General Intelligence.
CONTINENTAL FAME.

A country that can boast of a Niagara Falls, a River St. Lawrence, and a transcontinental railway three thousand miles long may fairly be said to have fame. A wonderful newspaper success added to these would add to the country's greatness in the eyes of the world, just as a winning oarsman or yacht or cricket team would do it. This is why so vast a number of people feel a pride in the amazing success of the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, a paper great in itself, and that adds much every way to its country's greatness. Those who have not seen the Family Herald of Montreal have missed one of the sights of Canada, and those who are not subscribers to it may well be contented to see it, and those who have been obliged to refuse to accept more new subscribers until more space accommodation can be procured to turn out the papers fast enough to meet the demand.

THE QUESTION FOR THE POWERS.
THE SUITORS' TERRIBLE THREAT—A GENERAL MASSACRE THREATENED—DYNAMITE DISCOVERED IN IRELAND.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Standard's El Hafir despatch says that Wad-Bishar has received Douglas.

A Rome despatch to the Standard says that in consequence of the re-occupation of Dongola (by Wad-Bishar), the Governor of Wad-Bishar has ordered the Garrison of Kassala to be reinforced.

The Daily News' correspondent at El Hafir says:—Eight of Hicks Pasha's Egyptian gunners, who served the Derwish guns in Saturday's engagement, have deserted. They say that the Bagdads stood over them with swords and threatened to kill them if they shot, but, "motivated by the Bagdads," they omitted to use the fuses. This despatch, doubtless, saved the gunboat "Abkaka" from being blown into the air.

GOLD STOCKS
Are a Feverish and Uncertain Quantity, But the Great South American Cures Are Wrought Out of the Solid Rock of Advanced Medical Science for Specific Purposes—And They Never Fail Their Believers in a Few Hours.

Kidneys—Rich in healing power is the testimony every day for the great South American Kidney Cure. It is a kidney specific. It dissolves and eradicates from the system all foreign matter, allays inflammation and pain in the bladder. It relieves the most distressing kidney disorders inside of six hours, and effects a quick and permanent cure.

Mr. D. Ogilby, Springfield, N. S., states: "I was very much distressed with severe kidney trouble. I was unable to attend to my household duties. I saw South American Kidney Cure advertised and procured a bottle. I had permanent relief in six hours, and after using six bottles I was permanently cured."

Rheumatism—The most acute and chronic forms of this dread ailment are cured in from one to three days by the South American Rheumatic Cure. Its action upon the system is marvelous.

Mr. John Gray, ex-dealer, Wingham, Ont., says: "Five years ago I was afflicted with a severe nervous twinging, rheumatism. Was completely laid up and tried all kinds of liniments and other remedies without relief. Reading of the great cure made by South American Rheumatic Cure I procured a bottle and got relief in a few hours. I used six bottles in all, and my cure was complete. It is the best remedy for rheumatism in the world."

The Nerves—The Great South American Nerve Cure has no stronger testimony for it than that contained in the story of this miraculous recovery: Robert B. English, Lakefield, Ont., was taken ill about five years ago with la grippe, which culminated in fits. Added to this, rheumatic complications set in; physicians pronounced him a hopeless case. So great was his suffering that he longed for death's hand to relieve him. Reading of the wonderful cures being wrought by South American Nerve Cure, a bottle was procured, and its effect was marvelous. In a very short time the fits disappeared, the nervous twinging lessened. After taking six bottles he was completely cured. While there's life, and these good remedies, there's hope.

THE ANGLO-EGYPTIAN EXPEDITION.
LONDON, Sept. 22.—An editorial in the Times concerning the Egyptian percentage of illness and death in the Egyptian expedition, says that it is the necessity of rigid economy from France's refusal to sanction the use of Egyptian funds. The expedition, however, is small and is compelled to make for itself marches and other hardships in order to make time. England cannot afford, for the sake of economy, to undervalue her own success, and she must herself find the money to prosecute the campaign under conditions consistent with common humanity to the troops.

