

Do you find them improved in their mode of Agriculture to 9
any great degree since you first had charge of them?
To what extent do they cultivate their land in common?

Can you state the No. who have commenced to till the land 10 during that period. What instruments did ^{they} ~~you~~ use when you first had charge of them & what do they now use?

What quantity of Agricultural implements do they possess? 11
& are they careful of them? Do they thoroughly understand the use of them?

What stock do they possess, and do they pay proper 12
attention to it during the winter season?

What mode of Agriculture do they generally pursue. If it 13 differs from that of White Settlers, state in what the difference consists?

What description of grain or pulse do they mostly cultivate? 14

Can you state the quantities each Tribe has produced 15
in any one year?

By whom is the field labor performed? If by the young men, 16 do they take their fair share of the labor?

Is the division of the day as regards labor systematic? 17

Do they partake of their meals at regular stated periods 18
of the day, as is customary among White Settlers?

Is their fondness for fishing, hunting &c. as great 19
as formerly?