weeks ago on the need that Methodism has best be remedied. for the appearance of another Richard Watson, goes on to say,

Methodist readers of Hodge's new work will appreciate these remarks. We cannot demur to the Princeton professor's effort to revive Calvinism, but his insidious dialectics, in treat-main an able and valuable performance. Methodist sentiments on certain points are, by competent critics affirmed to be, utterly microrecepted. It is a link in the great Air-line from Chicandid a writer, living in a country in by American capital and enterprize; and fever I15; Diarrhoea and dysentery 233; tic proportions, and wields so powerful an influence for good, should in such a work fall into the error of caricaturing the Methodistic Theology. In past time, such a design, and beauty of appearance, I know thing was to be expected. In these days, nothing to equal it. The line is to be tain parties having "axes to grind," should it seems quite out of place.

were delivered by representative men from the last services which he will render perusal cannot but do good.

Methodists on both sides of the Atlantic been preserved from oblivion and handed demands the new church, and it could not down to us. These wonderful men were be built to-day for less than 30 per cent head and shoulders above their contempolowance for differences of soil, when we undertake to compare the work of the modern to give general satisfaction. with that of the primitive Methodist preach-There were scenes from which Paul fled disheartened. The best of the early Methowheat-growing countries in the world, in Nova Scotia's stony southern zone with Blackfeet and Sioux Indians roam in almost the golden harvests that even unskilled hus- undisturbed possession. bandmen can win with slight toil from the rich loamy soil of our North Western fer- in our papers anent the conduct of a certain tile belt. The early Methodist preachers Rev. Mr. Dumoulin, of Hamilton-Bishop were for the most part, no doubt, indefatigable toilers. They rose with the sacred of a city church, seemed to be willing to dawn. They wrought far into the starry wear the honors of Episcopacy, but was unnight. In the morning they scattered pre- willing to share its apostolic-like privations. cious seed; and it was late in the evening Algoma, a wild and rocky section of before they withheld their weary hand. But and settled by emigrants upon free grant they to a large extent had virgin soil; and lands, is, as yet, almost without roads, hand, the yellow sheaves fell thick and boasts of about one village. Our own insometimes is a tiller of ground wonderfully laurels. The Bishop stipulated that he each in their season, aid him to their ut- or 300 miles from his "see," and not reand he then apparently labors in vain. Yet after making all allowances we are inclined to think that the conclusions arriv-dist preacher had in the extreme vividness a portion of remarks made by us a few worthy of consideration how the defect can leave his study.

ONTARIO CORRESPONDENCE.

ONTARIO, March 8, 1873.

"the storm "of the season-which hap- much greater than for the same temp

the discussion of distinctively Methodist together by a third line of railroad, and one | ward and Leeward Islands and 6.9 in Canviews of Christian doctrine; and in these, which beasts of being the shortest and most ada. This statement strongly in favor of misrepresented. It is surprising that so cago to New York. It is built principally muda were, from Yellow fever 4; Typhus which Methodism has attained such gigan- all its works are of first-class material, and Dropsy 52; Paralysis 52; Heart disease lines for the ever-growing Western traffic. THE week of prayer is becoming a most The charter for this road was first obtained beneficent institution among evangelical about the year 1856, when the late Mr. der is to a spark, but we are firm in the Christians all the world over. It has been Z mmerman was its most active promoter; opinion that the spark must be brought in Christians all the world over. It has been but the disaster of March, 1857, at the the shape of some fever-case from abroad. Des Jardins bridge, where a whole train of During our weekly visits to the Hospital, already. Its observances here, tended cars from Toronto, was plunged into the greatly to soften down denominational as- canal, through the broken bridge, carryed have been surprised at the small per centage perities, and to bring out into bold relief with it the principal promoters of the line, the substantial unity prevailing among and every means was taken to consign the treatment. members of different communions who alike scheme to the same doom and but for the love the Lord Jesus. Those who have taken part in those observances have no doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby; and the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby is a section of the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby is a section of the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby is a section of the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby is a section of the roads never have been doubt profited at times much thereby is a section of the roads never have been doubt profited at times at the roads never have been doubt profited at times at the roads never have been doubt profited at times at the roads never have been doubt profited at times at the roads never have been doubt profited at times at the roads never have been doubt profited at the myriads of fervent prayers effered in connection therewith have questionless in Lake Erie, but to the entire Northern Connumerous instances proved effectual, and tinent. Those counties—once the frontier been answered in the most gracious man- had for many years been in a stagnant mer. The addresses also forming a part of state. The railways had taken away the are many." We are happy to say that the the exercises of the week of prayer must often prove edifying in a high degree, at centres of population. Internal cities and least we should judge so from the rich and towns sprang up on the lines of railway, varied contents of a little work lying before | while their wharves were rotting and their us, containing a record of twenty addresses wharehouses falling down. The new line delivered in London, England, during the last has altered all this. St. Thomas, from a week of prayer. If these addresses are fair specimeus of the more studied utterances with which God's people stri e to stir selling a year or two ago for $30, could not up each other's minds and provoke each other to love and good works on such occaother to love and good works on such occafelt the stimulus of the times, and are about sions in the great centres of Christian active to dedicate a most beautiful, spacious, and ity and enterprise, listening to them must costly place of worship. Dr. Punshon reall the leading Protestant denominations in Canadian Methodism of that kind. I un-

