Try Again-Thrilling Escape from Drowning.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 14 .- Carisle D. Graham successfully navigated the whirlpool rapids in his barrel afternoon in the presence or eight thousand people, who ined both banks of the gorge and bridges. At about 3.05 p .m., he stepped into his barrel that lay on the American shore, a few hundred feet above the cantilever bridge, After closing the trap on the end of the barrei, which is about nine feet in length, and heavily boarded with iron hoops, and heavily ballasted in one end, with lead, it was towed out to about midstream by a rewboat. to about midstream by a rowboat, and the barrel glided down towards the whirlpool. If soon shot under the steel arch bridge, hugging the rapids towards the Canadian shore, and tossed about like a cork. Then t was completely submerged through the gorge, when it shot into the malestrom of the pool. It was caught in a current that carried it clean across the side of the pool to Thompson's Point, on the Canadian shore, not entering the vortex of the pool, where it was caught by a lot of boys and towed ashore, and the trap opened. Graham, who was in a dazed and semi-conscious state from exhaustion for air, was taken out and laid on a large rock, where he was fanned and brought back to life again. He claims he will make another trip during August, saying the men in the boat did not tow him far enough house south of Park street, consisting of the following: One parlor suit, consisting of six into the stream, and he was exhausted on account of being caught in the eddy under the cantilever bridge.

A fumber of lads were in bathing in the pool. One named Coyle, about 17 years of age, who could not swim, was strip-ped and splashing in the water, when the rushing current came on to him and carried him out into the swift current, and out to the vortex of the about 19 years old, an expert swim-mer, sprang to his assistance, swimming out to him. By this time Coyle was several feet below the water, and young Griffith dived down and grab-bed him. Coyle, in his frenzy, clutched Griffith around the neck, and rendered him powerless. The two boys were 110 feet from shore in a swift surging current. The crowd saw death for both lads, when Arch. Donswam out to them. Donald reached the drowning boys first as they were sinking and clutched together tightly. He broke their hold, and handing Griffith's limp form to Netman, the two young men swam ashore with their bodies, where ready hands soon resuscitated both lads by rubbing and pumping their limbs, when they were taken home.

Steyn's Brother and Boer Official Papers taken-Wife of Acting President Schalkhurger a Prisoner of War-Explanation From Lord Kitchener.

has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated at Pretoria:-

"Broadwood's brigade surprized Reitz, capturing Steyn's brother and others. Steyn himself escaped in his shirtsleeves with one other man only. The so-called Orange River Government and papers were captured." Lord Kitchener also reports that Scheeper's commando (as announced in press despatches early last week) burned the public buildings in Murraysburg, Cape Colony, and some farmhouses in the vicinity.

According to further advices from Lord Kitchener, columns under Col. Featherstone and Col. Dixon have reached. Zeerust, Western Transvaal. They met with opposition and made some captures. The British casualties were one officer killed and three officers and 24 men wounded. "General Broadwood," says a despatch to the Daily News from Bloemfontein, "surprised Reitz due east of Lindley at dawn last Thursday (11th). He took 11 prisoners, including Gen. Klone and Gen. Wessels, Commandant Dwal, First Cornet Piet Steyn (President Steyn's brother), Thomas Brain, secretary of the government, and Roches Develliers, secretary to the council. Steyn himself fled without coat or boots. Gen, De Wet is believed to have been pres-

PRISONER OF WAR. London, July 14 .- The Sun in informed that Acting President Schalkburger's wife has been captured near Waterval, Transvaal Colony, and sent as a prisoner of war to Pretoria. The Sun's informant says the military authorities attach great importance to the capture.

METHUEN'S SUCCESSES. A Pretoria despatch says :- General Methuen had a successful engagement with the Boers, July 6, north-east of Zeerust, in the Transvaul Colony. Four Roers were killed and 47 cap-tured. Lord Methuen was engaged London, July 15.—The War Office east of Zeerust on July 5. He captured for Lord Kitchener, dated at Preparation in the British lost two wounded and the Boers three killed.

BOERS DRIVEN OFF. The Boers daringly attempted to raid a cattle ranch near here. They were driven off with loss, gun butts being used in the encounter.

KITCHENER EXPLAINS. London, July 13. - Lord Kitchener sent a message to the War Office yes-terday explaining his failure to re-port the engagement between 200 of his scouts and 400 of the enemy near Warm Baths early last month. He says that the Boers were commanded by Pretorius, not by Beyers, as had been stated in the press. He contends that it would be impossible to send an account of each action, owing to their number. The officer commanding in the Warm Baths engagement gave the correspondents "a rather glowing account" of the action. In conclusion, Lord Kitchener says:-"I do not approve of the inclination to magnify every unimportant skirmish into British victory that exists in the press, and although I find it difficult to control this, I certainly do not encourage it in any way."

CRUCIAL TIME AT HAND. The next two months of the war in South Africa—July and August—are expected to prove crucial. If operations do not during this period take a decided turn, it is quite possible that they will flicker on for another year Clothing is what the Boers stand most in need of. They have ample foodthere is not the remotest possibility of ever starving them out—and their supply of ammunition, while not excessive, is ample for their immediate needs. Lord Kitchener's view that further reinforcements are unneces sary are shared by every one convers-ant with the situation. Meanwhile, the Civil Administration, which was established by Lord Milner, is being carried on in his absence, and to correct a misapprehension it may as well be stated that the vast majority of his appointments are permanent. The area in which civil government can be carried on is not likely to be extended yet to any great extent, but the dis-tricts in which "protection" is guaranteed by the military authorities are being slowly enlarged by extending the mileage radius from each garri-

The Open air Evening Service Secures an Immense Congregation.

Splendid Addresses Delivered by Rev Messrs, Ross, Sims and George -spirited Singing.

About 1,500 people attended the open air services on Tecumseh Park last evening. These meetings promise to be very popular this summer. Already the interest displayed is very keen. Rev. Messrs. Ross and Sims have great reason to feel gratified at the splendid results which have accompanied their efforts. The service last evening was of a similar nature to the one held the previous Sunday evening. Those who occupied seats on the stand were Rev. J. J. Ross, Rev. W. T. George, of Charing Cross, Rev. Robt. Sims, Warren Martin, Deacon Best, Prof. E. J. Forsythe, H. Horstead, William Sharp, O. Dolsen and others. After singing a number of hymns Rev. Mr. Ross gave a very interest-ing sermon on Jonah's prayer. Rev. Mr. Sims spoke on "Some men's sins are manifest, going before to judgment, and others follow after." Rev. Mr. George gave an address, chosing
