DUCK ARE PLENTIFUL

A party consisting of City Solicitor O. L. Lewis, A. C. McKay, Wm. Gor-don, G. G. Taylor, W. E. Rispin and Sam. Perrin, spent yesterday at St. Luke's Club shooting duck. The sportsmen were successful in bagging some twenty-three duck, and they state that the birds are quite plentiful.

MILLINERY OPENINGS

Mr. L. G. Read, managing engineer for the Colonial Engineering Company, who are installing Chatham's new electric light plant, was in the local dry goods stores are in full swing to-day. In spite of the unfavorable weather, there are large on his many Chatham friends, and incidentally looking over the ground in reference to the new plant.

Mr. Read met Ald. Potter and Engineer Jones on Monday afternoon, and, after a short consultation, it was decided to ask at once for tenders for the new building. Everything has now been arranged sufficiently to proceed with the erection of the struckure.

It has already been announced that Mr. Read will instal two engines for the same price as he figured on one. Only one engine is stipulated in the contract, but the company will spare no expense in making this plant the very finest on the continent. The engines will be ready to ship in three weeks' time. The plant will be running in December, if no unforsten accidents happen to delay the work. on his many Chatham friends, and incidentally looking over the ground throngs of the fair sex in attend-ance, and the beautiful sights-which greet their eyes in the various stores warrant their attention and ad-miration. A short description of each display will appear in to-morrow's Planet.
