CAPS BEAT CALGARY.

Cow Punchers Were Outplayed and Outbatted.
Before a crowd of wildly cheering fans last night "Deacon" White's aggregation of ball tossers annexed the second game of the series from Calgary by a score of 7 to 4, and incidentally moved up a peg in the league standing. It was a shame to do it, Mr. Merritt, but we needed that game in our business.

And Mr. White, please Mr. White, will you do it again to-day? Waltz us around again Willie and we will be happy straight from Calgary and the fan's cup of joy will overflow, and he will go home to live happily ever after.

It was a game to cheer the hearts of the fans, and they and the rooster's chorus cheered and sang most merrily.

The Knockers Club and the Ancient and Dignified League of Hammer Swingers were present and took a silent part in the discussion. They made a little noise when Crist went up in the seventh chapter, but it died a natural death when he came down and figured in the only double play of the game. The runner, Mr. Crist in a Lulu Glaser of a pitcher. He only handed out one pass and eight Calgary men swung into space trying to connect with his deceptive benders.

Calgary got five hits and one man was passed, four runs coming in. Crist redeemed himself by gathering in O'Neil's dinky little one, cutting off the runner for the safe in time for Ford to retire O'Neil at first. In all the other innings the cow punchers only got two safe hits, and it was a continual procession to the back bench for them.

"Grandpa" Adams was seven different kinds of a peacherino, and gave an exhibition of hitting with his bat. He was a real runner, and Grandpa made three hits, scored two runs, and stole a base. He got the glad hand on every appearance and was given an ovation when he soaked a beauty over Shine's hat in the fifth. Wheeler also came in for a share of the applause, getting two nice hits in three times up, making the circuit each time. Burnstead, who was on the street for Calgary, was not hit awfully hard, but was a bit wild at critical times and gave four free tickets to first.

Russell, the left garden guardian, occupied a prominent position in the centre of the stage by labbing the hickory into the three clean hits in four times up. Mr. Russell is a hitter from sluggerville, and his manager, the pitcher, where it did the most good.

Calgary was easy in the first. Russell batted to second on the base, and Wheeler to Luss. O'Neil fanned.

The fireworks began for Edmonton at the start, and before the scintillations died down two men crossed the plate. Barrett was slow in handling Adams' single and Adams was safe. Wheeler sacrificed him along to second. Ford walked and was rewarded. Just before the thing happened, Adams made a break for third, and the Calgary infield got rattled. Ford got second sack, while Adams was safe on third. Grimes hit a dinky one and beat it to first. Wheeler failed in juggling the ball Adams and Ford came around at a 10 flat clip and both scored, while the rooster screamed with delight. It was a corking fine bit of team work, and the sensational feature of the game, Lussi went out to first and Baker's hit went to Barrett.

In the second, O'Donnell put a beauty to right field, which both Adams and Wheeler failed to connect with, the batter getting second. However, he died on third through Wheeler's prompt return to the pitcher's long fly. Farrell struck manfully at four good ones and sat down. Wheeler was out on Barrett. "Deacon" Crist's grounder went through Farrell's mitt, and he was safe. Adams hit safe, but Crist went out trying to stretch it to third.

Farrell went out to Wheeler to Lussi. Driscoll cut three circles. Burnstead got a pass. Russell hit one alone on the third base line that went foul, but Priest thought otherwise. Taylor's fly was gathered in by Grime's out on first. Wheeler trudged along to the next cushion. He got third on Ford's sacrifice, and came home on a sacrifice by Grimes, a pretty tricky little bit of work.

Lussi smashed a long drive over left field. Russell got his mitts on it but it was too hot to hold and Lussi pranced around the circuit to third. He was stranded as Burnstead gobbed Baker's stinger. It was one, two, three for both teams in the fourth.

Shine tried a stunt in the fifth by an attempt to purloin second. Ford's good throw nipped him in time. Adams again led off with a peach just over short stop. Wheeler again sacrificed him along. Ford put a beauty to deep centre, getting third and scoring Adams. Ford got home on Grime's out on first. Wheeler got four wide ones, and promptly stole second. There was no one to get Driscoll's throw, but Lussi was lassoed by Chandler.

In the sixth Calgary got a man on top but he died as Crist struck the next man out. Edmonton worked them for another. Baker went out to Farrell to O'Donnell. Driscoll was slow on Wheeler's drop. Calgary had another balloon trip, and Wheeler went around to third on White's out. Crist's hot one went through Shine and Wheeler came in. Grandpa came up smiling, but his drive went dead into Farrell's mitt, and it was all over.

Muffs and hard hitting got Calgary their four runs in the seventh. Batteries: Timman and Bemis; Donovan and Archie; umpire, O'Laughlin.

Edmonton Ball Team.
Where They Come from and Who They Are.
That the Edmonton Baseball team is not at the head of the percentage parade is surely not the fault of the players. "Deacon" White has gathered around him a bunch of expert ball tossers, who have played in the fastest company, but a bunch of mishaps crippled two or three of the best at the start, and it will be a week or so yet before they can get in the game right.

"Deacon" himself has been troubled with a felon on his finger, and his presence is greatly needed to steady the team on the field. Wheeler, the star hitter of the team, was hit the leg with a pitched ball at the start of the season. An abscess formed and he has been compelled to go around on crutches until yesterday, when he took to a cane. He expects to get in the game in another two weeks. White expects Alex. Harper to arrive today. Harper is one of the best pitchers in the Northwest League. He was signed by the "Deacon" last winter, but let out to Seattle for a ball player of ability. He offered all kinds of money and wanted to trade other players for him. He is needed here to steady the infield, and White promptly refused all offers.

Bennett has been in poor condition for some time. He strikes his gut there is no faster man on his feet. His long shot is pure lightning, and he takes care of the personnel and record of the players. "Deacon" W. F. White, the manager of the team, takes care of his clerical and "take care of" Sabbath appearance. He is 27 years of age, six feet long and weighs 160 lbs. more or less. He is a member of a military academy, turning out two champion teams, coaching the champion high school team of Iowa, also a champion college team in Minnesota, was three years in the Northern League and is the coach in Spokane in the Northwest League. Mr. White is a born manager and a ball player of ability.

M. (Norsky) Blexrud is descended from the Vikings of old, who sailed across the briny pond from the fastnesses of Norway. He is 24 years of age, six feet long and weighs 175 pounds. His baseball career began in Kookuk, Iowa State League. Next he was in the Northern League, and in 1906 went to Fresno, Fresno and left Norsky free to sign with Edmonton. He is the best pitcher in the league and a good all-around player.

C. A. Crist, he with the steel arm, has been playing independent baseball in fast company in California. He joined the Helena team in the Montana State League in 1905. He was the chief scribe in the Calgary team fans last year in the Calgary games. If his work last night is any indication of his ability, he will be the rooster's heart. Mr. Crist is 26 years of age, six feet high and 175 pounds.

Edward McGuiken is making good as a pitcher. He has spent the days of his youth in the Northwest League, independent teams in California and Washington. He was with the Walla-Walla team in the Northwest League. He is 25 years old, and says it is only six feet one inch high and weighs 175 pounds. He is a member of a military academy, turning out two champion teams, coaching the champion high school team of Iowa, also a champion college team in Minnesota, was three years in the Northern League and is the coach in Spokane in the Northwest League. Mr. White is a born manager and a ball player of ability.
