Ottawa, 24th January, 1910.

Gentlemen,-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your account which dated the 31st ultimo for supplies to the value of $9.50 furnished the Schelt Indian Boarding School; and in reply I beg to say that on the 15th January a cheque No. 1504 for that amount was sent you in payment of what appears to be the same account previously submitted.

In future all accounts for supplies furnished for Indians should be forwarded through the person who ordered the supplies in order that it may be certified to as to the receipt of the goods.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Secretary.
