Mr. Strachan, Reeve of Grey, was pleased to see such a representation present. It showed earnestness in the cause. THE NOMINATION

Under the N. P. regime, appeared to be, in many instances, the crowning iniquity to turn honest minded men from Sir John and his party, with loathing. He appealed to the men of Grey to come out in their old-time strengh, and reminded the recent action of the Government in the matter of the Gerrymandering Bill, them that as theirs was the banner the matter of the Gerrymandering Bill, as follows:

Dr. William Sloan, of Blyth, was nominated by Mr. John Powell, Turnberry, seconded by Mr. John Dyment, Bluevale.

The other nominations were T.Stracham, reeve of Grey; Dr. McDonald, Wingham; D. McGillicuddy, Goderich, M. Y. McLean, Seaforth; T. Gibson, M. P. P., Wroxeter; E. E. Wade, Brussels; J. A. Morton, Wingham; John McCrae, Morris, Ym. Drummond, Blyth.

The candidates were then invited to aldress the meeting, and the first to the men of Grey to come of the matter of the Government in the matter of the Gerrymandering Bill, as being subversive of the best interests of Ontario, in the fact that his Province is subjected to a redistribution of constituencies entirely at variance with the original intent of the Act governing redistribution each census year according to representation by population. That the wiping out of county boundaries and the severing of old ties between municipalities is immical to the interests of the people in the constituencies so gerrymandered, and the fact that no regular geographical or numerical basis the themselves hoarse, and said it was just that the so-called Redistribution Bill was introduced solely for the purpose of the continuous province of the matter of the Gerrymandering Bill, as being subversive of the best interests of Ontario, in the fact that his Province is subjected to a redistribution of constituencies entirely at variance with the original intent of the Act governing redistribution each census year according to representation by population. That the wiping out of county the wiping out to address the meeting, and the first called upon was

Dr. Sloan, who, on coming forward, was loudly applauded. He said he was glad to see that the fire had been kindled in East Huron; and he hoped it would not be allowed to die out. Next to being elected member the highest honor that could be offered any man was to be the choice of such a convenional did Huron there would be heard, on the convenional did Huron there would be heard, on the call was just the thing. (Laughter.) If proper work were done the three Hurons were safe for Reform. South Huron was ours by act of Parliament, by the gerrymandering of the Right Dishonorable Sir John Macdonald; the wise men of the East could seal this constituency to Reform on election day by good work; and in the West Riding where the majettic lake touches old Huron there would be heard, on

From every municipality there was a full representation of delegates, and many tried and true Reformers, and "fair play" Conservatives were present at the meeting. The feeling throughout was of a most unanimous nature, and a determination to wheel "East Huron in to line" in the coming contest could be observed on every countenance. The latest rascality of the Government—the third gerrymandering of Huron County—has, if possible, intensihed the feeling in East Huron, and that constituency which, on the latest basis of 1878, (when Mr. Thos.
