PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Because they can't move mountains some people decline to level mole hills.

Don't borrow any trouble. You'll have enough thrust on you.

If you are in trouble and don't know what to do about it, forget it.

When you return a favor don't tie a string to it first.

Whatever is in some people is bound to stay there.

It would be a blessing to suffering acquaintances if some people were as brief as they are short.

A soft snap sometimes bears a concealed relation to a dull thud.

The essential to having a good time is merely the sense of being on top.

Whatever some people's hands find to do they do it while your back is turned.

It sometimes happens that the more a man is worth the more worthless he is.

The Autumn Event.

Prize porkers

And a wheezy band,

Flags flying

In the air.

Cold lemonade,

A stock parade,

And that's

The county fair.

A noisy line

Of side show tents,

The greatest

Shows on earth.

With barkers who

Are sure that you

Will get

Your money's worth.

A fat man's race,

A lively chase

To catch

A well greased snout,

And popcorn then

They split their throat.

Fresh country buds

In brand new duds,

By lovers, bronzed,

Purposed,

And here and there

To make folks stare

A swell

And swaggering duds.

A grotting match

Designed to catch

The dollar of

The sport.

Orations planned

To save the land—

The county fair,

In short.

Puer Fellow.

"Is he learning

the business

pretty well?"

"No, but the business is learning him

pretty well."

"How's that?"

"He can't borrow any more

from anybody

on the job."

Wouldn't Warm Them.

"Gambling again, as usual," said Mrs. Frosty as her husband tipped in as soon after midnight as he could get away.

"No, just a little friendly game," he replied, trying his best to appear light hearted.

"Did you win?"

"No; I got cold feet at the wrong time."

"You needn't come to bed with me then."

"He thinks he has discovered the correct principle for the flying machine at last."

"Something different?"

"Yes, altogether. He is going to build it like a submarine."

"Does he think it will fly?"

"It ought to. All flying machines make dandy submarines."

A Taking Fellow.

"He'd take whatever came his way. And think it rather nice."

"And just to keep himself in play."

"He'd even take advice."

They Put Up the Stuff.

"That beautiful house is made of gold bricks."

"Looks to me more like gray stone."

"It may look that way, but a lot of jays that wanted to get rich know better."

All the Difference.

"He made me a standing offer for all the poems I might write."

"Was he standing when he made it?"

"No; he was sitting."

"Sure he wasn't lying?"

Frank About It.

"Do you love me for myself alone?"

"Not wholly, to be honest with you."

"I love you partly for that imp of a small brother."

THREE MONTHS IN JAIL.

Conclusive Proof of Residence and Turgeon Gains.

Prince Albert, Oct. 19.—Attorney-General Turgeon is believed to have made a net gain of forty votes in the Court of Revision proceedings so far. He got a dozen in one poll.

Strenuous efforts are being made by both sides to prove the qualifications of the voters. One man, said to have voted for Turgeon, proved that he had been a three months' resident in the riding by calling the jail warden to show that he had been in jail for that qualifying period.

A bunch of violets is on every plate at the beginning of a formal dinner.

Thousands of people are wan, pallid, run down and dispirited. What they need is that nourishing tonic Ferrozone. Soon they regain their laughing eyes, bright spirits and rosy cheeks. Ferrozone does this and more, as Mrs. L. F. Anderson, Whitby, Ont., testifies, "My daughter was very much run down and had considerable trouble at times. Often I was at a loss to know what to do. I was advised to give her Ferrozone, and I did so. Ferrozone cleared up all the trouble, made my daughter healthy and well. Consider it a medicine every woman should use regularly if she wants to feel her best." Rebuild with Ferrozone! It is the King of all cures. Price 50c. per box at all dealers.

Three Survivors Drowned.

Vancouver, Oct. 19.—Wm. Lusby, Harry Cummings, W. Symington, three members of a surveying party at work on the G. T. P., were drowned at Giscome Rapids, about 35 miles above Fort George, on the Fraser River. The party attempted to shoot the rapids and struck a rock, which upset their canoe. The bodies of the drowned men have not been recovered. The survivors of the party are Robert Sheffield, J. Miller and Arthur Cape. Cromwell's party from Edmonton brought the party to Quesnel.

Bad Wreck in Spain.

St. Sebastian, Spain, Oct. 19.—Twenty-seven persons killed or wounded in a railroad wreck yesterday at Orio, near here.

SYSTEM REQUIRES FREQUENT CLEANSING.

Not only outside, but inside as well, your body must be frequently cleansed. Otherwise it becomes loaded with wastes that clog up the wheels of health. Much better to act in time. Use Mr. Hamilton's Pills; they strengthen and regulate the bowels, assist digestion, enrich the blood and thereby fortify the nerves and lay the foundation of lasting good health.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills bring vim and vitality so much sought for to-day; they infuse a feeling of freshness and spirit in those who have been ailing for years. Really no medicine so potent. Price 25c. at all dealers.

Earl Grey and the King.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The following cables have passed between His Majesty and Earl Grey: His Majesty the King: Lord Grey to His Majesty the King: "Ottawa, Oct. 17.—I have the honor to congratulate Your Majesty on the establishment of a fresh link between Canada and the Motherland by the opening to-day to public use of Marconi's wireless telegraphic system."

His Majesty the King to Lord Grey: "London, Oct. 18.—I thank you for your telegram. I am delighted that the wireless telegraphic system should unite the bonds between Canada and the Mother Country so closely."

GERMAN NOTIONS.

Square Tiles Like Painters' Palettes Used For Breakfast Plates.

For breakfast, instead of plates, long tiles are made in Germany, something like a painter's palette made square. Instead of a thumb-hole there is only a small hole in the middle of one end to hang this tile on a hook or peg. These tiles are thick and glazed with white, like any stoneware. One seen was blue and white, and one red in pretty flowing designs.

They are used for bread and butter served with a cup of coffee. Doubtless in Germany they are taken to the garden on bright mornings. Here they are used as curios. It is said that old gentlemen used to them would feel quite "put out" if given a round plate instead of this tile, with a good piece of butter on it, and a couple of fresh rolls for breakfast daily.

German ways of setting the table are at variance with those of other countries. The knives for dinner parties are arranged out at an angle into the middle of the table. Knives and forks are laid obliquely to the plate with the tips touching it. Finger bowls have spoons in them by which to dip the water over the fingers. This idea is not out of the way.

Quite gaudy glassware for wine is shown, purple, blue, orange and yellow, with decanters to match.

A bunch of violets is on every plate at the beginning of a formal dinner.
