OF PRESQUE AND ST. KYRAN'S

A meeting of the citizens of Pres que, St. Kyran's and adjacent settlements was held at the latter place on the 23rd inst., presided over by Magistrate Sullivan, of Presque. On motion of the presiding officer, Mr. A. Keats, J. P., was appointed Chairman with Mr. T. J. Leonard as Secretary.

The object of the meeting was to Philip LeMessurier, F. Jos. Jackman appoint a committee to co-operate Albert K. Snow. Geo. Boyd Crocker. with the Volunteers movement at St. John's. A very large number was present and great enthusiasm prevailed. Patriotic speeches were made by Magistrate Sullivan and Mr. Keats, J.P., and a representative committee was appointed.

This portion of Placentia District is determined to do her part to uphold the honor of the British Empire and several young men volunteered for that purpose.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King and the allied forces.

(Sgd.) T. J. LEONARD, Secretary Patriotic Committee.
