London Divided a Double With Berlin On Saturday

London Won the First Game From Berlin by Scoring Three Runs in Final Inning, but Lost Second Game After Rallying and Tieing Score.

Mr. Barrett's Brigands had it all cut and dried to take two games from Demeau's Dyaks by last inning rallies on Saturday afternoon at the local pill box over the Thames. After carrying out the plot in the first fracas and putting through part of it in the second argument, Mr. Looey Bierbauer intervened and crabbed the whole proceedings. That is why the conspiracy did not work twice, and why the Dutchmen carried off the final session by the score of $ to 4. The score in the first game was 7 to 6 in favor of the home folks after one of the preftiest and most exciting rallies seen at Tecumsch Park this season.

BRAMSLE BRAVELY BIFFED.

Mr. Bramble, the queen bee of Mr. Deneau's heaving dispensary, occupied the dome for the visitors, and he nearly got away with the game. Opposed to him was our own Sammy Smith, who was trotted out for his second effort in behalf of the locals' interests. Both picchers travelled along smoothly until the ninth and final chapter. Previous to that time, Mr. Smith had been having a triffe the best of it, and, when he ascended the eminence to get the last three men, he had the advantage over his rival by the score of 4 to 1. Then something happened; Mr. Smith blew up in a large cloud of smoke. He allowed two hits, passed two men, and hit another, and had forced in two mass with only one out when he was relieved of all further responsibility. Fitzpatrick took his place, and three more rems came in before the spasm was finally ended.

SOME AWFUL FINISH THIS!

The Indians went in to bat with the score 6 to 4 against them in their half. They determined to get the necessary markers to win out. They got 'em. Only five men faced Mr. Bramble, and three of these tallied, owing to the mighty swatting powers of Mr. Cocash and Mr. Fox, the latter gentleman scoring the last two counters with a handsome bingle to right. It was a close squeak, and the fans had all kinds of opportunity to display their vocal powers. When Mr. Fox shattered the atmosphere with his timely thump, there was some noise, believ

The second game came near having the same kind of ending, but, as mentioned before, a bone on the part of Mr. Bierbauer prevented. It is not often Looey loses a game for the home aggregation, so there was no excuse for his little nap at third base with only one out and one run needed to win. Mr. Minmie Matteson, perceiving that Looey had lost all recollection of time and place, promptly passed the pill to Mr. Bullock, who caught the slumbering gent a yard off the bag. It broke up the game as far as London was concerned. With the score a tie, it was necessary to play an extra inning, as seven innings had been agreed upon as the length of the contest. In the eighth, the followers of Mr. Deneau packed the joust so hopelessly out of the reach of the grasping home help that it was almost a crime. They got to Mr. Fitzpatrick for four runs, and it was all over.

It Matteson whipped the ball to Bullock, and was with no small degree of surprise and shock that the multitude of local fans witnessed the pyrotechnic display in the ninth inning, especially as Sammy had been pitching great ball previously, and it never looked for a moment that the Bees had a chance to corral the contest.

The locals grabbed the lead in the second inning, when Mr. Bramble's assortment was combed for two hits and three runs. After Cocash had died on a foul fly, Fox singled to right and was forced at second on Neale's grounder to Bramble. Speer walked and Smith hit a long fly right into Burns' mit. The latter muffed it, however, and Neale and Speer counted. Linneburn followed with another hit in the same direction, and the sun got in Mr. Burns' way this time, the ball falling safe, and Sammy Smith scoring. Deneau then put Reidy in left, and sent Burns to right. The wisdom of the move was seen when Gilhooley sent out a high one to left with two men on, Reidy gobbled it up.

TORONTOS CINCH THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeat Tecumsehs in One-Sided Battle in the Queen City on Saturday.

FRENCHMEN GOING FAST

Take the Measure of the Irish at Montreal Saturday-Caps Win From Cornwall in Overtime.

Toronto Aug. 11.-In a week that saw the best exhibtion of lacrosse of the season, viz., the civic holiday struggle at the Beach, the enthusiasts of the city also witnessed the poorest game played so far this year. The Torontos defeated the Tecumsehs at the Island on Saturday by 9 to 4, but that score gives little idea of the superiority of the boys in blue over last year's champions. The men were not going fast enough to keep them always in-terested in the matter in hand, and consequently there were several ad-journments while the players settled difficulties. It may be remarked in passing that the D. L. A. cannot afford many exhibitions of this kind. People want lacrosse like these teams have proved they can play. The Torontos always seemed sure of the outcome of the game, and without apparently exerting themselves they went steadily to work to roll up a safe score, notching points at regular intervals. After placing the game on ice they tried out Spellen and Holmes to give them the experience which both require. Spellen has speed and grit when he learns to use them Montreal 6, Shamrocks 4. Montreal, Aug. 11. — Montreal de-feated Shamrocks 6 to 4 yesterday afternoon, and though it was slow lacrosse it proved interesting to the end, for the Irish were coming fast, and it looked for a while in the second half as if the "winged wheelers" might not be able to insure their escaping the cellar position. The game was often delayed by minor injuries to players, and proved rougher than previous encounters. Frankie Hogan and Allman were each retired and received the major penalty for tripping, while Mc-Intyre received a cut on the head, the guilty party escaping.

Capitals Won in Overtime.
Ottawa, Aug. 10. — It took 70 minutes of the fastest and most exciting lacrosse to decide the Capital-Cornwall struggle in the N. L. U. yesterday. The Capitals were eventually the winners, and the final score was 3 to 0. The result leaves Cornwall still at the top of the heap, but the Capitals now have a chance to tie them, a feat which can be accomplished by winning their remaining games from Montreal and Shamrocks, and beating the Corn-walls on their own field two weeks One goal virtually meant the game for either side, and on severa occasions Cornwall had the N. L. U. championship within its grip, only to lose it through a poor shot or a bad pass. Goalkeeper Clint Benedict saved his team five or six times by rushing

Nationals 12, Irish 0. Montreal, Aug. 11, — Nationals administered an unmerciful whipping to the Irish-Canadians yesterday on the East End grounds, whitewashing Kennedy's boys by a score of 12 to 0. One of the largest crowds of the season turned out in expectation of an overtime game between the teams, and for the first quarter it looked as if their hopes might be realized. In the second, however, the Nationals ran in six in a row, and while the third quarter was also scoreless, they duplicated their feat of the second period in the
