A HINT TO THOSE WHO ARE NOT BUSY

We are running a series of advertisements prepared by the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association which every subscriber to THE MONITOR appears to be reading very carefully.

BOYS' WORK BOARD

Several important meetings of the Boys' Work Board have been held recently. The debating team is being prepared to meet Middleton in the latter town February 10th.

FRIDAY EVENING'S CARNIVAL

The official opening of Bridgetown's open skating rink on the Athletic grounds took place last Friday evening in the form of a masquerade carnival.

WHAT CAUSES THE DELAY?

We appreciate clippings from newspapers concerning Annapolis and Digby County people, but would like to get them when they are news and not after they are weeks old.

WASTING (1) THE RATEPAYERS' MONEY

The Ottawa Citizen publishes a despatch from its Brockville correspondent reporting the appointment in Westport, Ont., of Jerry Steele as constable, street commissioner, sanitary inspector, school attendance officer, poundkeeper, dog tax collector and enforcer of the Ontario temperance act and caretaker of the town hall and other municipal buildings at a salary of $200 per annum.

THEIR WORK APPRECIATED

At the recent meeting of the municipal council held in Yarmouth a vote of thanks was tendered Denton & Condon for the excellent work done on the Court House in that town.

TUXIS BANQUET

The Tuxis Boys of the Bridgetown Baptist Church held a banquet in their rooms with the C.G.I.T. girls as their guests last Saturday evening.

CALENDARS

We are in receipt of very convenient office calendars from the Beverly (Mass.) Evening Times, and Frank R. Troop, general merchant, Granville Centre.

Purpose and perspiration are a winning team.

Local Happenings

Advertising is not a modern invention—read Numbers 24:14 and Ruth 4:4.

Don't forget the dance in the Court House to-morrow (Thursday) night. See adv. in another column.

Mr. LeRoy Gillatt, of Granville Centre, recently sold his farm to Aubrey Baltzer of the same place.

Mr. G. Osborne Balcom, of Lawrenceville, Annapolis County, in renewing his subscription says that THE MONITOR has been in his family ever since the first copy was issued.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather quite a large number of Oddfellows and Rebekahs enjoyed a sleigh drive to Beeler & Peters' bungalow at their Dalhousie mill last Thursday evening.

There is no better town in the Valley to hold conventions than Bridgetown. Our Board of Trade should make a point to see that several special invitations are sent out every year.

Until last Monday we supposed that every merchant in Bridgetown knew that we cannot accept changes of advertisements after 12 o'clock noon on Mondays, and have the new ads. appear the same week.

Leslie's orchestra, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, Messrs. Charlie Longmire and Kenneth Dodge, furnished excellent music at the dance held in the Myrtle House, Digby, Friday evening under the auspices of the S.P.C.A.

Judge Lucien J. Easton, St. Joseph, Mo., was installed Wednesday at London, Ont., as Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Oddfellows. He succeeds the late Grand Sire Jos. Oliver, whose funeral took place a week ago at Toronto.

We are having an extra cold wave. Commencing with Sunday night the thermometer at Bridgetown has been averaging about six degrees below zero. There is a cold wave all over Canada, the coldest report coming from Edmonton, forty-eight below.

The Tuberculosis Clinic held in Bridgetown on Thursday, January 12th, was well attended. Dr. Bayne, from the N. S. Sanatorium, was present. Fourteen patients were examined, two of the follow-up cases were pronounced in a normal condition, three other patients were advised to go to the N. S. Sanatorium for operations.

There will be a horse race on the river at Bridgetown next Saturday afternoon commencing at 2:30, weather permitting. The entries are "Jack Jones," Mr. Harris Daniels; "Lady Bess," Elvin Daniels, Lawrenceville; "Nancy," Kenneth Hebb, Granville; "Gray Bird," Norman Dargie and "Don S. L.," Elias Ranney, Bridgetown.

An emergent meeting of Valley Chapter of Royal Arch Masons takes place at Middleton Friday evening, January 27th, at eight o'clock, to receive an official visit from Most Excellent Companion Edgar N. Clements, K.C., of Yarmouth, N.S., Grand High Priest of the 66th Chapter of Nova Scotia, accompanied by other Grand Officers. The Masons of Middleton are expecting a large attendance at this important event.

PARKER'S COVE

Colds are very prevalent. Quite a number are confined to their homes. We are having nice winter weather and the men folk are improving the sledding.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hardwick are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little son.

Mr. Carmen Milner, of Clements, was the guest of his father, Mr. Thomas Milner, last week.

Master Judson Hudson, of Hillsburn, visited his friend, Master Claude Milner, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hudson and children, of Hillsburn, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Weir, the 15th.

Mr. Joseph Rice has closed his restaurant at Granville Ferry for the winter months and has come home for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McGarvie have returned from Lynn, Mass., and have moved in their new cottage here. We are always glad to have our neighbors come back.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, of Swampscott, Mass., have been visiting Mrs. Brown's son, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Anderson. They returned to their homes on the 12th.

Mr. Nelson Lutz, of Granville Ferry, and Master Smith Bohaker, of Karadale, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Halliday this week.

The Yarmouth schooners W. G. Robertson, Capt. Simon Theriault, and Patrick and Michael, Capt. Wm. Murphy, will shortly be away for the early halibutting. The former is being made ready and the crew of the latter will join her, but it will probably be a week or more after that before either of the vessels will leave Yarmouth.

WEDDING BELLS

AMBERMAN-CONDON

A quiet but exceedingly pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, 18th inst., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Condon when their youngest daughter, Olive Libby was united in marriage to Mr. George W. Amberman, a highly esteemed resident of Granville Ferry. Rev. W. G. Heister tied the nuptial knot in a most graceful manner.

Allen-Miller

A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. John W. Leavitt, at Wolfeboro, N.H., on December 26th, when her sister, Miss Hattie Miller, of Bear River, and Orlo W. Allen, of Waltham, Mass., were united in marriage by the Rev. B. E. Black, pastor of the Baptist Church, of Wolfeboro.

Dukeshire-Greenslade

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Monday morning, December 19th, 1921, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Round Hill, Annapolis County, when her daughter, Grace Marguerite Greenslade, was united in marriage with Ira K. Dukeshire, of Clementsvalle. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Reeks, only the immediate family being present.

Baptist Notes

The annual business meeting of the Bridgetown Baptist Church was held last Wednesday evening. Reports were received from the officers and societies, showing that the year 1921 has been a year of progress. The church is in good financial condition, having raised during 1921 for all purposes local and benevolent, over four thousand dollars.

An Every-member canvass to cover the entire pastorate is to be conducted Sunday afternoon, February 6th. Thirty canvassers have been appointed. The objective is $5,000.

If you are at all suspicious you will be glad that the figures of 1922 do not add up to 13, as did those of 1921.
