

Foreign Communists May be Refused Entry Into Great Britain

Injury to Besco Property in New Waterford Reported—Rider Haggard Dead—Want of Confidence Vote in King Government Defeated.

BRITAIN MAY NOT ADMIT COMMUNISTS.
LONDON, May 14. The alarm over the growth of communism in Great Britain, which has been voiced recently, seems to have been strengthened by the decision of the British Cabinet, and now, it is understood, the advisability of refusing all foreign communists permission to enter this country for an annual conference of British Communists at Glasgow on May 31 is being considered.

U.S. WOULD SEPARATE ARMS CONVENTION FROM LEAGUE.
GENEVA, May 14. The U. S. delegation to the League of Nations International Conference on control of traffic in arms and ammunition, to-day officially filed an amendment to divorce its arms convention from the League.

THREE KILLED WHEN TRAINS COLLIDE.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 14. Two engineers and a fireman were killed and several injured in collision between Pennsylvania passenger train No. 6, east bound, and a freight near amendment to divorce the arms convention.

PUMPING PLANT DESTROYED.
SYDNEY, May 14. Damages were reported to-day to a large pumping plant supplying three collieries near the New Waterford property of the British Empire Steel Corporation, and two men were sent up for trial to-day on a charge of placing obstructions upon the railway tracks near Glace Bay.

NEW ZEALAND'S ACTING PREMIER.
WELLINGTON, May 14. Sir Francis Bell, Attorney General in the Massey Government, has been made Acting Premier.

ALL BUT FOUR SHIPS GONE.
NEW YORK, May 14. Twelve of the sixteen rum vessels that have been anchored on rum row under the surveillance of the blockading coastguard have put to sea in the direction of Halifax, officers reported to-day. Two steamers and two schooners remained of all the fleet that was on the rum row when the blockade commenced.

CANADIAN TRADE FIGURES.
OTTAWA, May 14. Canada's trade with the United Kingdom continues to increase, while trade with the United States lessens, according to figures just given out, showing that exports to the United Kingdom for twelve months ending March were $35,000,000 less than the corresponding period preceding. The total imports from the United Kingdom remained practically the same as the previous year, but imports from the United States decreased $30,000,000.

BULLION FOR ROYAL BANK.
MONTREAL, May 14. Two million dollars worth of gold bars from the United States arrived at the head office of the Royal Bank of Canada this morning, but it was not ascertained what the bullion was for.

BALDWIN GAVE FOURTH OF HIS ESTATE TO NATION.
LONDON, May 14.

That Prime Minister Baldwin gave a fourth of his fortune to the nation at a time when its financial needs were urgent is revealed by Wickham Steed in an article in the Review of Reviews. On his death, 1919, there appeared in the London Times a letter signed F. S. T., wherein the writer dwelt upon the country's exhaustion following upon the sacrifices of the war and the danger that by a natural reaction all classes might be submerged by a wave of extravagance and materialism. The nation must be made to understand the gravity of the financial situation, he said, and that love of country was better than love of money. This could be done by examples set by the wealthier class, and F. S. T. suggested they should impose upon themselves a voluntary levy. By this means, he thought, it would be possible to pay to the Exchequer enough to relieve the taxpayers of £50,000,000 yearly. On November 13, 1919, the Chancellor announced the receipt of £150,000 of the war loan from F. S. T. for cancellation. Mr. Baldwin was at that time Financial Secretary to the Treasury and the initials F. S. T. led keen-eyed individuals to detect the identity of the writer. Mr. Baldwin's estate at that time was valued at $500,000.

LIQUOR GOING UP IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, May 14. The price of liquor is going up in New York and going down in California. The reason is the Dry Navy's blockade of the east coast's rum row.

RIDER HAGGARD DEAD.
LONDON, May 14. Sir Henry Rider Haggard, author, died here to-day. Sir Henry Rider Haggard was born at Bradenham, Norfolk, in 1856, and spent the earlier part of his life in South Africa, on diplomatic service. He wrote copiously of life in Africa and produced for twelve years at the rate of a novel a year. He returned to England after the Boer War ended and began studying for the Bar, also continuing his fiction work. Although not generally known, Sir Rider Haggard was one of the outstanding agriculturists of the British Isles. He was knighted in 1912.

BRITAIN WILL NOT CALL DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE.
LONDON, May 14. The British Government will not at present take the initiative in calling a world disarmament conference. Premier Baldwin told the House of Commons to-day.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.
BATH, N.B., May 14. Freddie Brooks, four years old, and his baby brother of eight months, children of Gideon Brooks, were burned to death soon after midnight when their home here in which they were living, was destroyed by fire. Edward McKessey, who attempted to rescue the children, was seriously burned and overcome by smoke.

