CAMPBELL TEAM ENTERS 2 PROTESTS

Fredericton, Feb. 10—The Campbellton hockey club will carry their protests over last night's hockey game at Campbellton through to a finish in a demand that discipline and recognized methods of conducting sport be maintained by the New Brunswick Hockey League.

Two Protests Filed

Two protests have been filed by the Campbellton club, and were presented to Sandy Staples, of Fredericton, the only referee the local club recognized in connection with last night's game. One protest is based on the failure of Chatham to play with the official referee named by the league and the holding up of the game by a demand by the Chatham club that Frank Brown act as referee; the other protest is that "Shorty" Veno, who has been ruled ineligible was in uniform with the Chatham club, worked out with them in the preliminary practice, was in the list of Chatham players handed to the Campbellton club before the game, and that he remained in the box with the Chatham club's spare players ready to play if sent upon the ice.

The belief at Campbellton is that the Chatham club intended to and would have used Veno, had the game gone adversely, and it is contended that they have defied the officials of both the N. B. H. L. and the A. A. U. of C. in a determination to win

MOTHER AND CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

Mrs. Ernest Gardiner and her 14-year-old daughter lost their lives in the flames which consumed their home at Grand Downs, about 25 miles from Newcastle, about one o'clock Saturday morning. Mrs. Gardiner made a frantic effort to save her daughter and had entered the burning building, when the structure fell, burying both mother and daughter. The house that night was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner and daughter. They slept in a bedroom of the kitchen. In the kitchen were sleeping Adolph Brideau and his wife. Brideau and his wife and Gardiner himself escaped uninjured.

Brideau says he was awake at 12 o'clock midnight and there were no signs of fire, and at one o'clock or thereabouts he awoke to find the house in flames. He gave the alarm to Gardiner and family, and Gardiner awakened his wife. Gardiner tried to get his wife to escape with him, but she went back to get her little girl and the house fell in, burying both the mother and the child.

The remains were buried Sunday afternoon. It is understood no inquest was held.

The house was owned by Louis Comeau, who is living at Nelson this winter. It was a two-storey structure, not plastered, but finished on the outside.

The tragedy has caused a great deal of excitement and considerable comment in the community where it occurred.

The general feeling is that if a little more exertion had been made, Mrs. Gardiner and her child might have been saved.

Secretary's Statement

The Campbellton Club officials through C. A. Alexander, the secretary state that the only reason they did not demand that Referee Staples go upon the ice and award the game to their team, was because there were hundreds of people in the rink to see a hockey game, and they felt they were entitled to some consideration and protection.

"We are not taking into consideration the matter of winning or losing a game, but we intend to carry our protests through on a question of principle," said Mr. Alexander. "If any one club is going to be allowed to defy the league officials, the A. A. U. of C. and all the rest of it then we want nothing more to do with it, but in the meantime we intend to find out where the other clubs in the N. B. H. L. stand by following up our protests to the end."

Bathurst Will Stick

Chatham can leave the New Brunswick Hockey League and go to the Independents if they want to, but Bathurst will continue to play under the A. A. U. of C., even if we have to do it alone, and I am quite confident the rest of the North Shore will stand behind us in such a decision, declared G. A. Schryer, of Bathurst, a member of the N. B. H. L. executive, who has been here this week.

Mr. Schryer said that the Bathurst club would stand for straight amateur hockey, and would play nothing else, while he believed Campbellton would also take the same stand. "Clubs have got to understand that they must live up to the rules and accept decisions of the recognized officials of the A. A. U. of C.," said Mr. Schryer, "and until they do so there will always be trouble. I am
