piphed on the market scales and weighed thated, I having the privilege of weighon any scales. I got my ticket from a market clerk, and when McIntyre ted me if I was satisfied I said I would to have them weighed again, and was a very particular on what scales, only just I saw a little whispering going on avious to them being weighed the cond time. The hogs had been run jound considerable, and any person that tows anything about the nature of the binal should be aware that there is a trinkage sure to follow. My reason for aving them weighed the second time isat a ten pound shrinkage is demanded in condon market and as a rule less than five bounds in Ingersoll, and as I live closer to condon I cannot understand why such should be the case. The words are imputed to me about saying they were sure to weigh bounds more; no such statement was streed by me, and the $2.27 maneuver that a sown broadcast is utterly false. The
