Office this morning, which has a touch of history. It was sent by Mr. John A. Hughes, a merchant at Springfield, Ill., who has been active in collecting money for distressed people. It was tightly rolled up in two or three sheets of not very white letter paper, and contained five dollars and five cents, nearly all in one, two and three cent pieces and nickels: also two faded pieces of paper currency of the old five and ten cents issue. Evidently this was some child's treasure, the accumulations of a little box for months or years. On the inner wrapping was written, 'little Lilly's money, to go to a poor child;' on the outer paper written in a different hand, 'From Little Lilly, for the Memphis sufferers—a dying bequest.' No other explanations were given.
