A SELL.—On Tuesday evening last, four gents on horseback, entered our town, whose singular habit and quaint appearance excited the curiosity of the denizens, and various were the conjectures touching their character and purpose: the general belief being, that they were forerunners of Fuller's Circus which is expected here at the close of the month. The fact simply is, they were Officers of the 36th Regt. Frederick, in pursuit of Deserters, and not not gents of a non-descript character.

NEW YORK CIRCUS.—This splendid establishment visited this Town on Friday last, and exhibited their Equestrian exercises in the afternoon and evening. There never was so large a collection before of the beauty and fashion of the Town and neighbourhood, as were assembled at the circus to witness the beautiful and astonishing feats of the Performers, who gave the greatest satisfaction, and endeavoured to gratify each in their desire to please the audience.

Casualties.—On Saturday last a young man named McGuire, while endeavouring to secure a stick of timber was run over by a wood boat; and was unfortunately drowned.

We regret to learn that Mr. John Joubert, was struck by lightning on Friday night, and instantly killed. John A. Beckwith, Esq. who was a little before him at the time, was also struck down, but has since partially recovered from the effects of the shock.

The marriage of the Grand Duke of Alexandria of Russia with the Grand Duchess Maria Alexandrowna took place at St. Petersburg on the 28th April; and by an Imperial manifesto of the same date, it is decreed that the Grand Duchess shall in future bear the title of Cesarewna.
