I have learned some things in the course of a long business life and still have a great many others to learn.

But the chief thing I have le can be condensed into one Lugget of wisdom in three words "Talk it over." If thy business enemy offend thee, don't smite him on the cheek. Take him by the buttonhole in a friendly manner and talk it over. Some one tells you that Smith, down the street, has said or done something to your detriment. Perhaps he has, and perhaps he bas not. If he has, your best not, you don't want to do him an injus-

"The longer I live the more firmly I am convinced," said Mr Gizz éton, "that a man who wants a fortune has got to do something besides wish for it. Fortunes, large and small, are shy, very shy. In ore form and another they are possing by all the time, but they won't stop for the mere asking, however polite and graceful and earnest the invitation may be We might sit out on the veranda from now till doomsday and rise and bow and scrape at every one of 'em that comes along and ask 'em ali in, but never one of 'em would etop. They might want to come in, but nothing abort of actual collaring would bring 'em in. The fact is that if we want a fortune we've got to work fer it.

"Men have made fortunes to be surreighted from the ground one owns and cover bins with riches. Another man may find iron ore in kis land, and have the surfact of the ground one owns and cover him with riches. Another man may find iron ore in kis land, and have the getting rich in that way are really not getting rich in that t "The longer I live the more firm!y I
