Santa Starts Off

BY MARY GRAHAM DORTCH

(Copyright 1919 by Western Newspaper Union)

"SANTA CLAUS" dog, Boy of the North, was barking, said Daddy, "For there was great excitement up North."

"The excitement was, as you may be able to guess, that Santa Claus was about to start his trip."

"I have more things to do this year than ever before, it seems to me," said Santa Claus.

"Boy of the North" wagged his tail and gave funny little short barks which was his way of laughing. "For say that every year," he was trying to tell Santa Claus, as he put his cold nose in Santa's hand and rubbed up beside him.

"The reindeer were waiting. The bells on their reins were jingling and the sleigh was filled with packs and packs of toys."

"Now, let me see," said Santa Claus. "There are many shops were packed with toys. The children have written to me about the things they have seen and of what they want."

Healthy, Happy Boys and Girls

For children who are thin, pale, anemic, under weight, nervous, restless, sleepless, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of the greatest benefit imaginable.

Being mild and gentle in action, and yet wonderfully potent as a restorative, it soon makes the blood rich and builds up the feeble nerves.
