The Fisheries Question Discussed The Fisheries Question Disourced Some Difficulty Found in Fram-ing an Act to Enable the Prov-ince to Control the Provincial Fisheries. Francessorow, N. E., April 24.-Mr Venict, from the standing rules com-mittee, and Mr. Burchill, from the cor-porations committee, submitted report. Mr. Melanson saked for particulars as to the Russe I Brook bridge in the partial the exclusive right to the middls of the steam. I think it is doubtful whether this bill will not take it away. Hop. Mr. White-Well, that don't re-Hop. Mr. White-Well, that don't re-fer to navigable waters, Mr. Haran eaid that small streams were navigable water. Take. for in-stance, the Nepisiquit river. Logs are driven down a d towboats and cances pass up and dowr. The cli definition that navigable water was only tidal water was exploded long agc. This sec-tion woull take away from these peo-ole the proprietary rights they have.

Mr. Melaneon acked for particulars as Mr. Mile Bussel Brook bridge in the parish of Acadieville, Kent county. Hor. Mr. Emmerson-I would say that tenders were asked for twice. The last time four tenders were received, vim From L J Wathen, $260; Abraham Venict, $300; Solomon Ali an, 225; Izvine awarded to the lowest tenderer, Mr. S. Allen. np, what is the result? You must remove the stuff or it will decay and fill your house with évil odors of putrefaction. That's precisely what happens in your own body when you become constipated, and the poisonous matter is taken up by the blood and carried back into your system, only its much worse, because you are unconscious of the effects, but every one who comes near you literally smells you. I know, slightly, two ladies, both of them ami-able and attractive women otherwise, who are veritable walking charnel houses 1 Could I use a more expres-sive or truthful term? These ladies are so saturated with the poisonous effluvia from their internal economy that they are habituated to it; their sense of smell is blunted. I wonder how their husbands endure them!
