Frauds on the Dundas Track. The Hamilton Tribune is authority for the statement that the races at Dundas Friday were a series of frauds. The trot between Barton Girl and Gray Dan was a fix. It was intended that the Girl should wir, but an energetic protest from a backer of Dan to the judges caused a change of drivers, and the fix was broken. The flat race was a glaring and outrageous attempt to fleece the crowd, but fortunately few of them bit. The mare that lost the race could have easily won if she had not been held by her rider. The game and galant little beast—more hopest than her rider or her owner—tried to win, and the boy had almost to pull her head off to let Bonnie Dora get in front of him.

John L. Sullivan's Danger. SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 13 .- John L. Sullivan, the illustricus Boston pugilist, is bound to have a lively time in this state. His conduct at Pottsville last evening has aroused great indignation against him in this section. He was intoxicated in Potts-ville, and his behavior in a notorious establishment was so bad that the p-lice raided the place. Mr. Sullivan escaped and came to this city. Here he was hooted in the streets to day, and has not dared to give a sparring exhibition. At one time it was thought that there would be a riot He is in a desperate mood, and the Pennsylva-nia sluggers are talking of knocking him

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Pool sellers and here in Coney island lost $25,000 by the false despatches about the Jerome park races sent over the Western Union wires S. turday. Pittsburg lost $5000, for which it is said they will hold the Western Union resourchible. Buffalo lost $4000, Chicago $5000 and St. Louis $10,000. The swindle was a very shrewd one. It implicates the op-rators who sent the messages and the pockeys in the first and last two races, as their representatives played the winning holds in each of these events in events. their representatives played the winning house in each of those events in every city. It also involved the employment of men in Beltimore, Philadelphia and Chicago and other places to do the betting.

Coreans Afraid of Knives and Forks. From the New York Sun.

In Corea a death penalty against intruding foreigners used to be strictly enforced, and is still on the statute books, though recent treaties have nullifled it. The Corean ambassadors cannot get the idea out of their leads that they are in danger here, a New York correspondent says, and all the persuasiveness of the Caucasians who have them in charge is required to make them expose themselves to assassination. When they visited Gen. Hancock at his military headquarters on Governor's Island the sight of so many armed and uniformed men raised their fears anew, and it was with considerable difficulty that they were induced to stay to dinner. Their previous meals in civilization had all been in hotels and restaurants, where the meals were served with out any of the carving being done in the dining room. Therefore, when a knife and fork of immense size were suddenly flour-ished before their eyes at table at least one of them concluded that the time for a murderous onslaught had come. The panic stricken Corean was Chen Kyong Sok, an attache of the embassy. He sprang from his seat and made for the door, to be laboriously brought back by Secretary Lowell.

An Autobiography of Trollope. From the New York Sun.

It is not generally known that Anthony Trollope left behind him an autobiography, which is soon to be published. It brings Trollope's life down to 1875. It is a very frank record of his literary work and of his opinions. His account of the poverty and misery amid which his boyhood and youth were spent will probably be a revelation to those who were most intimate with him in later years. His troubles when he first joined the post office and his subsequent success and adventures as a surveyor in Ireland are set down without reserve, and it is obvious that, incidents in his own life. of Ballycloran" was published, and 1879, Trolope had rewived for his books a sum close upon $350 000.

Premier Smithe's Annexation Speech

From the Victoria, B.C., Post The special despatch to the Chicago Tri bune from this city dated the 18th instant, containing a garbled account of the speech of the Hon. Mr. Smithe has given the Standard an opportunity to whet its appetite for discortion to suit its own views. It is true the honorable gentl man remarked that if aunexation did take place, in all probability Puget Sound would be affili-ated to Victoria. And we take leave to ay probability Puget Sound ated to Victoria. And we take leave to say that his utterance on that occasion is dorsed by the people of the province. As regard the stat ment that Hon. Mr. Robson signed a petition for the annexation of the province to the United States, it is simply a bareface lie, and everyone who knows the minister of finance will bear us out in this emphatic denial. The mendacious correspondent to the Chicago Tribune has overshot the mark this time, his motive for twisting the remarks of the premier is well understood, and his lying statement resrecting the minister of finance has fallen flat upon Victorian ears. READABLE PARAGRAPES.