England, Episcopalians, Congregationalists, derstand the church will cost, when com-Methodists, Baptists, and Presbyterians. plete, near $25,000, And the committee They are having, we imagine ! a very wide acknowledge their indebtedness to the forecirculation throughout Eugland. Their sight, plodding perseverance, and zeal of effort of their present incumbent, the Rev. It is often matter of enquiry among G. N. A. Dixon. I delight to have the opportunity of mentioning both these names in whether the Methodist preaching of to-day both hail from your part of our great Do is as highly charged generally with soul-minion. And to their friends it will be saving qualities as was that of the earlier satisfactory to know that they are not only Methodist times. But it is an enquiry dif- doing good service in the West, but their ficult to answer satisfactorily. We are to perpetuate their memories after they may well acquainted with our own times. Of pass away. When Mr. Starr came to St. bye gone days we have but an imperfect Thomas he found a debt of $2000 on the knowledge. We know scarcely anything old church, which he succeeding in removof the average Methodist preacher of past ing, and immediately, to the surprise of times. It is the extraordinary men, the men of power, the men of fire, full of faith tioned by many at the time, but is fully and of the Holy Ghost, whose names have vindicated now, as the growth of the town additional cost. I am really at a loss to tell you what our rary fellow laborers in the gospel fields. It local legislature has done or is doing. Your is allowable to compare these men with our correspondent finds his time so engrossed Collinses, our Vaseys, our Macaulays, with ministerial work, that he often falls Garretts and Atkinsons. But it is not fair tar behind in the political and other news of the day. He hopes to have a little more to measure the common ministerial man leisure in a short time, when the season of among us in these days with those men, the special labors may terminate, and if he choicest spirits of their times within Method- can find anything then in the political asist circles in matters evangelistic; not fair, if pects of Ontario in which your readers will we desire by such measurement to deter-mine whether or no Methodism has preach-lit is said, however, that our government is mine whether or no Methodism has preaching power in our days equal to that which propriate the large surplus, but that their it wielded in former generations. Then it estimates over-run the probable income of is not easy to make the just degree of al. the year. I imagine that it is a great deal fault with others, than to be in power and Letters received from Manitoba describe er. There were places in which the Lord the winter there as having been quite mild; Jesus could not do many mighty works and emigrants who went there last spring, dist preachers had their failures as well as our North-Western territories, and that the their successes, though it is the latter rather great centre of American population will than the former that we associate with yet be found on the Northern parts of Mintheir memory. No culture could clothe nesota, Dakotah, &c., and the Southern parts of Canadian territory, where now the

There has been considerable discuss designate of the new Bishopric of Algoma but who, comfortably ensconced as pastor when they thrust in the sickle, on either without towns, without churches, and only others at Bailey's Bay. We thank God, Church. If then it can be proved, that it heavy. The modera Methodist preacher defatigable missionaries are toiling away most, and in harvest time he gathers a full sign his present charge, and I suppose oc- their way to Bermuda. The ship Charlotte hundred fold for his toil. But too frequent-ly the seed sown by him falls on the thickly ly the seed sown by him falls on the thickly has proved too outspoken, and the Rev trodden or bird-haunted wayside, or on the Mr. Dumoulin has resigned his titular thinly covered rock void of moisture, or on honor, and remains simply-Vicar of St.

soil in which thorns grow fast and rank; Thomas, Hamilton. Yours.

HINTS TO CORRESPONDENTS .- A good deal ed at on the subject by a Bishop of the of the interest of a newspaper depends upon BERMUDA CORRESPONDENCE.

ing of Arminianism, make us wish to see a powerful Arminian theologian grapple with him.

It has been long, and often tedious; but on the whole, healthy and profitable. Since ed this winter, is for this reason apparently, We have not yet been able to find time to read pened in January—we have had almost at home. After a careful examination of and study Dr. Hodge's elaborate work on unwarying winter weather : moderately cold the Report of the Army Medical Departsystematic theology. It is said to be in the with little more snow or drifts.

main an able and valuable performance.

Much work has been done during the lished, His Excellency states the death rate winter. The last rail of the Canada South- per 1,000 of the British Army to have been But though it contains 2 273 pages, only ern was laid a few weeks ago. And the 23.8 in Bengal; 20.0 at Bombay; 16.1 at some four or five of them are occupied with Detroit and Niagara rivers are thus united Bermuda; 15 9 at Malta; 13.9 in the Wind-opened in the spring, and will be a great studiously have kept this notion before the competitor to the Great Western and other British public. It is not improbable that there may be certain conditions of the atmosphere, which are to fever what gunpow > of men, from all causes under medical One statement in the "Report" we must have misled. The number of deaths direct and indirect, from the use of liquors and "beer " we should call "legion, for they this important subject, and generally rewhich should make every Wesleyan, from a sense of honor alone, a total abstainer, of extreme necessity. and investigation, is indicative of the deep interest felt by Gov. Lefroy in the presperity of the Colony. It i as, however, been ubjected to severe criticism ia a certain quarter. Gov. Lefroy has been a sincere friend to the colored people of Bermuda, from Gilbert Haven in the columns of "Zi- sympathize with them." on's Herald," who might, for once, forget his prejudices against British institutions aud cross the ocean to visit a British Cclony, in a spirit of brotherly, if not national their former pastor, Rev. J. Herbert Starr, only, in a spirit of brotherly, if not national as well as to the talent and praiseworthy Reveloper of equation, however by His Excellency, of several expressions occurring in the written opinion of two or three medi cal men, only resident for a time in the is land, has caused not a little dissatisfaction connection with this enterprize, as they We think the expressions referred to were unguarded. In the colored class (so-called) there are merchants, doctors and workmen who would do no discredit to their profession or business in any place. Their houses are neat in appearance, pasteral duties take us to some of their homes, and these we frequently find, models of neatness. Yet while we regret that in the quotations alluded to, the language was too general in application, we very deeply regret that the linisters of the British Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada, a church in the suc cess of which we have felt interested felt it expedient to fan the flame. In Bermuda as at present constituted, neither race can do without the other. And a church built up through any other strife than a holy emulation to save souls, must sooner or later, as far as the true intention of a church s concerned, prove a failure. Our Army work here is a new feature to a minister from the Provinces, and is calculated to do him good, while he seeks to do good to others. A number of men from the Engineers, Artillery, and Line, are marched to our church at St. George's on the Sabbath Morning. The military attend. Monday evening, 17th inst. when the Revd. "Resolved,—That this ance at the evening service is frequently as large as at that of the morning. None of our to take the Chair, and Mrs. John McMurray and sorrow that the Bishop has been in-the Military class-meeting on Friday even-ing. In December last the "Tamar" carried away five of our members connected with the Artillary. One of them, a fine table richly provided by the lady friends, and his Episcopate, and interrupt that harmony and prayers of a pious English Mother, wrote me a few weeks since: "I often wish could be with you at your little meeting; it was a great blessing to my soul that ever went to Bermuda. I was very sorry to

To more than one of late, our Church has been a cradle in the new life. It is matter of regret that more time cannot be and as on the present occasion our Pastor. I have to accept the companion of the present occasion our Pastor. given to this branch of our work, The devote all their time to the Army and Navy, must feel the change. An energetic temper ance worker - a barrack-sergeant-lately arrived has formed a Lodge of Templar's. He has a good field in which to work, and has already received a good deal of encouragement. The Trustees have agreed to allow him to use the basement of our church one evening in each week. Since we last wrote twelve persons, pre viously on trial, have been received into full membership at St. David's, and five even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ Since the heavy storm of the 3rd inst., the men at the signal staff at Fort George of partially disabled from Lisbon to Boston, with a cargo of marble blocks and stationery, olive oil and wreck. ed at on the subject by a Bishop of the dist carrespondents. Vigorous, condensed artificiates, on subjects of living interest, are always founded. He holds that the early Methodist Episcopal Church South is well cles, on subjects of living interest, are always put back after a narrow escape from declaims that he has, the St. George's parish welcome.

In the Rector of such parish? Bishop Ennney my only regret will be, that such as put back after a narrow escape from declaims that he has, the St. George's parish welcome.

In the Rector of such parish? Bishop Ennney my only regret will be, that such as put back after a narrow escape from declaims that he has, the St. George's parish welcome.

take on the mails for New York

Circuit Intelligence. "GOLDENVILLE, (Home Mission.) One wanted."-Such is the entry on the list of ministerial stations in our last year's Minutes of Conference. It is very much to be regretted that the committee appointed to obtain, if possible, a sufficient supply of suitable young men as candidates for our ministry, to enable the President to fill up such vacant places, has been only partially uccessful, so that this mission and several others of similar character yet remain unsupplied. It will be remembered by those who are interested in our Church mission work, that one of our supernumerary min isters, Bro. Thomas D. Hart visited Goldenville and some neighboring places last autumn, and sent a very interesting report f his visit to our paper.

We have just received a business letter from Mr. Rupert G. Bent, dated "Goldenville, March 17th," at the end of which he wi ites.

"We have had no Methodist preaching since Rev. T. D. Hart left, which was in November in the course of the last twenty months, we last, and bardly any of any kind; there is a great dearth of Gospel effort here at present. I hope it will not be so long. I hope we shall have a minister of our own after next Conference, he would be hailed now with much pleacall in question. To expect us to believe sure, and find plenty of work to do. There has been a good deal of inquiry since the Rev. Bro. fine field open to one of good missionary zeal. England." in a large population; most likely a good many member that important rule of the church, English miners, and of course many of them Methodists; then please send us a man soon as if known, elicit "superlatives" of praise parents in this their deep affliction; we deeply > things for us. The church is crowded every night. Last night twenty-five per- privileges appertaining to the parish, would sons presented themselves as penitents. We ascribe all glory to the God of love."

CARBONEAR, NFLD.—Brother Comben writes, March 5th, 1873: "This is one of the bustling seasons in Newfoundland,-the people are leaving for the sealing voyages. Very large numbers of our men go away on this voyage, reducing our congregations considerably. We are prosecuting our work in this country in the usual way, not without some encouragement."

ST. JOHN'S, NELD. - Bro. Milligan writes, out two weeks ago, is doing nicely. Poor appointed, and one or more council, as may lutions were then proposed, and unant-Brother Cranford, I fear, will not recover. he found necessary, retained for that pur-Tidings are unfavorable. I will write you pose. at length next opportunity, itually and financially/ My health con pose; and that copies of the resolutions be tinues good."

W. W. Corey. (Baptist) kindly consented separate without expressing its deep concern music by the choir took up the time for about consideration, see fit to change his views. cess, when they repaired to the refreshment suit which will imbitter the latter years of young fellow, who owes much to the letters it would have done any person good only to and love which it is the duty of his high look on (if not too hungry) and see the good office to foster and preserve." things pass off leaving in their place the more needful. Some time having been spent in leave you so soon after feeling Jesus near called the meeting to order, and very good humoredly called the attention of the Brother who was about to present the purse, that it follows:

py company seldom met together. B. C.

Miscellaneous.

BISHOP BINNEY. Not being disposed to intermeddle in Communication with New York has been are, at issue. It is this—Has the Bishop may have the Gospel freely preached to seriously interrupted or late. The Steamer of Nova Scotia power to authorize any clerthem, without infringing the rules and order THE ISSUE OF THE MINISTERIAL Niagara with mails for the States and gyman to conduct a church service within of our Church. It it shall be decided, that England, left Hamilton on the 1st inst., an established parish without the consent of but necountering the heavy gale of the 3rd, the Rector of such parish? Bishop Einney my only regret will be, that she is so ham-were then transferred to the Petersburg, It appears that the Rev. Mr. Mather, her Lord, are impeded by the transfer to ought to have been, but their conduct in the cri-

dist preacher had in the extreme vividness of his impression of a Divine call, and in Some facts respecting the climate and halth of these Islands, given in a "Sanitary Report," lately published by the Governor, Maj. Gen. J. H. Lefroy, may be incorporated in the published by the Governor, Maj. Gen. J. H. Lefroy, may be incorporated in the published of the publis headings, boats and a hundred chests of tea, adopted. The preamble consists of thir- cannot be maintained; and also that the burden which, perhaps, he had not laid down teresting to your readers. The mean headings, boats and a hundred chests of tea, adopted. The preamble consists of thir-cannot be maintained; and also that the burden which before he reached Bermuda. She bad ta-Ontario, March 8, 1873.

Mr. Editor,—At last our Winter begins

Mr. Editor,—At last our Winter b MR. EDITOR,—At last our Winter begins of the air to yield to the more genial breath of Spring. It is a most significant fact, that, although to yield to the more genial breath of Spring. The coldness of the air they and the resolutions read as follows:

The Alpha will they and the resolutions read as follows:

The Alpha will they and the resolutions read as follows: her cargo will be saved. The Alpha will they and the resolutions read as follows: the settlers in a Colony carried with them Irish Catholic members to vote down the Un-" Whereas it has been brought to the notice from the Mother country."

of this meeting by the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestry of this Parish, that the Bishop of the Diocese has sent the Rev. Mr. that I am now trying a new experiment, but Mather, a Presbyter of the Church of Eng. I would remind you that, several years ago, land, into this Parish and set up a service I opened Salem chapel in St. Paul's parish according to the rites of the Church, within precisely as I have now opened this room that he did not dare to appeal to the country limits assigned by the Statute of this Province on the Common. The consent of the Rec- on it. as the Parish of St. George, without con- tor of St. Paul's was not asked, because 1 It will be interesting to note how Mr. Gladsuiting the Rector and without his consent; did not see that he could be affected by it; stone will now proceed in reference to this and that in answer to his remonstrance, the and happily neither he nor his parishoners University matter. He must, we should sup-Bishop has thought proper to communicate were disposed to interfere with a work unhis views in writing, in the following words: dertaken, at my own cost, for the glory of teriany outering from the existence of God and the salvation of souls. Soon afany law or statute giving you any such ter my arrival in Halifax I appointed Mr. the attempt to deal with the subject altogether, which under the circumstances, would be a officiating within the limits of the district the city parishes, without a nomination deeply humiliating course to pursue, unworthy of which that (St. George's) is the Parish from either of the Rectors. It must, there- of a statesman of the less reputation than that Church.] The only authority recognized fore, be admitted that, whether right or of Mr. Gladstone - St. John News. by the laws of this Province, in such a wrong, I am merely doing now what I have case, is the Bishop; and with his license, I done for many years, and consistently act A STATE GOVERNOR REBUKING THE apprehend that any elergy man of the Church ing in accordance with my well known England may go forth and preach views of my duty in this respect. wherever he can find an open door and persons willing to listen to him. . . I could not with respect to any person except those beside the Bishop.

You express a hope that the Bishop will a passage to which we give our hearty ap-" save a protracted lawsuit which will embitter the latter years of his Episcopate, etc., Let " save a protracted lawsuit which will embitter proval: was established by metes and bounds under me also express a hope that, after receiving an act of the Legislature of this Province, in this explanation of my views and intentions the year 1827 by which act the same powers you will refrain from interfering with a work were conferred on the Church Wardens a d which is not intended in any way to affect schools where gamblers are made. These are Vestry as had been given to the old Parish of the rights or resources of the Rector and the everywhere.

terred on the Parish of St. George's." possible. Bro. George M. Young has been ted that in England no minis er of the of any law or regulation to the contrary, I this plain speaking will stir up!" We do not prohibiting buying or selling spirituous called to pass through deep waters of affliction, by the loss of a dear little daughter, who has been constructed by the loss of a dear little daughter little daught by the loss of a dear little daughter, who has been called up higher to be with God. Fanny up, a service according to the rights of the rights which you are bound to defend, and on the same line ourselves for years, and are This Report, the result of much study and investigation, is indicative of the deep and investigation, is indicative of the deep was suffering the most discourse, and that the Bishop himself can the rights of the Rector of the Law with reference recessing.

This Report, the result of much study died, Monday morning, March 10th, aged 13 church, without the consent of the Rector of the Rector of the Rector of the Rector of the Law with reference recessing. tressing pains, when asked if happy, would say on interfere with parochial rights beyond on yes, sing to me "joyful, joyful," when she his power of compelling the Rectors to do Now this may be done without any breach unite, and the evil of church gambling, in diswas nearing the shadowy shore, and weakened their duty within their sphere of operation of charity; and I, having no personal interby pain, she seemed to be in constant prayer, if an dereliction of duty becomes manifest." est in the matter, shall not feel myself aggriev> of Christians has full right and unquestion- adjudged to be in the wrong I shall be relieved able authority to establish religious services ed trom a responsibility, which now appears where he pleases, yet that a clergyman of to rest upon me. Heartily praying that you any such right within the limit of a lawfully Sis, LUNENBURG .- Bro. Joseph Gaetz writes, established parish, after the rector thereof March 18, 1873: "There is a general has been legally inducted as custodian of religious awakening on this Circuit. We its spiritual interest; otherwise the cerehave now commenced special services in mony of erecting a parish, and the appointtown, where a year ago Ged did great ment of the minister by the parishioners, and his introduction into all the rights and > > be a nullity,"

> > "Resolved, therefore, this meeting is fully determined to resist to the utmost of their power, by all lawful means, this attack made on the rights and privileges of the Rector and parishioners of St. George's, and, through them, on the liberties of the parochial system in this Province; and that immediate steps be taken by the Rector, and many were drawn away by the grea tion before the legal tribunals of the Province; and, it found necessary, to prosecute as some advised, and the ordinary business Her Majesty's Privy Council, forming the Court of Appeal for questions from the

"Resolved, further .- That a subscription "Things are very encouraging both spir- be opened for obtaining funds for this pursent to the Bishop, Mr. Mather, and any other clergyman who may be associated SALISBURY &c. N.B -Donation Visit. with him, and also, to all the Rectors of -The friends of the Revd. Geo. W. Fisher Parishes within the province, and be pub-

"Resolved,-That this meeting cannot social meetings have exceeded in interest presided at the o gan; and short speeches, and duced to take this step, and hope he will on will not be vain in the Lord. an hour, after which the company, had a re- and to save a protracted and expensive law- by Rev. J. Davis-

> To this Parish declaration of rights and needful. Some time having been spent in disposing of fruit, pies, tarts, cakes, lobsters, oysters &c, &c, the Chairman then letter, dated the 11th inst., from which we opsters &c, &c., the Chairman then letter, dated the 11th inst., from which we among every nation, and kindred and tongue is even greater than it was in Bombay during extract the more important paragraphs, as I have to acknowledge the receipt of a was without his "rib" he would remind him copy of resolutions adopted at a meeting of Engineers who have lately arrived from The meeting was then brought to a close by day evening, and I deeply regret that my disposing of the remainder of the good things endeavours to provide the ministrations of Joseph mensiey, n. n. nougeou, A. nennedy, by auction, when something like fifty five dolour Church, for those who may require Joseph Knight, David Laird, Charles Palmer, John W. Pickard, W. D. Stewart, and W. lars were realized for the benefit of the Revd. them in the North of the City, have been W. Fisher, but what was more pleasing met with so much hostility. For my part, Mr. Fisher's friends were not all Methodists, I can assure you, that I am far from wishbut every church in the heighbourhood was ing to "interrupt that harmony and love were highly animating. The receipts of our determined. The Methodists have 110 schools fairly represented, and a more cheerful hap which it is the duty of my office to foster Parent Society, its work, its influence, were of all sorts, 775 teachers, and over 14,500 and preserve." I have acted in this matter, all represented as enlarged and enlarging. without any thought of exercising a right, Everything about it is upon a gigantic scale or establishing a claim, and solely from a lites the grand philanthropist, and one of the desire, by the preaching of the Gospel, to gather into the fold these who cannot be reached through the ordinary system of the largely furnished hereafter in the tained at an annual expense of 75,000, is not my duty to provide for the population around the Northern extremity of the Common, I shall willingly withdraw, hitherto refrained from mentioning in our posal. If therefore any mode can be sugthrough the newspapers, we will endeavor at law, I must of course endeavour to the to state the question upon which the parties best of my ability to prove, that the poor

It might be inferred from your resolutions consult you upon the subject, because to do tions, but he is only acting as my chaplain, well-merited rebuke of "raffles, grab-bags, and so would have been to admit that there under my direction, and I take upon myself prize-packages at church fairs." He says very might be some interference with your rights the entire responsibility of the services, of plainly that these are beginnings of gambling. whereas in a country where the Church is which the commencement was announced by and foster the spirit of gambling among the * not established, you can have no rights handbills containing no mention of any one young people of the State. He has issued a Vestry as nad osen given to the old 1 strip of the rights or resources of the Rector and the Parishioners. If, however, you take further of the devil. Gitt concerts, gift enterprises and the proceedings, there need be no bitterness nor of the devil. Gitt concerts, gift enterprises and of the devil. the same powers as in Parish Churches in any interruption of barmony, for I shall give raffles, sometimes in aid of religious or cha a fine field open to one of good missionary zeal.

An earnest worker would build up a good cause in these parts, there are likely to be very lively of St. George's Parish still remains in force, and uprepared and refers to the old law of and parents of the old law of an and parents of the old law of an and parents of the old law of an analysis of the old law of an an analysis of the old "beer" we should call "legion, for they are many." We are happy to say that the times here this spring, old companies are putmembers of the Wesleyan Church at St.

"beer" we should call "legion, for they and unrepealed, and refers to the old law of the Church in this Province as the exponents of the Wesleyan Church at St.

"beer" we should call "legion, for they are happy to say that the times here this spring, old companies are puttimes here this spring or intoxicating, the Church in this Province as the exponents the Church in this Province as the expo George's are taking satisfactory ground on work soon as the spring opens; this will bring of the rights and privileges int. nded to be conditioned to be con be called upon to provide free services for a certain district, embracing portions of two "And whereas, This meeting is instruct parishes, and being ignorant of the existence The Detroit Post says, "Think of the row for the most part be both a pleasant and profitable task. The addresses in question profitable task. The addresses in question and profitable task. The addresses in question are the southern States friend to the colored people of Bermuda, friend to the colored people of Bermuda, friend to the colored people of Bermuda, or if strong enough, singing her little by most that she had learned in happy childhood. May of Christians has full right at divided to be in the southern States found with him for the data and minister of another denomination. the Church of England does not possess may be guided to a right judgment, I am dear ing some queenly and womanly act calculated

H. NOVA SCOTIA. To the Parishioners of St, George's.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND AUX. transmit a touching message to the sorrowing ILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Thirty-fifth Annual Meeting of our formed his task in a note addressed to Dr. Island Auxiliary Bible Society was held Guthrie's oldest son, in the following last Monday evening, the 10th inst., in the manner:-Athenaum. Sir Robert Hodgson, Chief Justice, the President of the Society, occupied the Chair. The meeting was probably tamily of Dr. Guthrie her Majesty's sincere the smallest Bible meeting ever held in the city. The night was unusually stormy was transacted. After the opening exercises, an abstract of the Secretarys Report March 5th, 1873: "Mr. Nuse, who came Colonies. That an attorney or soliciter be Account for the year. The following resorting and one or more council, as may nously adopted.

> 1st. That the Report, an abstract of which some time was consumed at the outset in tor general information.

Rev. W. Evans-2d. That this meeting rejoices in the many proofs of extended labor and increased useful-ness that have marked the gigantic operations of the British and Foreign Bible Society for the past year, and believes that these efforts ordained ministers assist in these meetings.

3d. That while this meeting offers its devout prayer leaders or lay preachers already assist thankfulness to Almighty God for his blessing in these meetings. Our informant attended bestowed upon the work of our Parent Society, eleven, meetings, and, with only one exception and its Auxiliaries, and feels a sense of its utter dependence upon his favor and help, it would affectionately invite Christians of all denoming good work goes steadily forward, apparently Moved by W. Cundall, Esq., seconded a corresponding period." by Rev. J. Davies-4th. That the following gentlemen be the Committee for the ensuing year. viz.: John Brecken, William Brown, George Davies, Wm. 28 are controlled by States, 35 by the M. E. E. Dawson, Thomas DesBrisay, James Des-Brisay, William Heard, George Henderson, Weeks, E:quires. The statements reported to the meeting alists, 26 by the Lutherans, and 77 were un-good, on which sun beams and rain-clouds, and the signal staff strife which seems only to concern the adhaving room elsewhere for the labors both having roo e larged support, not from the city only, paper, the somewhat interesting if not edify- gested by you whereby, without a law suit, but from the country as well. The work tioning Committee would meet on January 14, mg, dispute between Bishop Binney and the city of the Auxiliary on the Island has also the parish of St. George's in the city of the question whether the law forbids my other articles, after having reached Cape Halifax; but as it has now become matter ministrations in that district, I will readily ceding year. And so friends of the Bible marks the Wesleyan Chronicle, "will be the Hatters three times, to be as often driven of public notoriety, and both parties have agree with you to adopt such a reference of and of Bible work on the Island, have more last of the Conferences upon the present plan. back, went on the reefs to the North of the presented their views of it to the public that question. But, if you institute a suit reason than ever, with such facts before Our readers will remember that last year a them, to "Thank God and take courage." -The Patriot.

Mr. Gladstone and his colleagues have re- and have recommended only some slight modisumed control of national affairs. Their Dub- fication in its details. It will therefore take efhere, and her performance of her duty to lin University Bill was by no means what it tect after the next Conference."

versity Bill, he found it impossible to adopt a policy on the Irish University question which impossibility? From the fact that Parliament would not sustain him in any such policy and

CHURCHES.

Governor Washburn, of Wisconsin, speaks Mr Mather is mentioned in your resolu- right out. He has put in his annual message a

" The laws of the State as applicable to pro-guised forms will soon be ended .- The Metho-

Ca Gaze nince know youn state becar but ton, ...

Fred
Esqu
the T

Tuck
Co
Peac
Co
riage
A. C

oningl
Co
Boar
and St down was stand in the death
Na
been 50 y
Geor
Geor
Geor
Coun
Wett
reap Thadop
of 82

In poral in the determination of the course of the course

áthe lists,

THE QUEEN AND DR. GUTHRIES FAMILY.

Our good and noble Queen is daily performto endear her to good men all the world over. She has done much by deeds and words of unaffected kindness and sympatey to assuage the anguish of many of her bereaved subjects. She commissioned the Duke of Argyle to family of Dr. Guthrie, the celebrated Free Church or who had just died. The Duke per-

" Dear Mr. Guthrie .- The Queen has desired sympathy with them, as well as her Majesty's very true sorrow for the loss of one so good turned from Bombay has given us some very Moved by Rev. D. FitzGerald, and seconded by Robert Longworth, Esq: preaching at various places before the work Moved by Rev. T. Duncau, seconded by assumed an organized form. The reader will be surprised, then, to learn that there are regular services conducted in seventeen places in Bombhy. In some of these places services are conducted every night in the week. Three Moved by Rev. R. McArthur, seconded laymen. As fast as the work spreads, God But the greater part of the work is done by raises up men to take care of it. Fifteen

Her Majesty well understands how the buman heart in the hour of its distress longs for the pity of God and the sympathy of man.

The Northwestern Christian Advocate says Church, 8 by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 6 by the Methodist Protestant Church 25 by the Presbyterian Church, 16 by the Episcopal Church, 38 by the Baptists, 54 by the Roman Catholics, 19 by the Congregationscholars. The Methodist colleges graduate about three hundred a year, and their theolog-

The English Baptists have ten colleges sus tained at an annual expense of 75,000, and re-

Thomas Williams, of Castlemainers The Stascheme was adopted for annual conferences in each of the colonies, with a triennial conference composed of representatives elected by he several annual conferences. The British Conference has 'not disallowed' this scheme,