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Harry Thorne of Fredericton, was the guest of friends here for Easter.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

spent the week-end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bolton.

Miss Kathleen Willis of Amherst, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace for the Easter holidays.

The Misses Marjorie Willis and Mildred Wallace spent the Easter holidays in Amherst, guests of Mrs. A. L. Moss.

Flight Lieut. W. H. Irvine of Fredericton, was in town a few days last week, guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Brown, Main street.

Miss Bessie Robinson of Salsbury, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Hazel Hill, for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross of St. John, spent Easter with the former's sister, Mrs. Annie Armstrong, Queen street.

J. M. McIntyre of Sackville, spent the week-end in town.

Miss Edith McLeod left last week to enter the Lynn Hospital, Lynn, Mass., to train for a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Milne White were visitors to St. John last week.

Mr. Frank Barrett of Boston, Mass., spent Easter in town with friends.

Rev. S. J. and Mrs. Perry of Dawson Settlement, are guests of their son, S. B. Perry, Paradise Row.

Miss Alice McLeod was in St. John on Monday.

Mr. Harry Thorne of Fredericton, was the guest of friends here for Easter.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Gunner Guy Nickerson of Moncton, who returned from overseas on the Olympic last week, was the guest this week of his brother, Clifford Nickerson, St. George street.

The ball held on Easter Monday evening under the auspices of the National Club, was one of the most pleasing social events of the season. The chaperones were Mrs. E. H. Vickers and Mrs. William Howard.

The Misses Ella Lockhart, Nellie Freeze and Beatrice Lutz spent the holidays in Pettaquamscutt, guests of Mrs. E. G. Crandall.

Anniversary Celebration

Hundreds of People Taking Advantage of Our Anniversary Celebration Sale Prices. They Are Coming from Far and Near. This Event Presents the Opportunity You Have Long Been Waiting For.

True economy consists in supplying your requirements when prices are below value. Judged by this standard, our Anniversary Sale is a not-to-be-missed economy happening, for it provides seasonable merchandise of the finest qualities, the kind you need, at prices that represent but a portion of the actual value of the goods. Won't these values make you hurry your