7 March

Rev. Sir,

I have to call your attention to the omission on your part to reply to the letter addressed to you on the 7th June last, on the subject of your failure to account for moneys entrusted to you for expenditure between 1876 and 1878.

You will be good enough to account as requested without any further delay.

I am,

Rev. Sir,

Your obedient servant.

Rev. J. McDougall.

Indian Agent.

Red Island.
