VISITING CLERGY FROM NEW YORK

Rev. Kennedy H. Palmer is Commissioner for Society for International Friendship.

Rev. Kennedy H. Palmer, of New York, who came to St. John as special preacher for the 125th anniversary of the founding of Queen Square Methodist Church, and who lectured upon "Ireland in Storm and Calm" last evening, is commissioner for the Society for British and American Friendship. Mr. Palmer was in St. John some three or four years ago, when he spoke in a number of churches of various denominations. In the interests of his society Mr. Palmer travels the length and breadth of Canada and the United States, speaking before Canadian Clubs, Women's Clubs, congregations and other audiences. He expects to return to Eastern Canada shortly, bringing with him one who is known as one of the greatest friends of Great Britain, George T. Wilson, a past president of the Pilgrims' Club of New York. Requests have come from all over Canada for Mr. Wilson to address meetings.

While in St. John, Mr. Palmer is the guest of Rev. Neil McLaughlin and Mrs. McLaughlin, Pagan Place.

Sugar And The Housewife

Preserving and Canning Sugar Looms Large in Household Budget.

Sugar, the price of which has been so thoroughly discussed during the last few days, is an item of the utmost importance to the housewife just at the present time. While always a commodity of the greatest usefulness, in the autumn, the time of preserving and canning sugar looms large in the household budget. Although most of this season's preserving is done there still remain apples and crabapples to be converted into jelly, citron marmalade, quinces and pumpkins to be preserved, and grapes for jelly and grape juice.

Cake, in the manufacture of which butter, eggs and sugar play so large a part has become in many families, since the high price of these materials, a luxury to be afforded only for festivities. We may see return to the eggless, butterless, milkless, untraced cake of war time.

United Service At St. David's Church

Large Congregation Heard Thanksgiving Sermon by Rev. M. Legate Yesterday.

A large attendance marked the impressive united thanksgiving service held in St. David's Church at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. The service was arranged by the Presbyterian Ministers' Association and was conducted by the Rev. J. R. MacKellan assisted by the Rev. J. R. Miller of New Richmond. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Moorehouse Legate of Kentville.

It was largely one of praise, a duet by the Misses Thomson and O'Hara was rendered in a most sympathetic manner and special anthems were also sung by the choir.

Mr. Legate's sermon was a short one. He spoke upon the reasons for thanksgiving and pointed out the united position held by Canada as a nation, and why Canadians should have special reason for thanksgiving, dwelling as they did in a land in which every hand and which was free from industrial and other forms of strife.

He referred to the awakening of all the churches throughout Canada to the united position held by Canada as a nation, and why Canadians should have special reason for thanksgiving, dwelling as they did in a land in which every hand and which was free from industrial and other forms of strife.

The closing anthem by the choir, "Lord of the Lions, Hark, Canada Thine Own," was taken from the new hymnal, the air being that of "O Canada."

Reflections of A Bachelor Girl

By HELEN ROWLAND (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Hold onto the pennies—and the dollars will buy your widow a lovely mourning outfit, with which to catch a husband who is not so penniless.

Woman is the peg, on which the youth hangs his ideals; the man of thirty his dreams, his excuses, and his cynicisms; the man of forty, his jokes; and the man of sixty, his sermons.

A man can judge a girl by the way in which she orders a dinner, at his expense. If she orders lavishly, she is a spendthrift or a "gold-digger." If she orders cheaply and modestly, she is either very considerate or very wise; if she orders fancy dishes not in the menu, she is a peacemaker, a snob or a fool; and if she says, "Oh, let's go home and broil a chop in my kitchenette!"—she is a wonder!

When a man thinks that a woman over thirty is passing, it is an unmistakable sign of either his extreme youth or his extreme old age.

The greatest mistake of a bride's life is to think that if she dresses as a show-girl, around the house, she is giving her husband a novel sensation. The most thrilling novelty that any girl can offer a man in these days, is a little reserve!

A woman will lie to anybody else on earth, sooner than to the man she loves; a man will lie to the woman he loves, sooner than to anybody else on earth.

It is almost as withering to appear of a "worthy woman" as it is to speak of a "worthy poem," an "instructive book," an "exemplary young man" or an "ostensible song."

A summer love-affair is always an amusing diversion for one—but it takes quite a while to find out which one.

To a bachelor, marriage is the most interesting thing in the world—to TALK about.

Queen Square Methodist Church

Special Services Sunday to Celebrate 125th Anniversary—Speaker, Rev. K. H. Palmer

To celebrate the 125th Anniversary of the Founding of Queen Square Methodist Church, special services were held on Sunday both morning and evening, and an interesting programme is arranged for the week. Jointed with the praise offered for the many years during which worshippers have met in this and other buildings before the present edifice was erected, thanksgiving for this year's bountiful harvest was offered. Prunk and vegetable decorated the church and large congregations assembled for both services.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Rayworth, sang the following anthems: "Give Thanks" (Lorenz) and "Behold the Sower." Leslie Bewick sang a solo, and a trio was rendered by Mrs. George Hamm, Miss Marjorie Turner and Miss Daisy Stevenson. The pastor, Rev. Neil McLaughlin, B.A., conducted the services.

Visiting Clergymen. Rev. Kennedy H. Palmer, of New York, preached most acceptably both morning and evening. The morning's sermon was an evangelical one on reconciliation with God. In the evening Rev. Palmer gave a very eloquent discourse, speaking on the text: "We See Jesus" Heb. 2:9. He pointed out the Paul's conception of Jesus as the centre of humanity, authority, love, worship and service. That to people of today the problems of the world are inexplicable, except as interpreted by Jesus.

The only way in which man's lost sovereignty can be restored is when in every soul the possibility of Christ's spirit is realized. Man is not called to a selfish salvation, but to a life of service for Jesus. In every person to be raised and helped Christ showed His grace and service rendered as to Him.

Historical Sketch. The following historic sketch was abbreviated by the pastor, Neil McLaughlin, from a historic sketch from the pen of Dr. Robert Wilson, which appeared in the St. John Sun May, the 19th, 1908.

The history of Methodism in this city extends over a period of one hundred and thirty years. The early promoters were Loyalists who refused to take the oath of allegiance to the Republic of the United States. Prominent among these was Stephen Hambert, who, with a few others, made application to the Methodist of New England, and John Abraham Bishop was sent. He arrived in St. John September 24th, 1791. He preached his first sermon the next day in the home of Wm. Kelly. The following Sabbath he organized a society of which he appointed Mrs. William Kelly as leader. The Kelly home stood on the eastern side of Charlotte street, on the site now occupied by the F. W. Williams Co. Three months after Mr. Bishop's first sermon it happened that the Episcopalians moved to the Trinity, and the Methodists moved into the vacated building. Christmas day, 1791, found them comfortably established in a church of their own. This building stood on the east side of German street, between Duke and Queen, and as a church, court-house and police station. The jubilee of this church was observed in 1859, for nearly sixty years the church was headquarters for Methodism, not only in St. John but through out the province. At last came the fire of 1877, and swept away this church, together with half of the city of St. John. Pending the decision as to where and how to rebuild the congregation for a time worshipped in turn in Exmouth, Waterloo Baptist church and in Ring's hall. The corner stone of the present building was laid on the 18th of July, 1878, on the north side of Queen Square, at a cost of forty-five thousand dollars. Those taking part in the service were: B. Gwynn, Joseph Hart, John S. Addy, R. W. Woodall, D. D. Currie. The schoolroom was dedicated in 18th of July, and in the morning the sermon was preached by John A. Phelan in the evening by Benjamin Chappell.

In the afternoon the Sunday school was addressed by Dr. Pope, J. S. Addy, James Sullivan, James Baslin and James R. Woodburn. The dedication of the completed building took place on the 5th of October, 1879. Those participating on that occasion were: Ezekiah McKewen, John S. Addy, Henry Pope, John Prince, James R. Naraway, Charles Stewart, D. D. Currie. Queen Square rightly claims to be the legal successor of the first Methodist church founded in this city, and also claims to be the mother of the seven other Methodist churches established in St. John and vicinity, and it still stands virile and progressive, and the centre of praiseworthy activity.

The pastors who have been appointed to the present church are: John Reid, Job Shenton, H. P. Coworth-wait, Robert Mason, Job Shenton, Thomas Marshall, St. W. Woodall, Howard Sprague, George M. Campbell, Hedley D. Marr, Hammond Johnson, Geo. Morris and the present pastor.

MANY INJURED IN DISORDERS AT WHITEHALL

Trouble Starts When Demonstrators Attempt to Break Through Police Cordon.

(Continued from page one.) A number of persons were injured when a crowd, headed by the Red Flag of the Totokoman District Socialist and Labor Party, made a determined rush and tried to break through the police line. Eventually the red flag was captured.

The demonstration to the Premier consisted of fifteen heads of London burials asking relief for the unemployed. The disorders were still proceeding when the demonstration emerged from the Premier's official residence at 10 Downing street and quieted the crowd. The same time a small party of demonstrators went to the neighboring Trafalgar Square, set up a red flag and sang the "Internationale" and cheered Lenin and Trotsky. No trouble developed here, however, the police not interfering. The police finally dispersed the rioters.

Unemployed in Parade. In connection with the sending of the deputation to the Premier a parade of ten thousand of the unemployed had been planned to march to Downing Street as a demonstration. After the disorders had subsided the parade of the unemployed reformed and continued towards Trafalgar Square in an orderly manner and escorted by the police. Fifty injured persons were given treatment when the parade of the unemployed reformed and continued towards Trafalgar Square in an orderly manner and escorted by the police. ## WOMEN LIKE FIGHTS

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Women, by nature are not for peace and "for a fight," James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic candidate for Governor of Illinois, declared the other night in an address before the banquet of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association. "Man is for peace," he added, "but woman's nature is to demand conflict, if necessary, to establish principles she feels necessary to the government of home."

"In politics," the former Senator continued, "men vote for someone or for something. Women vote against someone or something. A woman is more concerned in the defeat or overthrow of what she objects to than as to whom or what shall be put in its place. It is customary to presume women will be for any measure which leads to peace. The fact is that by nature, woman is not for peace. Man is for peace, but woman is for a fight."

Intensions Good. Many a man who would like to be a wolf these days is kept in his place by the fact that sheep's clothing is too dear.
