BOUESTOWN NEWS

Jan. 17—Arthur Munn, son of Timothy Munn of Upper Haysville, is in the Victoria Hospital, Fredericton, in a critical condition as the result of a tree having fallen on him on Saturday on the Chatham stream where the young man was employed by Mr. Fred McLaglan. The journey of thirty miles to the nearest station on the Canadian Railway was a great undertaking, but it was realized that if his life was to be saved expert care was needed. He was met at the depot in Fredericton by Dr. W. H. Irvine who had him carried to the hospital in the ambulance. His skull is fractured and his body from his hips to his shoulders is in a terribly bruised condition, and it is questionable whether he will recover. The young man is about eighteen years of age.

Master Festus Sharpe is confined to his home by a heavy cold.

The Late John Walsh
 The funeral of the late John Walsh whose death occurred at Nelson on Tuesday night week, after a short illness, took place on Friday morning and was largely attended. Rev. Fr. Power conducted the services at St. Patrick's church and interment was at St. Patrick's cemetery. Deceased was 57 years of age and is survived by his wife and family.

Remains Laid to Rest
 The remains of the late Mr. Isaac R. Leighton were laid to rest in the new Miramichi Cemetery on Friday afternoon. Service at the house was conducted by the Rev. W. J. Bate, assisted by the Rev. M. S. Richardson. The hymns, Peace, Perfect Peace and Abide with Me, were beautifully rendered by a mixed choir. The pallbearers were Messrs. C. Crocker, John Betts and J. J. Clarke, Millerton, and J. D. Creighton, Newcastle.

Mrs. John McLeod
 The death of Mrs. John McLeod, an aged and respected resident of Nelson, occurred at her home there on Saturday, from infirmities of old age. Deceased was eighty-four years of age and is survived by her sons, Robert and John in the United States and Montgomery and Hudson of Nelson, and two daughters, Mrs. Alvin Vye of Upper Nelson and Miss Cassie McLeod at home. The funeral took place on Monday at the Nelson Presbyterian Cemetery, Rev. Alex. Firth conducted the funeral service.

D. S. Gordon, Jr.
 D. S. Gordon, Jr., of Maple Glen, who joined the 132nd on Dec. 27th, and attended one parade, when he took sick with a cold, was taken to Chatham Hospital last week and died there of pleurisy-pneumonia yesterday. He was 22 years old. His only sister died a few weeks ago. Two brothers survive, Corporal Neil Gordon of the 132nd, and Fred, at home. The latter, who recently underwent a serious operation, unsuccessfully tried to enlist. The family have already lost six of their eight children and very much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved survivors. The remains of the deceased were taken home under military escort. The funeral will be held tomorrow.