CONSERVATIVES DID NOT VOTE.
OTTAWA, May 14. The Progressive amendment to the Budget indicating a want of confidence in the Government was defeated in the House to-day by a vote of 110 to 33.

And in the Pie Crisco Will be Found the Purest Fat of All.

Many women tell of their successful experiences in cooking with CRISCO. For pies and pastry, we are told the superiority of CRISCO is most noticeable. Husbands have complimented their wives on their improved skill in cooking, when it really was CRISCO that was making the difference. For pies that are just right, for light flaky cakes and pastry, just try CRISCO. Now at all grocers.

The Originals (Overseas Dumbbells) in "Stepping Out"

Something extraordinary in theatrical entertainment, the season's biggest laugh, is coming to the Nickel Theatre next Monday for the entire week when Canada's celebrated soldier performers, the ORIGINALS, (including most of the Original Dumbbells) will present "Stepping Out," an entirely different conception of entertainment, on their first visit to the city. Theatregoers of St. John's have been looking forward to the boys' engagement here and are assured of a rare treat in "Stepping Out." They have a comedian who is without a peer on this continent. Bob Anderson is one of those talented Lancashire fun-makers who is just naturally funny, his every appearance on the stage is the occasion for riotous laughter.

Gene Pearson, the owner of the most extraordinary male soprano voice before the public, and who created a sensation last season with "Her" singing, has added greatly to his stage wardrobe, and also his vocal repertoire. In the new show he plays the role of a dashing Prima Donna in a one act Operetta which has been specially written for him; sings and dances in an elaborate Carnival scene; and plays the part of Lady Violet Sudds, the daughter of the Duchess of Duddswater, in the new and screamingly funny burlesque "The Duchess Performs."

The singing of the Originals has invariably been a joy, and their forces are strengthened even more by the addition to the cast of Thomas Dunn, a brilliant new baritone, and Gus McKinnon, a delightful new tenor; Bertie Langley and Jerry Brayford, always, add much to the musical and to the humorous excellences of "Stepping Out." Alan Murray, the old favourite, blossoms forth this season in a quite new line of characterization which is a surprise and delight to those who know him only as a graceful dancer and an attractive young man. His portrayals of the Apache Girl, of Lady Elizabeth Sudds, and as a Dancer with both Jerry Brayford and Thomas Dunn, are all features of the show, and it is quite evident that this latest Originals' revue is surpassing its immediate predecessor "Rapid Fire" in its uproarious comedy and beautiful music, all of which quality for the characteristic that supplies this clever troupe with its trade name.

When "The Duchess Performs," the final setting of the show, play-comes again witness the first and original "Duchess." Leonard Young, who delighted thousands four years ago as the aristocrat of "The Duchess Entertains," and who now brings new laughter at "Her" equally ill-advised attempts to "perform." Lionel Broadway, the Company's brilliant new juvenile, is a young Canadian artist of distinction and has already become a big favourite with the many admirers of the Originals. His snappy new song hits and magnetic personality stamp him as a musical comedy artist of splendid ability. Norman Blume and Jimmy MacDonald are two new comedians who have jumped into immediate favor with the Canadian public. There are nearly a score of melodious hits in "Stepping Out" and is an offering that everyone should see to fully appreciate.

Norman Talmadge in "Secrets"

AT STAR MOVIE MONDAY.

Do wives of to-day agree with the wife of this drama who said: "My husband in his association with other women, may he always be right, but my husband, right or wrong?" Can a husband hide the life he leads away from home? Can a husband love others—but love his wife the most? Can happiness be where a mother's smiles hide a father's indications from the four children they love? Only a drama as poignant, as beautiful, as searchingly truthful as this, could answer so vital a problem.

Adams and Cheney

ENCORED AND ENCORED.

Scoring an emphatic hit savoring of a triumph, Paramount's picturization of Bret Harte's famous story, "Salomy Jane," was cordially indorsed by large audiences at the Majestic Theatre last night.

Salomy Jane is a delightful mountain character as portrayed by Jacqueline Logan. When the stage, driven by Yuba Bill, a part excellently portrayed by Mr. Fawcett, is robbed and the stranger (Maurice Flynn) is arrested for the crime, the action becomes tense and spirited.

There are night rides galore, and many beautiful spots in the redwood forests of the Santa Cruz mountains are pictured with restful effect. But

The story—it's as full of thrill as an egg is of meat. It deals with life in Red Dog, a California mining town in the days of gold, but unlike most Western thrillers, its treatment is far from being trite and commonplace. One cannot praise too much the excellence of the work and ability of Adams and Cheney. Their delightful renditions have endeared them to the hearts of the thousands who have heard them. "The Dance of the Goblins" was wonderful, as was also John McCormack's ballad "I Hear You Calling Me," which enraptured the audience. The same programme will be repeated tonight, to-morrow afternoon and night, when those who failed to see it last night should make a special effort to do so.
