

Four recruits signed up with the 21st Battalion yesterday. Their names are:
GEORGE BEATTIE, age 42, Scotch, married, 10 Superior St.
ALEXANDER GREEN, age 35, Canadian, Scotian, married, 10 Superior St.
GEORGE VANEVERY, age 19, single, Canadian, Hartford.
MELVIN WOODARD, age 22, single, Canadian, 173 Dalhousie St., city.

ON DUTY

The officer of duty for the 21st Battalion is Lieut. G. A. Duncan; next for duty, Lieut. J. G. Houlding. The officer of the day for the 125th Brant Battalion is Lieut. Octaby; next for duty, Capt. Cockshutt. The subaltern of the day is Lieut. Preston; next for duty, Lieut. Waterous.

POSITION OF SUPERNUMERARIES

In order to clear up misapprehension

SIGNET RING TO SOLDIER

Yesterday a very pleasing presentation took place at the post office when Mr. Philip Gee was made the recipient of a signet ring by the letter carriers of the city. The occasion was Mr. Gee's enlisting to go overseas. The letter of appreciation was as follows:

To Mr. Philip Gee:

We, the Brantford letter carriers, as a small token of respect, ask you to accept this signet ring before leaving for the front to defend our King and country. And we assure you that wherever you may be called, and in any trials you may have to face, our heartfelt wishes will go with you for your safety. And may this terrible conflict soon end, so that instead of a "send-off," we may be giving all our brothers a "welcome home," is the hope of us all.

Signed on behalf of all, A. Stevens.

Obituary

INFANT MRUZ
The death took place last night of Zigmunt Mruz, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mruz, 7 Young St. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning to St. Basil's Church and St. Joseph's cemetery.

MOVING PICTURES OF CANADIAN SCENES
FOR BRITISH TROOPS.

At the request of the British authorities the Grand Trunk system has supplied a series of motion picture reels which are being shown to the troops in France and Belgium during their brief periods of rest behind the lines. The men of the British troops are daily watching these pictures of Canadian scenery and Canadian industries.

Six moving picture reels are being projected and they show the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific, farming in the Prairies, packing of the Ontario apple crop, sport in the Highlands of Ontario, maskinonge fishing, Anne de Bellevue, shooting the Lachine Rapids, and scenes at Niagara Falls. The pictures bring before the Empire's fighting men in a vivid manner the attractions of Canada.

The Rev. F. A. Anderson, Chaplain of the 1st Regt. British Headquarters, Paris, writing to the European Tribune, Manager of the Grand Trunk in connection with these films says: "I only wish you could see the faces of the crowds of men who turn up evening after evening to get an hour's enjoyment and change of thought and environment which enables them to go back to their 'job' with redoubled zest."

Signor Marconi is busily engaged in improving his wireless telephone mechanism.

John Flood, of Chatham, a well-known marine contractor in western Ontario, died suddenly at the dinner table.

Jos. Rattenbury, hotelman, of Clinton, is dead, aged 65. His father conducted the first hotel established in the place, which was then known as Rattenbury's Corners.

Social and Personal

The Courier is always pleased to use items of personal interest. Phone 276.

Mrs. Rev. Capt. A. E. Lavell has been visiting in Hamilton.

Mr. H. F. Gardner attended the funeral of the late Lt. Col. A. H. Moore in Hamilton on Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd Harris and Mrs. T. H. Whitehead have been visiting friends in Hamilton.

Mrs. D. Wilson, 175 Brant Avenue, left for Detroit, to be with her daughter, who is very seriously ill.

Lt.-Col. Delamere, 110th Perth Battalion, is spending a few days here.

Transferred

Pte. Wm. Creaser of the 125th Batt. C.C. and Pte. C. B. Webeir, D Co., signaller, have been transferred to the 5th Co. Royal Engineers, headquarters, Kingston, Ont.

Music and Drama

THE COLONIAL

That Bradford theatregoers appreciate their amateur chamusement, was evidenced last night when the Colonial was taxed to capacity by an eager audience to witness the second week's performance of the Princess Players. This popular little band of players presented its first show to a bright, breezy farce comedy with just enough heart interest to make it doubly pleasing. The players proved, beyond a doubt, their histrionic ability in the rendition of their respective parts.

