

MAYOR, ex officio, Justice of Peace for County.—sec. 109, p. 71.

Absence for three months, without authority to vacate Office.

—sec. 110, p. 71.

MISDEMEANOR: shall be deemed guilty of, Members of Corporation seeking to evade By-Law for payment of interest and principal of debt contracted.—sec. 178, p. 96.

All persons issuing Bonds, Bills, Debentures, &c. contrary to the provisions of this Act.—sec. 184, p. 101.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATION : Who shall be the Head of Corporation.—sec. 108, p. 71.

Absence for three months without authority, to vacate Office.—sec. 110, p. 71.

May resign, with consent of Corporation.—sec. 111, p. 72.

Member of Corporation becoming insolvent, to cease to be Member.—sec. 112, p. 72.

Head of Corporation, may administer Oath.—sec. 113, p. 72.

Members of existing Corporations, to continue in Office till fourth Monday in January, 1850.—sec. 114, p. 72.

May petition Governor in Council, to enlarge boundaries and alter division of Wards of Towns and Villages.—sec. 115, p. 73.

Not to grant exclusive right to exercise any trade ; but may have exclusive right to certain Ferries.—sec. 116 p. 73.

To be " Health Officers," but may delegate their powers.—sec. 137, p. 80.

appropriations and reservations for Market places, vested in.—sec. 138, p. 80.

May purchase landed property beyond limits of Town or City for an industrial Farm, which shall be deemed within limits and under municipal jurisdiction.—sec. 139, p. 80.

May purchase real property beyond or within its limits for one or more Cemeteries ; but purchase must be sanctioned by a By-Law, which shall not be liable to repeal, nor can the property be otherwise appropriated.—sec. 141, p. 81.

And have the like power of purchase for Gunpowder Magazines.—sec. 142, p. 82.

To hold office until successors are sworn in and the new Corporation completed.—sec. 167, p. 91.

Majority of whole number to form a quorum for dispatch of business.—sec. 168, p. 91. If Chairman be absent a temporary one may be elected.—ibid. Majority of members present always to decide—the Chairman giving only the casting vote.—ibid.