CANADA BENEFITED.

More proof of the fact that the U.S. emergency tariff instead of increasing and protecting United States trade is having the opposite effect has just been furnished by a statement issued by the Canadian Trade Commissioner in New York to the United States press. According to the statement, while Canada's total exports to the United States in 1921 fell to $327,000,000 as compared with $560,000,000 in 1920, a decrease of well over 40 per cent.

United States exports to Canada fell from $221,000,000 to $155,000,000, a decrease of nearly 30 per cent.

The sixty per cent. reduction in the value of both Canadian exports to the United States and United States exports to Canada during the calendar year 1921, was partly attributable to an average drop in prices of about 27 per cent. Taking this into account, it will be seen that Canada exports to the United States and United States exports to Canada were each reduced in volume by approximately 45 per cent. compared with 1920.

The reaction effect of the exclusion of Canadian goods from the United States by the emergency tariff upon what the United States sells to Canada is clearly indicated. This is brought about by the necessity for a greater decreased purchase in Canada of United States goods, because of the coincident curtailment of Canada's ability to buy, and the greater surplus available for domestic consumption, the statement declares.

The emergency tariff has actually benefited Canada therefore, in every way.—Ex.

ITS TRUE.

Chatham World says—Hockey is discredited by the squabbles of the players. The Chatham team went to Campbellton last winter and refused to play without a change of referees, and the Campbellton men had to yield or give back the gate money to 600 people who had paid to see a game. They won the game, but the League authorities very properly declined to allow it to be placed to their credit.

And here in Chatham, the other night, the appointed referee, not having arrived, the clubs could not agree on any one man and two were named by President Sterling, who notified the teams that the one who refused to accept his appointees would be declared the loser. This is the kind of talk that such wranglers understand, and both teams stopped talking and proceeded to play. Chatham won, and then Campbellton, having left the ice after being beaten and refused to play to the end, sent in a protest, claiming that the employment of two referees was illegal. The protest has been disallowed. The popularity of hockey will wane if players don't confine themselves to playing and stop wrangling.

SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH.

The secretary of the Fredericton Board of Trade has received a communication from F. M. Gaudet, of Ottawa, technical executive officer of the Advisory Council for Scientific Research, asking the local Board of Trade to signify their approval or disapproval of the proposed establishment of a National Research Institute. A bill is being prepared for introduction at the next session of Parliament providing for the establishment of such an institute for the exclusion of Canadian goods from the United States by the emergency tariff upon what the United States sells to Canada is clearly indicated. This is brought about by the necessity for a greater decreased purchase in Canada of United States goods, because of the coincident curtailment of Canada's ability to buy, and the greater surplus available for domestic consumption, the statement declares.

Windsor, Ont.—E. C. Rice, C.P.R. ticket agent, has relinquished his duties here, after 11 years' service, and has gone to Florida for a three months' vacation, as he has not enjoyed the best of health of late. He is succeeded by W. A. Armstrong, for 17 years in the ticket service of the railway company in Toronto.

Kentville, N.S.—The Dominion Atlantic Railway has moved 105,000 barrels of apples to Halifax for export. There are still approximately 350,000 barrels left for export. From the beginning of the season 1,400 more cars of apples were moved than for the corresponding period last year.

St. John, N.B.—During the present season the Canadian Pacific has hauled 2,048 cars of grain containing 428,908 bushels which have been unloaded to the elevators at West St. John, as compared with 3,065 cars with 5,045 bushels during the corresponding season last year. The elevators at West St. John still contain a million and a half bushels of grain.

The new Canadian Pacific Steamship "Montcalm," which sails between St. John and Liverpool, is equipped with motion pictures. The showing of motion pictures on board ship has proven a big success ever since its inauguration last year.

The late Mr. Anderson has been in failing health for some years, but on Saturday last suffered a paralytic stroke, from which he passed away on Thursday night. He is survived by three sons—John Anderson, Brockton (Mass.); Finley, in the west, and Rev. George S. Anderson, Sonerville (Mass.); also two daughters. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was largely attended. Services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. Alex. James A. Orr.

James A. Orr, one of the most prominent circus managers in the United States, and who has spent more years in that form of amusement enterprise than the average man, died in St. John Friday afternoon. He had been in ill-health for several months and last year went to a Rochester, Minn., sanitarium for six months' treatment for a malignant growth in the throat. Not receiving permanent benefit he returned to St. John Christmas to spend his last days with his relatives, and died at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Miller, 47 Broad street, aged 65 years. The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, 86 Simonds street. When a young man he left St. John with a theatrical company and went on the stage in the United States. He had a splendid voice and remained in theatrical companies for some time, eventually branching into the circus business.

Robert Gray.

The community was greatly grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Robert Gray which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Dugway Roseberry Street, on Sunday afternoon after an illness of only a few days from pneumonia. Deceased who was in his 76th year was highly regarded and much esteemed, and his death will be deeply mourned by a large circle of friends.

News was communicated to his son Walter H., who was spending a few months in Hot Springs, Ark., and he arrived in Campbellton on yesterday's limited. The late Mr. Gray for years was a provincial constable, but of late years conducted a confectionery store on Roseberry Street. The family will have the sympathy of the entire community in the great loss they have sustained. A funeral service was conducted by Rev. Hugh Miller, M.A., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dugway last evening and the remains were forwarded to Sussex on this morning's maritime for burial. They were accompanied by the deceased's son, Walter H. Gray.

Thomas W. Sansom.

Havelock Sansom, of this town, received a telegram Thursday evening announcing the sudden death there of Thomas W. Sansom, of Nashwaak, which occurred Thursday afternoon at the home of his aunt, Mrs. William Carson.

Mr. Sansom left Fredericton about three weeks ago for Houlton to visit his aunt and was in his usual good health. He had planned on leaving for Campbellton Friday and the news of his death came as a shock to his many friends, no intimation being received of his illness.

Mr. Sansom had been associated in business in Fredericton with ex-Warden M. Byron McNally until about two years ago when the firm sold out their business. He was well known to a large circle of friends over the entire province and his sudden death will be learned of with regret. He was 57 years of age and is survived by four brothers, George, Howard and Havelock Sansom, of Campbellton, and Clarence, in Alberta, and one sister, Mrs. John Richards, of Campbellton.

VALENTINI.

The valentine was a pig under a fence? asked the Newcastle man, and answered it himself by saying, "Two pigs." What it a greater nuisance than a drunken man? asked the Chathamite. "Two drunken men," answered the Newcastle citizen. "That's not the right answer," said Chathamite. "It is a half drunken man," and the audience voted unanimously that this answer was the right one.

THE QUESTION ANSWERED.

Why is a newspaper like a pretty woman? asked the Newcastle man, and answered it himself by saying, "Two pigs." What it a greater nuisance than a drunken man? asked the Chathamite. "Two drunken men," answered the Newcastle citizen. "That's not the right answer," said Chathamite. "It is a half drunken man," and the audience voted unanimously that this answer was the right one.
