Nomber of a London Volunteer Corpu-Trial of Six More Members of the Armigh Assessination Society.

DUBLIN, March 26. - The Freeman's Journal states that the correspondence between the Home office and Mr. Lowell, the United States minister, resulted in the for-mer abandoning all hope of accuring the extradition of the person known as "No. 1." The Journal declares that No. 1, where name is Tyner, was in Dublin until the first day Carey was examined at the hearing of the conspirators. He then man-aged to reach Brymen by way of Hull. From Bremen he proceeded to Havre and thence to New York. He was a member of one of the London volunteer corps. But.rasr, March 26.—The trial of six more members of the Armsgh Assassination society began to day. Judge Lawson pre-sides. Murphy in opening for the crown dwelt strongly upon the circumstance that when Burns arrived in Ireland at the end of 1880 to organize the assassination tween the Home office and Mr. Lowell, the

The widence of an informer will be introduced by the prosecution for the purpose of show-ing that the murders were planned by the society, and documents supporting this charge will be produced.

Seavy Failure in the Paper Trade. PITTSBURG, March 26.-C. P. Markle & Sons, the largest paper manufacturers in Western Pennsylvania, have assigned; lia-bilities, $400,000; assets, nearly a million. Heavy failures in the west, a general de-pression in trade and unprofitable invest-ments were the cause. It is officially stated the failure was precipitated by Capt Caseius Markle, one of the firm leav-ing the city on Thursday night and taking $60,000 to $100,000 of the firm's money, heaving the bank account bare and no fund to meet maturing obligations. On Thu re-day he drew $12,000 to meet the pay the at West Newton, Markleton, and their poke works in Westmoreland county. This he took with him.