General Sir H. H. Kitchener, Commander of the Anglo-Egyptian Expedition into the Sudan, has telegraphed to the Foreign Office that he has definitely occupied Dongola and that the Derwishes have evacuated the place. A number of Derwishes have been captured and are being sent to the Egyptian troops and a large quantity of stores and munitions of war have been captured from the enemy.

GALES OFF THE BRITISH COAST.
LONDON, Sept. 22.—Fierce gales prevailed in the English Channel last evening, and the passenger and mail boats plying between Calais and Dover were greatly delayed in consequence. A number of fishing boats at Cornwall were badly damaged and isolated cases of drowning are reported. The steamer "Rhyladen," from Philadelphia, Sept. 12, for Liverpool, arrived at Queenstown today. She reports having had a stormy passage with violent winds and high seas. One large wave swept over her deck and flooded her staterooms.

THE RICHEST FIND.
Men Travel Miles for Health and Wealth and Are Disappointed—Dr. Agnew's Great Cure Brings Health and Lay it at Your Feet—Sure, Certain and Permanent—And Health is Wealth.

The Heart—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is a perfect remedy. In thousands of cases where sure and sudden death seemed imminent its wonderful curative powers have been demonstrated, and in most acute forms relief has come in thirty minutes. Some of the most pronounced symptoms of heart disorder are shortness of breath, smothering spells, palpitation and pain in the left side. Mrs. J. L. Miller of White Wood, N. W. T., writes: "I feel that Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart has saved my life. I was afflicted with heart trouble in a very acute form. I could not sleep, and could not lie down for fear of suffocation. I tried many of the best physicians without relief, until one of them recommended Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. I procured a bottle. One dose gave relief, and a few bottles completely cured me."

Cataracts—This dread disease fastens its inveterate hold upon the lining of the nostrils. A simple cold in the head neglected will induce it. It is a disease of the continent and is in a greater or lesser degree subject to its ravages. The Rev. Mungo Fraser, D. D., of Knox Church, Hamilton, Ont., who has a continental reputation as a divine and scholar, was a martyr to an acute catarrhal affection. This great remedy being brought to his notice he used it and he writes over his own signature the strongest words of commendation of its curative powers, and recommends it to all like sufferers.

PILES CURED IN 3 TO 6 NIGHTS—Dr. Agnew's Ointment will cure all cases of itching piles in from three to six nights. One application brings comfort. For blind and bleeding piles it is peerless. Also cures hemorrhoids, eczema, barber's itch and all eruptions of the skin. 35 cents.

THE UNITED STATES AND TYNN.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 22.—The State Department, being satisfied of the American citizenship of Tynan, who has appealed to Ambassador Eustis in Paris, has taken steps to ensure that any proceedings against the accused shall proceed without irregularity. The United States is stopped from interfering in the half of the prisoner in any other manner than to see that all due formalities are complied with in regard to extradition.

Mr. Charles did not follow his speech by a motion, saying he did not desire to intensify the matter by a vote of the house.

Mr. Laurier followed in a vigorous speech. He said in answer that the defence of Lord Aberdeen was that no wrong had been done. He had made himself a champion of the rights of the people. He denied Sir Charles' argument that Lord Aberdeen had acted without a word from his advisers. Sir Charles had himself informed him of his defeat. He thought it very bold of Sir Charles to accuse the course he had adopted. He had made out a very poor case. In conclusion, he declared there was not a man in whose breast there was an element of justice who did not approve of Lord Aberdeen's action. Lord ministerial cheers greeted the conclusion of Mr. Laurier's remarks. The matter then dropped.

WANTED—SEVERAL FAITHFUL MEN OR WOMEN to travel for responsible established house in New Brunswick. Salary $750, payable $15 weekly and expenses. Position permanent. Reference enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope. The National Star Building, Chicago.

TWO NEW COMETS DISCOVERED.
PASADENA, Cal., Sept. 22.—Dr. Lewis Swift, the astronomer in charge of Mount Lowe Observatory, has discovered two new comets. The larger and brighter was first sighted last Sunday night, but got a better view of it last night, just before sunset, while the sun was hidden by the mountains. It was about one degree from the sun.

