CAMPAIGN ECHOES

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF
MRS. LETITIA YOUMANS
The Pioneer of the White Ribbon movement in Canada.

WITH INTRODUCTION BY

MISS FRANCES E. WILLARD.

Cloth, 311 pages, $1.00.

For years Mrs. Youmans travelled through Canada and the States, delivering burning temperance addresses from a thousand platforms. Now confined to her bed, an invalid through inflammatory rheumatism, she has, at the request of the W.C.T.U., written or rather dictated to an amanuensis, this story of her life. It is a thrilling and inspiring book—not a dull page in it. A photograph portrait of Mrs. Youmans and a group portrait of Miss Willard, Mrs. Bright-Lucas and Mrs. Youmans, add to the interest. The great demand for the book has within a month almost exhausted the first edition. A second edition is now going to press.

A FLOAT FOR ETERNITY

—OR—
A Pilgrim's Progress for the Times.

—BY—
REV. J. B. KENNEDY, B. A.

With Introduction by CROSSLEY and HUNTER.
Cloth, 60c. Paper, 40c.

From the Introduction we quote the following words: "We have read 'Afloat for Eternity,' written by our friend and brother, Rev. James B. Kennedy, and have been more than delighted with it. It is properly named 'A Pilgrim's Progress for the Times,' as it is up to date on the questions of modern amusements, thought, and life. The book is certainly original and unique in conception and style. Again and again while reading it together, we said, 'That is a clever book, and splendidly written.'"
