

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1888.

Legal Newspaper Decisions.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office...

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay any arrears...

3. The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office...

4. All matter intended for publication in the Herald, should be in our office by noon on Tuesday of each week.

5. Nothing could more fully demonstrate the absence of statesmanship, or more clearly prove the want of harmony and unanimity of sentiment among the members of a political party...

6. While the Fishery Commissioners were in session at Washington, and no one outside of themselves could obtain any knowledge of what questions were engaging their attention...

7. The papers that have been submitted to Parliament show that not only with this case, but that our plenipotentiaries persistently and urgently made propositions of this nature...

8. As follows: "With the view of removing all causes of difference in connection with the fisheries, it is proposed by Her Majesty's plenipotentiaries...

9. This proposition was submitted by Sir Charles Tupper, on behalf of the British plenipotentiaries, on the 3rd of November last, and after having it under consideration for a whole month, during which time, we may be sure, the American Commissioners looked at it in every possible light...

10. "While continuing their proposals have been submitted on the 30th ult, and fully stating the desire of Her Majesty's plenipotentiaries to remove all causes of difference in connection with the fisheries, the American plenipotentiaries are constrained, after consideration, to decline to assent to the proposed proposals...

11. "The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

12. "The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

13. "The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

14. "The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

15. "The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

thus showing that they have lacked down somewhat from their former position.

Now, it should be quite evident that until the United States has made known her views regarding this trade doctrine, any vote taken in the House of Commons would be of no consequence, and the time taken up with a discussion of the subject would be useless.

A resolution was introduced to the House of Representatives in Washington the other day, in favor of Commercial Union with Canada. The resolution asks the President of the United States to appoint three commissioners to confer with a like number appointed by the Government of Canada to make the necessary arrangements.

It is not very probable that either of these changes will be followed by any important political result, as Prince Bismarck will, as long as he lives, be the actual ruler of Germany, no matter who may occupy the throne.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

party opposed to all constitutional reform. Having rendered himself very obnoxious to the revolutionary leaders, in the outbreak of 1848 he was obliged to take refuge, for a time, in England.

His brother, the King, becoming insane in 1857, Prince William was appointed regent, and on the King's death, in 1861, without issue, he was crowned King. In 1867 he was constituted head of the North German Confederation, and in 1871, after the war with France, was proclaimed Emperor of Germany.

He will be succeeded, as Emperor, by his eldest son, Prince Frederick William, who is, as all know, seriously ill. Should the disease from which the latter is suffering, as is generally expected, prove fatal, the crown will descend to his eldest son, Prince Frederick William Victor Albert, who is twenty-nine years of age, and who, as our readers are aware, is a grandson of Queen Victoria.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

The company has now an outstanding insurance account amounting to $427,628.93. It received for premiums in 1887 the sum of $17,110,901, and its total income from all sources amounted to $23,079,922.46.

It paid to its members during the year for death claims and endowments over $3,000,000, and the total payments to policy-holders aggregated $14,128,433.60. The number of policies was increased to 140,943, the largest number in any Life Insurance Company in the world.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

Sir Richard Cartwright said the question at issue was one of principle as to whether the Government should undertake this legislation or not.

When Mr. Foster thought temperance people were to be congratulated upon the zeal of the Opposition. He hoped it had come to stay. In moving in amendment to the motion to go into committee, he supported a vote of want of confidence in the Government, the Opposition had resorted to a transparent method to raise the partisan political cry.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

one of the American plenipotentiaries, in which he said that a great deal of the time of the conference was consumed in the determined efforts of Her Majesty's plenipotentiaries to have the question of increased freedom in our commercial relations considered, but that the American plenipotentiaries told us over and over again that it was utterly impossible for them to do so.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

ed in the widest possible degree from the case of Travins. The criticisms of the Calgary press were perfectly proper. It had been concluded that so much could not be said of the New Brunswick case.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

Local and Special News.

In your notice you made of horses sent to the fair, you said that you had seen a pair of horses that were very fine. I have seen a pair of horses that were very fine, and I have seen a pair of horses that were very fine.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

LOCAL AND

His Majesty's returned home from last. Don't forget I Kelly's Cream, 17th inst.

EDITORIAL NOTES. To-morrow will be election day for the Belfast and Tighish Districts. The elections will be over before this paper reaches those districts.

Six members of the Canadian House of Commons have died within a year. The deceased are: Messrs. Campbell of Renfrew, Ont., Campbell of Digby, N. S., Moffat of Hestigouche, N. B., Cimon of Charlevoix, Robertson of Hastings, and Claves of Missisquoi.

NEWFOUNDLAND TO JOIN THE UNION. It appears that practical steps are now to be taken for the admission of Newfoundland as a member of the British North American Confederation.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.

The question is now under discussion in the Newfoundland Legislature, and the probabilities are that a deputation will proceed to Ottawa to negotiate terms of admission, and perhaps, before another year the ancient colony will be a Province of the Dominion of Canada.

It is considered by my Government that if your Government approves, the time would be convenient for the discussion of the question of the admission of Newfoundland into the federal union, and that no difficulty would be likely to arise in arranging the terms.