Dominion Parliament.
OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—An important statement made by Hon. Mr. Blair this afternoon on the estimates for the Intercolonial called forth a strenuous protest from the opposition. Mr. Blair explained in answer to Sir C. H. Tupper, that course he intended to pursue regarding the Intercolonial, and that he would not be deterred by the opposition.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—In the house this afternoon Mr. Rogers, patron member, introduced a bill to prohibit the members of parliament from accepting passes.

The house concurred in the estimates already passed and the supply bill was introduced in order to pay the civil service their overdue salaries.

Hon. Mr. Foster then brought up the tariff question. The matter he considered of greater importance than usual because of the statement by Premier Laurier that nothing would be done until next year, and also because of the widespread though quiet epidemic among the leaders of the government, causing their memories to fade completely in regard to this question. Hon. Mr. Foster gave a historical retrospect of the position of the liberals in the past eighteen years. This he did at considerable length, referring to the policies of commercial union, continental free trade, unrestricted reciprocity, and free trade as in England, the different times adopted by the liberals. He wanted to know what the government was going to do now. In view of their numerous changes of front that was a hard matter to arrive at. But there were three things: first, a promise amendment to secure reciprocity with the United States. Hon. Mr. Foster characterized the policy of the past as a blind search in the utter absence of any intelligent plan. He continued to speak until after recess and concluded by moving the following amendment:

"That since 1879 the liberal party in Canada has in the main evinced uncompromising hostility to the principle and practice of protection as applied to the producing interests of Canada."

That during this period the leaders and organs of the party have from time to time advocated:

(A) Commercial union with the United States.
(B) Continental free trade.
(C) Unrestricted reciprocity with the United States with discrimination against Great Britain and other countries.

(D) Free trade as practiced in Great Britain; and
(E) Tariff for revenue only, in which there should be no vestige of protection.

That the authoritative platform of the party in 1893 declared that "the commercial tariff of the dominion should be based, not as now, upon the protective principle, which it denounced as 'radically unsound and unjust to the masses of the people and revolting as the conviction of the party.'"

That "any tariff changes based on that principle must fail to afford any substantial relief from the burdens under which the country labors."

That the government, through its leader, has announced its determination not to introduce any measure dealing with the tariff during the present session.

That the platform of the liberal party and the utterance of the leader of the party and its principal organs and supporters.

Tupper replied that there was not a word of truth in it; on the contrary, he was received by Blair with the greatest courtesy.

Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 11-13 Albert Street, Toronto, answered with free medical advice for any disease.

porters have had the country to believe that a radical change is imminent in the tariff upon which the revision of the tariff is to be based.

"That the uncertainty and delay consequent upon these announcements will result in great disturbance in business and serious loss to the commercial and producing interests of the country."

"This business, while waiting to allow a reasonable time to perfect details, is of the opinion that a declaration of the principle upon which the government propose to base their tariff revision, should be at once made."

"And that no tariff will be wise or satisfactory which does not proceed upon the basis of an adequate and sufficient protection for the interest of the country."

Sir Richard Cartwright replied to Hon. Mr. Foster, keeping the floor less than an hour. He accused the ex-minister of finance with repeating an old story. He denied that the condition of the trade of the country was unsettled, quoting the improved trade returns in support of his argument. He did not offer any further explanation of the policy of the government in respect to the tariff beyond saying that care would be exercised before the changes were made. The speech was not characterized by that fire which used to mark Sir Richard on the opposition benches.

Mr. Davis spoke to midnight, demanding that the government should make a definite statement. He said in the infancy of the government it showed the pallor of death.

Before adjournment the supply bill for $7,720,000 was given three readings.

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—The discussion on Hon. Mr. Foster's tariff amendment was continued by Mr. Moore of St. Andrew, who made a strong protectionist speech.

Mr. Charlton replied, dealing mainly with the reciprocity question. He remarked that when Tupper went to Washington in 1892 it took the intervention of the British minister to get an audience with Blair, so annoyed was the latter at the confidence game played upon him by the Tories at the general elections of 1891.

Tupper replied that there was not a word of truth in it; on the contrary, he was received by Blair with the greatest courtesy.
