THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., NOV 12, 1886

Local and Provincial.

THANKSGIVING DAY next Thursday.

PAINT.—Our school-house has been recently newly painted as has also Mr. S. R. Sleep's store. Both are considerably improved in appearance.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Andrew Borden, station-master at Grand Pre, was thrown from a carriage and severely injured on the morning of Tuesday last.

Cedar Posts for sale low at S. R. Sleep's.

STORM.—The weather thus far has been delightful and no cold weather or storms had been experienced up to Sunday last. On that day a violent storm of wind and rain prevailed making it very unpleasant, and causing a very small attendance at the church.

Crates, cases New Crockery, Lamp Chimneys, Lanterns, Lamp fittings etc. just received at R. PRAT'S.

MORE PAINT.—Mr. Burpee Witter's block has just received a new coat of paint and looks very nice. We are pleased to see so many buildings being improved this year. It is a sign of prosperity and will have the effect of making the town appear much more favorably to strangers. There are some buildings yet that would look the better of a little paint.

APPLE SHIPMENT.—The ship, Theresa, Glass, is loading apples at this port. Messrs Chase & Co. are the shippers, and she will carry about 2,500 barrels. She will probably sail this afternoon or tomorrow for New York. Theresa is a three-masted schooner, the first that ever visited this port, although vessels of a much larger tonnage have frequently been here.

It is a fact that BURPEE WITTER is selling his stock Ladies Mantles at a large reduction in price.

POTATOES.—Mr. H. A. Pitt, of Bermuda, shipped from this station during the week 751 barrels potatoes and from Kentville 425 barrels making in all 1,176 barrels. They go by rail to Halifax and are re-shipped for Bermuda on board the freight, T. H. A. Pitt—a vessel which is said to be the best in the trade. Mr. Pitt is by no means a stranger in Wolfville as he has visited us annually for the past few years.

Choice Imported and Domestic Cigars at 3, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 10 cents at J. M. SHAW'S.

L. O. G. T.—The officers of Acadia Lodge, I. O. G. T., for the present year, were installed last Saturday evening and are as follows:—

W. C. T.—J. L. Bishop, W. S. T.—Miss Ida Jones, W. S. T.—J. E. Martin, W. F. S.—J. L. Franklin, W. T. S.—Mrs J. L. Franklin, W. C. S.—G. R. White, W. M. S.—Howard Whidden, W. I. G.—C. P. Wilson, W. G. G.—J. A. Marple, W. H. S.—Miss Edna Gilmore, W. L. H. S.—"E. E. Elmer, W. A. S.—"Linda Higgins, W. D. M.—"Lila Williams.

Wool, Girdles, Artisan's Ornaments, Pompadour, Trimmings, Large Buttons and clasps just opened, at BURPEE WITTER'S.

FOR ENGLAND.—We call attention to an adv. of the Annapolis Line S. S. Beranda, to load dry goods and apples at Annapolis for London. As this first class fast freight carrying steamer takes no grain or heating cargo, and the freight is lower than by other lines, only 50c. from any station on the W. & A. R., it offers a most favorable opportunity for a safe shipment of apples to London. The agent assures us that the rate of marine insurance by the Annapolis line is only 1/2%. Persons intending to ship by this line should apply early for space to the agent at Annapolis, Thos. Whitman. We are glad to learn that the cable advice for the last winter fruit is most favorable and early shipments are recommended owing to the anticipated large importation of oranges after January.

Black and Brown Fur Trimmings from 25c to $1.50 at BURPEE WITTER'S.

TEA MEETING.—The tea-meeting given by the ladies of St. John's church in Witter's Hall, on Thursday evening last, was in every way an enjoyable affair. The tables presented a very pretty appearance and were covered with everything that could be wished in the way of eatables. The Hall was well filled and all appeared to show their appreciation of the good things spread out before them. The tables had received ample attention the following programme was presented and was received in a way that showed the hearty appreciation of the audience:—

PROGRAMME.
Song, "White Wings," Messrs Prat, Pittman, Martin and Byrne.
Recitation, "The Duke's ride in a horse-car," Mr. Martin.
Song, "Oranien," Messrs Prat, Pittman, Byrne and Martin.

ROWDYISM IN WOLFVILLE.

Sirs,—Is it not about time something was done to put an end to the disgusting scenes of rowdyism which are to be witnessed almost nightly in this town. Night after night gangs of overgrown babies and half grown men of all ages and sizes congregate at the corners of the streets and no respectable woman, young or old, can escape the disgraceful language these half-witted, wholly soulless blackguards use. And if you want one sample of their villainous conduct look at the former night railing in front of the old DeWolf residence! It is a disgrace to an otherwise orderly and well-conducted community that these things are permitted. If the authorities cannot protect our women and property perhaps the "vigilance committee" might find some means more summary than "Kentville," of settling with these loafing, idlers, and convicts. Yours etc., D. S. S.

LETTER FROM MR WALLACE.

