Four Men Killed and a Score or More Injured.

Injured.

Minnearous. Minn., Aug. 28. — A special from Barrett, Minn., on the Secroad, gives the details of a railroad accident by which four men were killed and a score or more wounded. The train was a regular passenger. Nearing Earrett there is a threshe bridge. The engine and one car had crossed in safety when the bridge callenged carrying down two caches. Four ar had crossed in safety when the bridge ollapsed, carrying down two coaches. Four ersons were instantly killed as follows: tust Escquist, of Hoffman, Minn. James Lannia, of Cypus, Minn.; Riward, inth, Dusbar, Wis.; Michael Crockets, L. Lannia, of Cyprus, Minn.; James L. Lannia, of Cyprus, Minn.; Edward Smith, Duubar, Whis.; Michael Crockets, Ironwood, Mich. The bridge had been inspected yesterday and pronounced perfectly safe, and five trains had passed over it to-day. A thorough investigation will be made.

COMFORT FOR THE AGED.

Food Better Than Medicine Dosing. "The old folks do not need medicine so uch as they do pure and nourishing food," anid a physician recently.

"In three or four score years of life a great many tons of tood have been digeated and this wear and tear results in weakness of the digeative organs. Stimulate them with medicine," he continued, "and the effect is speedy destruction. Nourish them with an easily digested and sprengthening food and strongth will return."

The best physicians in the world indorse this theory. They have found that Lartad Rood, the parfect food for infants, whose digeative organs are of the weakes.
