Canadian Pacific Railway Station on the Property.

An Oat Crop on First Year's Breaking, Matsqui Prairie.

No photograph can do justice to Matsqui. Come and see the garden spot of the Fraser Valley.

Fruit Land, Hay Land, Cereal Land. Admitted by all who have seen it to be Unsurpassed Anywhere.

Clover is a native grass. Blue-joint, red-top and other grasses in abundance. Plentiful supply of pure mountain spring water.

Pastures green all the year.

An ideal dairying and mixed farming country.

Though but lately placed on the market, settlement is proceeding more rapidly than anywhere on the Fraser, and Matsqui will soon have the appearance of a great collection of gardens.

Schools, churches, stores, condensed-milk factory and creamery already established. Sawmill adjacent to prairie. Cheap lumber.

6,000 acres divided into 40-acre lots is being quickly settled.

Come while you can buy at first hand. Prices less than land of same quality in Manitoba.

Apply to ALEX. CRUICKSHANK, Matsqui, British Columbia.
