

Air Force Band In Sunday Concert

Playing to an audience of approximately 500 persons, the No. 4 I.T.S. band presented a special concert Sunday afternoon at the Normal School Auditorium, now part of No. 4 I.T.S.

The band, conducted by Warrant Officer C. G. South, played with equal ease march selections such as R.A.F. March Past and Standard of St. George, and popular numbers ranging from Romberg's May time to Cole Porter's Begin the Beguine.

During the intermission, Wing Commander Ewart G. Macpherson, commanding officer of the school, presented to E. F. McGarvey, chairman of the Edmonton Red Cross committee, a cheque for $2,029.77, representing voluntary contribution from men stationed at I.T.S. to the Red Cross and also the proceeds of $110.35 collected at the concert.

The concert was under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary to the school.

I.T.S. Men Give Red Cross $2,029

Wing Cndr. Ewart G. Macpherson, officer commanding No. 4 I.T.S., R.C.A.F., Sunday presented the Red Cross a cheque for $2,029, the total contributions volunteered by the personnel of the air force station up to date.

The presentation was made to Red Cross official, E. F. McGarvey, during the band concert in the former Normal school auditorium. The concert was sponsored by the women's auxiliary to No. 4 I.T.S.

Patrons were Hon. J. C. Bowen, lieutenant-governor, and Mrs. Bowen, Mayor and Mrs. Fry, W.O. C. G. South directed the band.

Featured soloist with the band was contralto Norma Madill, who sang "When You're Away," by Victor Herbert; and "Carmena," by Lane Wilson. Mrs. Donald Sims was the accompanist. LAC. Ted Lindskoog, violinist, also was heard in a violin solo. Sgt. R. H. Mumford was his accompanist.

Cpl. Dewhurst, LAC. F. Smith and LAC. C. Bedward played a cornet trio, "The Three Solitaires," by Herbert.

During the concert members of the audience contributed $110 in a voluntary "collection" for the Edmonton Red Cross campaign.