

York outjousts Lancers

Walter Weigel Jr.

"I have the utmost respect for York." This statement by Windsor head Coach Gingo Fracas is characteristic of the changing attitude that players, coaches and spectators alike have towards York's football Yeomen.

Last Saturday York displayed tremendous poise and determination in beating one of the league's strong teams, the Windsor Lancers, 22-14.

York was down 14-2 early in the game as the Lancers appeared as though they would roll over the Yeomen. But York, who according to head Coach Frank Cosentino collectively inspired themselves, came back in true underdog fashion to turn the game around.

Yeoman quarterback Mike Foster engineered drive after drive, completing 19 passes out of 29 attempts. He also showed more confidence in throwing over the middle to tight ends Dave Strauss and Mark Hopkins. Foster passed to Larry Aicken for a York major and also scored one himself. Kicker Sergio Capobianco completed the scoring by adding 10 points for York.

outstanding defence at last week's confrontation. Aside from a poor start, the defence "kicked the heck out of Windsor," as Fracas put it.

Special credit is deserved by the three man defensive line who constantly harassed Windsor quarterback Scott Mallender.

Defensive end Rick Lyall, in particular, displayed fearsome pass-rushing skills.

This Saturday the Yeomen travel to Waterloo to tackle an awesome running game team, the first-place Canadian-ranker college team, the Wilfred Laurier Hawks.