Miss Kitty Kirk, Mr. Geo Arnishie,

Mr. Higgins, and the balance of the cast, all in the presence of the immediate relations. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a travelling gown of black and white check with coral trimming, and coral hat and the veil. The best roses, Capt. and Mrs. Molesworth left later for the Carlton Inn, Niagara Falls; and at the Union Station they received a great send-off, as the fine and drum band of the groom's battalion had raced down in motors to see them off and played and sang lively airs until the train left town.

Both of the contracting parties are well known here, where they have often visited.

Persian Prince May be Lost

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Paris, March 28—Prince Bahram of the reigning family of Persia, who was a passenger on board the Susse, is still unaccounted for. His father Zill-es-Sultaneh is at Nicaea, has telegraphed to the Foreign Office in London and to the railroad companies' office and as neither is able to give him any information, he has declared that he has practically given up hope regarding his son.

Signor Marconi is busily engaged in improving his wireless telephone mechanism.

John Flood, of Chatham, a well-known marine contractor in western Ontario, died suddenly at the dinner table.

Jos. Rattenbury, hotelman, of Clinton, is dead, aged 65. His father conducted the first hotel established in the place, which was then known as Rattenbury's Corners.

Constipation

Is cured by
HOOD'S PILLS
25c.

Music and Drama

laugh for —, well I won't say how many years. You all know Annie Hart and Polly Homes, two of the girls that charmed us all so sweetly to-day. Sallie Stembler and Dan Ady, prima donnas of big calibre, Dan Gracey, Chic Burnham and Dan Hughes, fun makers and comedians of the first water; Eddie Stembler, singing juvenile; the Washer Brothers, "The Yellow Kids," the idol of the small boy; also three comedians once laughing "Golie" show from start to finish, and you simply can't afford to miss it, at the Grand Opera House, Tuesday evening, April 4 for one performance:

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses an exceptionally good bill. The Leslie Sisters, Australian singers, give a very charming offering, and the Six Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do by far the best exhibition of that kind ever seen here. They were deservedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The third episode of "Red Circle" proves as enthralling as ever. This series has deservedly caught on. To make up full measure and running over, there is a special photoplay feature, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses an exceptionally good bill. The Leslie Sisters, Australian singers, give a very charming offering, and the Six

Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do by far the best exhibition of that kind ever seen here. They were deservedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The third episode of "Red Circle" proves as enthralling as ever. This series has deservedly caught on. To make up

full measure and running over,

there is a special photoplay feature, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses

an exceptionally good bill. The

Leslie Sisters, Australian singers,

give a very charming offering, and the

Six Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do

by far the best exhibition of that kind ever seen here. They were deservedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The third episode of "Red Circle" proves

as enthralling as ever. This series has

deservedly caught on. To make up

full measure and running over,

there is a special photoplay fea-

ture, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses

an exceptionally good bill. The

Leslie Sisters, Australian singers,

give a very charming offering, and the

Six Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do

by far the best exhibition of that

kind ever seen here. They were des-

ervedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The

third episode of "Red Circle" proves

as enthralling as ever. This series has

deservedly caught on. To make up

full measure and running over,

there is a special photoplay fea-

ture, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses

an exceptionally good bill. The

Leslie Sisters, Australian singers,

give a very charming offering, and the

Six Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do

by far the best exhibition of that

kind ever seen here. They were des-

ervedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The

third episode of "Red Circle" proves

as enthralling as ever. This series has

deservedly caught on. To make up

full measure and running over,

there is a special photoplay fea-

ture, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses

an exceptionally good bill. The

Leslie Sisters, Australian singers,

give a very charming offering, and the

Six Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do

by far the best exhibition of that

kind ever seen here. They were des-

ervedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The

third episode of "Red Circle" proves

as enthralling as ever. This series has

deservedly caught on. To make up

full measure and running over,

there is a special photoplay fea-

ture, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

The first half of the week witnesses

an exceptionally good bill. The

Leslie Sisters, Australian singers,

give a very charming offering, and the

Six Cornwalls, acrobatic experts, do

by far the best exhibition of that

kind ever seen here. They were des-

ervedly greeted afternoon and evening with thunderous applause. The

third episode of "Red Circle" proves

as enthralling as ever. This series has

deservedly caught on. To make up

full measure and running over,

there is a special photoplay fea-

ture, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The Golden Chance."

It is better than "Mutti and Jeff."

THE BRAINS

</