London, June 20.—(Via Reuter's Limited).—A new and flagrant example of German submarine barbarity is reported by the newspapers:

A U-boat first torpedoed without warning and then shelled a British steamer. When the officers and crew of the damaged vessel took to the boats they were ordered alongside the submarine and forced to go on its deck, the captain being taken below as a prisoner. As the steamer had not yet sank the captain ordered some of the British to row one of their two boats back to her with a German prize crew which rifled the steamer systematically and then sank her with three bombs.

After having been employed for nearly five hours in this work the British were given some provisions and cast adriff. The same treatment was dealt out to the others of the crew, numbering 28.

The German Crown Prince has not repeated his attacks against the defences of Rheims when 40,000 of his troops were repulsed with heavy losses in a night attack Tuesday. The front there again is quiet, and the French maintain their positions. Berlin says the effort was more an artillery and mine thrower bombardment than an attack, but all accounts agree that the effort was in great force, and that it was broken up in desperate fighting in front of the French lines.

Heavy fighting continued today around the Montello plateau on the north and rear of San Dona di Piave on the south.

On Montello, which is hilly and wooded, the opposing forces frequently stumble upon each other un-expectedly. Such meetings always result in sharp encounters.