Messrs Editors,—I was present at the meeting held at Mr Johnson Bishop's store, a few weeks ago, for the selection of a candidate for Councillor for this Ward, and was one of the nominees presented to the meeting. It was very gratifying to me to receive so large a vote at that meeting, representing so large a show of the intelligence, influence and property of this section of the county. Since that time I have been strongly solicited by a number of gentlemen, who were not at the meeting, to allow myself to be nominated as a candidate for the position and who offered to circulate a requisition for that purpose. I have also learned from people who signed a requisition for another that they did so with the proviso that they would be free to vote for me if I should become a candidate. All this, coming as it does without any solicitation on my part, renders it still more pleasing to me, and I hereby tender these friends my hearty thanks for the manifestations of their confidence and esteem and never be guilty of an honorable action. If at any time I should be selected to any position of trust and honor it will be my endeavour to fill the same as shall be for the best interest of the community in which I live. In reference to Mr Woodworth who was nominated at that meeting I would say that I believe him to be a capable, honest and square dealing gentleman, and from the fact that he has served the county in the capacity of Auditor for some years, it is but reasonable to suppose him to be conversant with the business of the county generally and that he will if elected prove a valuable member of our Municipal Council. In addition he is a thorough and reliable temperance man and should be supported by all well wishes of the temperance cause which is to day receiving so large a share of the best thought and service of our most eminent men throughout the civilized world. JOHN W. WALLACE, Wolfville Nov. 12, 1886.

CANDIDATES FOR COUNCIL.

Messrs Editors.—For some days past a report has been in circulation that Dr Bars and his friends were trying to get out of the dishonorable position in which they found themselves, by denying that he (Dr Bars) took an active part in the meeting held at Johnson Bishop's store and that he voted on the resolution to support the man nominated. I did not think this could be possible till I saw the card of Dr Bars and the letter of "Electors" in the last issue of the New Star. I was present at the meeting above referred to and know that Dr Bars did take an active part in it. He assisted in counting the ballots, made a personal canvass for Mr Woodworth, and if any man there voted more positively than another to sustain the nomination, that man was Dr Bars; emphasizing the "yes" with a stamp on the floor with his foot and cane. I have consulted many who were there, on the right and left and in front of Dr Bars, as to this fact and they all agreed with me. Both in the store, after the meeting was closed, and out on the street Dr Bars expressed himself as being satisfied with the meeting and well pleased with the nominee. How then, Messrs Editors, in the name of honor, honesty and truth, could Dr Bars allow a requisition to be circulated, or accept a nomination in opposition to Mr Woodworth! This is a puzzling question to all honorable men. Strip a man of honor, honesty and truth, and what is left is not worthy the notice of any man. Referring again to the letter of "Electors" in the Star, I would say that it seems to be characteristic of its author, being long, and this, and without much weight. There is an evident attempt to belittle Mr Woodworth, and hold him up as a man unknown in the ward, and as having no capacity for public business. This only shows how little "Electors" knew of what he was writing about. The fact is that Mr Woodworth, although he never had thousands of dollars which he never earned expended upon him to no purpose, is acknowledged, on all sides, to be a gentleman of intelligence and capability, and well-informed respecting public affairs and the business of the County, and this community in particular. At the meeting in Witter's hall Dr Bars pretended that he knew nothing of the ungentlemanly statements that were being made respecting Mr Woodworth in the Star for he was in his requisition, and endeavored to clear his skirts by saying that he would imitate Sir John A. Macdonald on a certain occasion and say that he washed his hands as being innocent of them all. The Dr no doubt thought this sounded well, but he should have remembered that Plato once washed his hands in the same way, but has, nevertheless, ever since been held accountable. These Messrs Editors, are the facts as they appear to a very large number of bona fide electors. TRUTH, November 12th, 1886.

CARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 8.

GENTLEMEN:—

Complying with the written request of more than one hundred electors of this ward (embracing all shades of politics), I offer myself a candidate for the "Municipal Council." Although present at the public meeting held in Mr Johnson Bishop's store, I did not vote for the resolution "agreeing to support the nominee of that meeting"; I am therefore free to receive your support and votes.

In Council (if elected) I shall study your interests; throwing my influence in favor of economy and promptness, endeavoring, without fear or favor, to follow that policy which seems most clearly indicated by the actual needs of the County.

A. DEW. BARSS.

Wolfville, Nov 10th, 1886

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 8.

GENTLEMEN:—

At a Public Meeting held on the 18th ult. and duly advertised in the columns of this paper, I was nominated as a candidate for Councillor for this Ward. At that meeting Dr Bars, who is now contesting the Ward with me, was present, took part in the business, and voted to support me. On the good faith of his support and others I accepted the nomination. At a largely attended public meeting held on the 24th ult. I placed myself fairly before the Ward on the Temperance and other questions, while Dr Bars refused to make any statement of his course if elected. In view of the above facts I place myself on the honor of the Ward, asking you for your support, and promising if elected, to faithfully perform my duties to the best of my ability.

Your old servant,

JOHN A. WOODWORTH

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD 9.

GENTLEMEN:—

In compliance with a requisition signed by nearly One Hundred of your number, and having been also nominated by a large majority at a public meeting called for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent the Ward in the Municipal Council, I hereby agree to accept said nomination, and if elected will serve you as faithfully in the future as I have endeavored to do in the past.

Yours,

FRED G. CURRY.

October 20th, 1886 b

To the Electors of Kings Co.

Whereas, certain persons, for reasons best known to themselves, have, for the past few weeks, been circulating a report that the King's County Temperance Alliance had asked your Municipal Council to assume certain liabilities contracted by that society, and that certain candidates are pledged, if elected, to support that demand.

This is to certify that the Alliance has not asked, and does not intend to ask your Council to assume any liabilities contracted by it or on its behalf.
