Grain—Oats were the principal supply in this line; sales were brisk and prices firm, at $1 05 to $1 08 per cwt; most of the loads went at $1 06. One small load of wheat sold at $1 53 per cwt. No hay or straw was brought in to-day; there should be a good demand for a limited number of choice loads on Monday; the farmers should try and gauge their loads so that they weigh about a ton; those who have only one horse don't want a large load at this horse don't want a large load at this time of the year.

Butter and Eggs—Butter was again very plentiful, and dull of sale; prices were easier, at 12½c to 14c for crocks and 14c to 15c for pound rolls. There was a considerable quantity of eggs offered, at 13½c to 14c for crate and basket lots; re-15c per dozen was asked by the

Apples were scarce; one large load of pies and Russets sold at 80c per bag; nferior stock sold at 75c to $1. Vegetables and Roots—This line was the feature of the market; the supply was large; sales were fairly brisk, with the exception of potatoes, which were dull and easier, at $1 19 to $1 15 per bag; a few lots went at $1 20 to $1 25 per bag in the early part of the market; onions were scarce, at 40c per dozen; asparagus, lettuce and radishes sold well at 35c to 40c per dozen hunches; rhubarh was a drug per dozen bunches: rhubarb was a drug at 20c per dozen; spinach went at 50c

Poultry-Not a great deal offered, and buyers did not seem anxious to purchase; prices ranged for last year's chickens at 80c to $1 10 per pair; spring chickens, 75c to $1 per pair; turkeys, 13c to 16c per lb.

Dressed Hogs—About 25 carcases were offered, and most of them went at $6 50 there is an extra good lot $5 per cwt will be paid; small pigs sold at $4 50 to $6 per patr.

Butchers' Meats—Sales were quite brisk at the following prices: Beef, $6 50 to $8 per cwt; veal, $6 to $6 50 per cwt; lambs, $4 50 to $5 each; mutton, $6 to $8 per cwt.

Honey is dull, at $c to 9c per lb for strained and 10c for comb hearten the aldermen, and some of them declare the appearance of the city is being ruined and streets are beng left in a disgraceful condition through the pettiness-some say stinginess-of the property owners. It is pointed out that a tar macadam avement, such as that on Queen's avenue, between William and Maitland, can be laid for about $1 15 a yard, and yet the people refuse to pay this moderate figure, and help improve their own property and at the same time the

"The whole trouble lies in the fact that the people want permanent pave-ments constructed out of the general rate, and no frontage rates charged, said one of the aldermen today: this, of course, they will never get. And in the meantime the condition of many streets is absolutely disgraceful." As a matter of fact, the city can d nothing in such cases, though the board of works must see to it that such streets are kept in a condition which at least will not be dangerous.
