

THE LIBRARY AND READING ROOM

OF THE

SOCIETY

HAS LATELY BEEN TRANSFERRED TO THE

FRASER INSTITUTE BUILDING,

And will in future be open to members of the Society each day (Sundays excepted), from 9 A. M. TO 6 P. M., AND FROM 7 TO 10 P. M.

In addition to the Books at the disposal of the members for loan and reference it is intended to keep "The Country Gentleman," "Rural New Yorker," "Prairie Farmer," "Gardeners' Chronicle," "Canadian Horticulturist," "Journal of Agriculture," (in English and French), "Home Farm," "Canadian Live Stock Journal," "Farmers' Advocate," and other publications, regularly on file. The Library Committee hope that the members will avail themselves of the privileges placed within their reach. Further contributions of Books are respectfully invited from all persons interested in the objects of the Society.
