When the trustees can meet and all preliminary details are settled a request will be made to several leading Americans to form a committee in the United States to act in conjunction with the English body and assume certain responsibilities for which the executors are palpably unfitted both by absence from the United States and ignorance of its customs.

Hard Fighting All of March 31.

Running Fight Kept Up for Eight Miles—The Canadian Rifles Good Work.
Special to the Daily Nugget.
London, April 4.—There was severe fighting all day on March 31 in the neighborhood of Harts river, southwestern Transvaal, between a part of General Kitchener's force and Delarey and Kemp, resulting in a repulse to the Boers after heavy losses on both sides.

tion, which was hastily entrenched. Fighting ensued at close quarters until the Boers were repulsed on all sides. Delarey, Kemp and other leaders vainly attempted to persuade their men to renew the action. Fifteen hundred Boers participated in the engagement. They had suffered heavily, and cleared away to the northwest and south. The British losses were also severe. The Canadian Rifles especially distinguished themselves, one party, commanded by Lieutenant Bruce Caruthers, holding a post until every man was killed or wounded. Others of the forces showed great steadiness, allowing the Boers to advance within 200 yards and then repelling them with a steady rifle fire.

POOR COUSIN REMEMBERED

Special to the Daily Nugget.
Lakewood, N. J., April 5.—George Rhodes, first cousin of the "Empire Builder," a poor janitor at this place, received from Cecil Rhodes a legacy of ten thousand pounds, and leaves at once for England to secure it. He said this morning: "Cecil was going to Eton when I came to America. I went to Canada and later to Buffalo. From the latter city I moved to Philadelphia but a few years ago failed in the grocery business and was compelled to earn a living as a janitor. Rhodes and myself never got along together as our families had disagreed on religious matters. I wrote him in 1896 and told him I was not doing well, and would like to go to South Africa. He sent me a curt note that there were enough Rhodeses in South Africa and refused to help me."

LOCAL CONTROL OF WHISKY

The Yukon Council Will Hereafter Exercise Right Delegated From Ottawa of Issuing Liquor Permits for the Yukon—Ross Sends Message.

A telegram from Commissioner Ross was received today by a gentleman high in official circles which shows conclusively that the governor's visit to Ottawa is beginning to bear fruit in the most substantial manner. The information conveyed consists of nothing less important than that not only has the liquor permit system been entirely done away with, but the control of the liquor traffic in the territory passes from Ottawa to Dawson, having been placed solely and exclusively in the hands of the Yukon council. An amendment to the Yukon act having for its purpose the foregoing intentions has already been framed and will pass at the present session of parliament. Hereafter all licenses and importations will pass through the hands of the Yukon council, and not only will the traffic be managed here without outside interference, but the revenues for the territory from the same will be largely increased.

About town the general opinion is that the action of the government in the matter is largely due to the monster petition forwarded to Ottawa about the first of the year by the party managers of the Citizens' majority ticket protesting against the continuation of the permit system, the petition being signed by every permit holder and large liquor dealer in the city, every one of whom was arrayed on the side of good government with the honest and efficient administration of the civic affairs. In the platform of the Citizens' ticket as afterward adopted when the amalgamation with the People's party was formed, was the plank denouncing the permit system and asking its repeal, the same platform that carried the "No salary for aldermen" plank, which an attempt is now being made to so ruthlessly disregard. At the time, the opposition, and particularly the more rabid of the Kids, made political capital out of that particular plank, it being beyond their dimutive comprehension to grasp the idea of any man willingly forfeiting a monopoly so remunerative, but as the chap across the street would say, it is "un fait accompli," the deed is done, its off with the permits, and certain it is that no thanks are due the calamity howlers and jingo politicians of the opposition for the change having been made.

PRINCE OF WALES

Will Visit United States in October

As Guest of New York Chamber of Commerce—King Favors Proposition.

Special to the Daily Nugget.
London, April 5.—High diplomatic circles in London are discussing plans, far advanced, for a visit by the Prince of Wales to the United States. The administration at Washington is officially forwarding the proposal for a visit which receives the personal sanction of King Edward, some of whose councillors urge acceptance of the invitation as a matter of astute policy. The prince's visit will be in acceptance of an invitation to the dedication of the new home of the New York Chamber of Commerce. A committee of that body has been in communication with the household and cabinet members directly and also through Ambassador Choate. The understanding is the prince accepted the invitation and would come to New York early in October if the building is completed by that time, as the guest of the New York Chamber of Commerce, and will make a tour of the United States under the auspices of the chamber.

One of the members intimated that word has been received from Emperor William that he is considering sending the German Crown Prince to represent him at the ceremony of the Chamber of Commerce, in connection with the French government if France is represented.

To the Public.
Please take notice that all putrid and decaying animal or vegetable matter must be removed from all outbuildings, yards and lanes within the city limits on or before the 15th instant, as per bylaw No. 8.

CHAMBERLAIN CABLES MINTO

Congratulating Canada on Her Soldiers

Last Meeting With Boers Much More Disastrous Than at First Reported.

Special to the Daily Nugget.
Ottawa, April 5.—Chamberlain cabled Minto this morning: "Congratulations to the Dominion on heroic conduct of Canadian Rifles action with Delarey. I deeply regret the heavy losses and desire to express my heartfelt sympathy to the relatives of those who gave their lives to maintain the traditions of Canadian valor."

London, April 5.—British losses in the engagement prove to have been three officers and 24 men killed, and 16 officers, 131 men wounded. The Boers admit they lost 137 men killed and wounded. The action occurred but a few miles south of the scene of Methuen's defeat by Delarey. The Boers were under Kemp and Potgieter and attacked with great determination, but the Canadian contingent (the last to arrive in South Africa) with two squadrons of Yeomanry, under Col. Cookson, and artillery and Mounted Rifles under Col. Kier, presented so strong a front the burghers were forced to retreat. The second Canadians had 4 officers wounded, 9 men killed and 40 wounded. Names are not obtainable yet.

Case Postponed.
