

Ottawa, 17th November, 1919.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 13th instant, I beg to say that Mr. Agent Lebel has this day been instructed to grant relief to Widow J.B. Launiere to the extent of $4.00 a week during the winter months.

I may say also that a blanket is being sent by express, care of the Indian Agent, for the returned soldier, Jimmy Thomas.

Yours truly,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Chas. A. Gauvreau, Esq., M.P.
