LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Miss Anna May, of Barrie, late of this city, has gone to St. Thomas.

—The Camille Townsend Company is registered at the City Hotel.

—Mrs. Nicholson, of this city, has been visiting Mrs. O'Reilly, Hamilton.

—Mrs. G. Davey, South London, is the guest of Mr. W. Down, Stratford.

—County Clerk D. G. McKenzie is improving rapidly from his recent illness.

—Miss Cowan, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. Cavell, Madison avenue, Toronto.

—Mr. C. Cannon, of 289 Ridout street, intends shortly to leave for Minnesota on an extended trip.

—The London Presbytery met this afternoon in Knox Church, South London, for religious conference.

—O. E. Brenner, Dr. Flood, Ald. Fitzgerald, S. S. Workman and others leave tomorrow to attend the annual encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Buffalo.

—Detective Graham and a party of men started dragging the river in the neighborhood of Clark's bridge this afternoon in search of the missing Angus Fraser.

—The City Council meets to-night. It is probable there will be a scrimmage over the recommendations of the Finance Committee to increase the salaries of several of the city officials.

—Nicholas Flood Davin, M.P., the B. C. post and politician, and Robert Birmingham, of Toronto, the Conservative organizer, were at the Tecumseh House yesterday. They left to "work" South Perth.

—Forty-eight years ago the first English church in London, which stood on the site of the present St. Paul's Cathedral, was burnt down, said Mr. George Hiscox one day last week to an ADVERTISER representative.

—The walls of the new St. Joseph's Hospital are being rapidly reared and the structure is progressing finely. The construction of the new Anglo People's Home on Richmond street north is also being rapidly pushed.

—W. G. R. Gauld, of the Mimico Industrial School, came here on Saturday in quest of a couple of youths who had been expelled from the institution. Mr. Gauld spent Sunday with friends on Waterloo street, and returned to Mimico this morning with the fugitives.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ray, Bruce street, will deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their son Harry, who died this morning of diphtheria and Bright's disease. He was a bright and promising boy and very popular with his acquaintances. The funeral takes place tomorrow.

Suits have been entered by a man and his wife in this city against half a dozen city druggists. From each one they claim damages of $5,000. The ground for the suits is that the defendants sold drugs such as opium in larger than the prescribed quantities, and as a result the man's wife has been injured.

—The Ontario Government has issued letters patent for the incorporation of the Strathroy Canning and Preserving Company (limited), with a capital stock of $50,000 in 500 shares, the incorporators being John Henry Dunn, James Caruthers Hegler, Mrs. Agnes Dunn and Mrs. Lizzie Alice Hegler, all of Ingersoll, and Thomas N. Dunn, of London.

—The death is announced of Dr. J. G. Sinclair, a well-known and much-respected Hamilton dentist. Deceased, who was only thirty married, was a brother-in-law of Mr. Frank Cooper, of this city. He had many friends in the West. A finer specimen of sturdy, Christian manhood one has rarely met with. His death will be regretted by a wide circle of friends.

—Referring to sermons preached recently in Leamington by Rev. J. A. Murray, of this city, the Post says: "Rev. Mr. Murray is possessed of a grand voice and delightful delivery. Having traveled extensively, he is a clear-headed, logical and intelligent man. His sermons are full of trenchant illustrations of his personal observations and experiences. The reverend gentleman has endeavored himself to the people of all denominations here."

—W. R. Hobbs, president of the Hobbs Hardware Company, London, Ont., passed through this city Saturday en route to California. Mr. Hobbs was so favorably impressed with the possibilities of British Columbia that on his return to London he will consult with his colleagues as to the advisability of opening a branch establishment in the Province. (Vancouver B.C.) World.

—A young man named McDonald, living on York street, East London, complained at the police station this afternoon, that his wife had been drunk for three or four days and that she had gone to Brantford. She left him to take charge of two children—a boy 12 years old and a girl 6. McDonald is a fireman at London foundry.

Thomas; treasurer, Charles Leckey; aide, Conrad Frouman; inside guard, Leckey; representative to Grand Legion, J. Isaac, P.C.

—It is a nuisance the way Detroit dumps all the east-bound tramps off in this city, said a civic official this morning. "Every time these wanderers ask for free passes, the tickets are made out for London, and of course we have to pass them on somewhere else. It is cheaper to do that than keep them here. We have an average of three or four tramps every day. One fellow arrived this morning, who had started from Kansas City Thursday, and had left his way on fast trains all the distance."

A Little Bit of Blue.

The night after the Liberal processions, one of the Canadian Express Company staff found an interesting shillalah in the back of which adjoining that of the Conservative Club room. It was made out of one of the cross-bars of a sawhorse and the end had been nicely whittled into a handle, around which was tied a flaring blue ribbon. From the worn appearance of the handle it had evidently been carried a considerable time by the owner. Stains were found on the end that looked like blood marks, a fact that suggests it might have been the club that struck poor young Ashwell.

A Curious Mistake.

Messrs. George C. Davis and Wm. Wallace, jun., set out yesterday to condole with an esteemed family in the recent sad bereavement of a young member, with whom they had been acquainted. They saw a carriage on the door of a house, and thinking it to be the residence they sought, entered and assured the inmates of their heartfelt sympathy. On asking to look at the body they were somewhat astonished to find it not of their young friend but of an aged stranger. This curious mistake had arisen from the fact that there were two deaths on
