

Carnegie Corporation ✓ 40642
WR

Harvard Club, New York,
January 14, 1919.

Mr. P. C. Larkin,
32 Yonge Street,
Toronto, Canada.

My dear Mr. Larkin:

Matters of importance which must necessarily have an influence on any decision I may be called upon to make regarding the future part it may be mine to take in Canadian politics, have come up for my consideration here. You have been so kind in permitting me the opportunity to talk over personal and political matters with you, and have evidenced your friendship in so many ways, that before reaching a decision, I feel I should like to have a talk with you.

I have to be in Chicago on Monday next. If you were going to be in Toronto on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday of this week, and it would be possible for you to see me, I should endeavor to arrange my plans here so as to go to Chicago via Toronto, stopping over in Toronto for one or two days on the way. Would you mind sending me a wire to this Club, letting me know if you will be in the city on one or other of these days.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Larkin, Miss Larkin, and yourself,
Believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 46

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA