ENCOURAGING MANUFACTURES.

In making known by means of adver-tisement in the metropolitian press, the importance of Listowel as a commercial as a point whereat to establish manufac tures, the town Council are persuing a pro-per course and one that will do the town possesses superior advantages for manufacturing industries that are either unre-presented or conducted on a scale madequate to the field to be supplied, steps should be taken to encourage the establishment of such industries. This is the position in which Listowel at present stands. Situated at the core of a rich agricultural district, having direct railway communications north, south, east and west, with the best possible facilities for shipping by means of sidings built expressly for the accommodation of manufactures, and enjoying the general advantages of a thrifty community, this town presents more than ordinary inducements for the industrial capitalist to establish himself here. The question of what particular manufacturies it would be most desirable to encourage is one that can readily be solved by due consideration of the circumstances. Perhaps the milling, furniture, carriage building and tanning business are as well represented at the present time as could be wished for; certainly these industries form a very important element in our trade and are a great credit to the entorprising gentlemen who own them. We cannot apeak as favorably of our agricultural works as we would desire, and it is all the more to be regretted from the fact that few if any other towns in Canada are better situated for carrying on an agricultural implement manufactory on an extensive scale than is Listowel. The scheme proposed a short time ago to form a joint stock company with a large capital to go into this business was allowed to lapse, partly, we understand, on account of the impossibility of making satisfactory arrangements with the propriotors of the Millbank foundry. However, if the spirit of hearty co-operation which was then manufactory that have a manufactory of the spirit of hearty co-operation which was then manufactory that have a considerable increase to our population, perhaps more so than any other individual industry that might be started, we would suggest that the most liberal inducements be held out to any reliable firm or company that will undertake the establishment of such a manufactory. There are many other industries tha

AFFAIRS AT OTTAWA.

FARMING IN MANITOBA.

Farming in Manitoba occupied the immigration committee at Ottawa on Wednesday, Mr. Loucks gave an account of his three years' experience which was most encouraging. Railway communication, gravelled roads to make travelling easier in the spring, and more people are the things wanted. Mr. Loucks gave a very practical plan of meeting the latterwant, which caused much anuscapent, suggesting the sending out of a couple of thousand of young women for the matrimonial market. Good wives are in demand in Manitoba. Stock raising, it seems, promises to pay well, and is being undertaken to a large extent. The United States agents and railway lines are doing their best to entice emigrants away from Manitoba to the Western States, but in spite of them the prairie province is fast filling up, and Mr. Loucks' account of the wonderful crops raised is worth a ton of pamphlets. He thinks an immigrant with a small family can get through a year there while looking out for land for about $400, and to commence with, the simplest contrivances can be used for breaking the ground; the roads are good in dry weather, and there is plenty of stone to make them good always.

The LETELLER APFAIR.

On Thursday afternoon in the House of Commons Sir John Macdonald rose and said:

Mr. Speaker, before the orders of the day are called, I have to state that I waitupon his Excellency the Governor-General and informed him that after the resolution of the Senate of the last session of Parliament and the resolution of the House of Commons during the presentsession it was the opinion of his Excellency's advisers that the usefulness of M. Letellier, Lieut-Governor of Quebec,was gone, and advised that in the public interest it was expedient that he should be removed from his office. His Excellency thereupon was pleased to state that as the federal system introduced by the British North America Act, 1867, was until then unknown in Great Britam or her colonies, there were no precedents to guide him to a decision in the present case, and as it would settle the future relations be remments so far as the office of Lieut-expedient to submit the advice offered in and the whole case and attendant circumstances to her Majesty's Government for their consideration and instructions.

This announcement caused not a little ment for their consideration and instructions.

This announcement caused not a little excitement in the House, and shortly afterwards Messrs. Ouimet, Cockburn and Mousseau, Quebec members, spoke in strong terms on the position which the case had now assumed. The former gentleman contended that the Governer-General had undertaken to refuse to be guided implicitly by the ministers of the crown on a subject peculiarly within the power of our constitution.

Sir John Macdonald did not agree with Mr. Ouimet that there had been an infringement of the constitution. The Queen ruled in Canada as well as in England. Her Majesty's representative had asked for a reference of this case to Her Majesty. Sir John said he would like to see Governor Letellier dismissed, and he wished his advice had been taken, but Canada and Canadian interests were as safe in the hands of the Queen as of the Queen's representative, and could not see that we need fear the results of a reference.

when the first both to the town and to the agricultural community. We refer to a duestion which is engaging much attention in various parts of Canada just now, and we think it would be well worthy the consideration, at all events, of parties interested in the development of this section. We have been informed that the soil of the surrounding townships is eminently fitted for the production of the sugar beet, and that the percentage of saccharine in beets grown in Ontario is equal to that of other countries where heet-root cultivation is extensively engaged in. As practical demonstration is always the most convincing, it might be well for our farmers to sow a small quantity of the sugar beet seed by way of experiment this season. It cannot entail loss to them, very easily, as the sugar teet is said to be far more valuable for stock feeding than either turnips or mangolds. We shall endeaver to supply our readers with fuller information on this subject in future issues.

POSTAL FACILITIES.

That the present condition of the postal facilities of Listowel is far from being satisfactory is a conclusion which our citizens have long since arrived at and that the grievance should be remewhich in March is invariably swoollen and dangerous. Afghanistan rivers and valleys are full of dreadful memories to the English. Near this very spot from which this disaster is reported, occurred the fawful massacre of the British in the last war, in which only one escaped, Dr. Brydon. Thompson's picture of this bloody deed, for the next neademy, is just finished. It represents the troop's sinking exhausted in view of Jelalabad on the banks of the backwater of the Caulai River. This fresh calamity will give the picture a new and sad interest. People in London who are familiar with the country say that in the spring months the backwater of the Cabul River is a lake almost in itself.
