

Where there are Presidents of the Annual Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada they are empowered to call the Conference together, but where no such Presidents exist the General Superintendent shall perform this duty.

The General Superintendent, when present, shall open the Annual Conference, and preside during the first day of its sessions, and afterward alternately with the President elected by the Conference. In the absence of a General Superintendent, the President of the previous year shall take the chair and open the Conference. In association with the President, the General Superintendent shall conduct the ordination service, and they shall jointly sign the ordination parchments. But all other duties pertaining to the presidency of the Annual Conference shall be vested in the President elected by that body, and, in the absence of the General Superintendent, he shall conduct the ordination.

VI. CHURCH PROPERTY.

1. All churches, church sites, Sabbath-school buildings and sites for mission premises, parsonages, burial grounds, camp-meeting grounds, and all other real property now held or to be held in trust or otherwise by or for the several Methodist Bodies and Conferences now forming the Methodist Church, shall be held as vested in the Trustees and other persons in whom the titles respectively are now or may be, in trust for the Methodist Church.

2. Any Church property legally authorized to be sold shall be sold and conveyed by the Trustees thereof, by and with the consent of the Annual Conference within the
