The New York Tribune
FOR 1606.

Within the last sight years our country has brimphantly passed through the gravest and most trying perils which has contained to the contained of the contained of

In the joyful trust that Grant's election has given the death-blow to Ku-Klux-Klans, and all manner of outrages on Unionists and Freedmen as such, and that Impartial Suffrage will no longer be seriously resisted, we hope to see the next four years signalized by an unprecedented expansion of the National Wealth. We hope to see new cabias dot the prairie, new clearings chequer the forest, new mills, factories, furnaces, erected, North, South, East and West, until our annual product shall be Hundreds of Millions greater than at present, while Mines of Iron and of Coal, of Gold, Silver, Copper, &c., shall be opened and worked, with an energy and to an extent that defies precedent. Believing that the systematic, efficient Protection of Home Industry is the corner-stone of a wise, benignant National Policy, and that it is essential to the rapid development of our latent resources, to the prosperity of our country, the maintenance of her Credit, and the horest payment of her Debt, we shall give it our most esrnest and active support.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE

has been so long known as the leading political newspaper of the country, that its special features need no elaborate description. It contains the fullest and most accurate reports of the proceedings in Congress and the State Legislature, careful summaries of news from all quarters of the globe, correspondence from all the principal centers of intelligence at home and abroad, letters from travellers in foreign lands, reviews of new books, dramatic, musical, and fine art, criticisms, literary, scientife, and religious miscellanies, and all the multitude of items which make up a first-class daily paper. It is printed with better and clearer type than any other daily journal in America. It is published every morning, Sundays excepted. Terms, $10 a year; $5 for six months.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the editorial articles, not merely local in character; literary reviews and art criticisms; letters from a large corps of foreign and domestic correspondents; special and Associated Press telegraphic dispatches; a careful and complete summary of foreign and domestic news; exclusive reports of the proceedings of the Farmers Club of the American Institute; talks about fruit, and other horticultural and agricultural information; stock, linancial, cattle, dry goods, and general market reports, which are published in the Daily Tribune. The Semi-Weekly Tribune also gives, in the course of a year, three or four of the best and latest popular novels, by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book form, would be from six to eight dollars. Terms of the Semi-Weekly Tribune.—Mail subscribers, 2 copies, 1 year—104 numbers, 87; mail subscribers, 5 copies, 1 opens, 100 opies 830 will receive an extra copy six months. Persons remitting for 10 copies 830 will receive an extra copy six months. Persons remitting for 10 copies 830 will receive an extra copy six months. Persons remitting for 15 copies 845 will receive an extra copy one year. For $100 we will send thirty-four copies and the Daily Tribune. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

has cot timed to circulate a greater number of copies than any other newspaper in the country. We appreciate this confidence, and shall abor to retain t. Its previous attractions will be continued and increased.
The main feature of our Weekly will be agriculture, literature, politics, and the markets, with the latest summary of the daily news.
We have made special arrangements to increase its usefulness as an agricultural journal. The Farmer's Club will be fully reported, and special articles on agricultural topics contributed by the best writers. No farmer who desires to till the soil with profit, and to know the progress constantly made in the science of his calling, can afford to neglect the advantages of a newspaper like tie Weekly Tribune, especially when it unites with agriculture other features or inlike the Weekly Tribune, especially when it unites with agriculture other features of interest and profit. The Weekly Tribune has already attained its present commanding influence and circulation, and we enter upon the new year with an assurance to our readers that no pains and no expense will be spared to give it still greater usefainess and power, and to make it a welcome, visitor to every fireside in the land.

The Editor of the Tribune purposes to write, during the year 1869, an elementary work on Political Economy, wherein the policy of Protection to Home Industry will be explained and vindicated. This work will first be given to the public through successive issues of the Tribune, and will appear in all its editions—Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

We will thank those who think that the influence of the Tribune condinces to the profit and well being of the people, to aid us in extending its circulation.

Many evidently presume that it is published by us, so that we can give copies at pleasure. In several cases Union soldiers have written us-saying that they were unable to pay its full price, but were nevertheless anxious to possess the work, and asking us to tell them by what means they may obtain it. In deference to these representations the publishers, the Tribune have made arrangements with Messra. O. D.
